This is a reminder that if your dancer will be missing class due to illness or other reasons, you must email the school to advise of this sopilkawinnipeg@gmail.com

KRISTINA'S KORNER

The dancers and teachers are busily preparing for Zabava! The excitement is high and we can't wait to show the progress at this point in the year.

Γ

A friendly reminder to do your best to stomp your muck off your boots before entering the lobby and to keep the blue/green mat directly outside the studio door FREE OF OUTDOOR FOOTWEAR. This is our home and I do my best to keep it as clean a possible. The little things really do help and are greatly appreciated.

For the first time ever, parents and dancers will be 100% responsible for their COMPLETE costumes. After attending other festivals outside of province, it was very clear to me that parents need to take a larger role in preparing their dancers for performances and festivals, while the older students need to take more personal responsibility for their costumes. Please be aware you are provided these costumes through the acquisitions of grants and school fundraising efforts. It is our hope that these costumes will last for many years to come. One parent MUST be present in the studio for the last 10 minutes of class on costume distribution day to learn how their dancer needs to be dressed.

Looking forward to meeting many of the new families at our Zabava!

UKRAINIAN DANCE FESTIVALS

With the festival season drawing closer, we anticipate the release of schedules for all upcoming festivals shortly. Once we receive this information, we will distribute it to all classes.

Please note that you are solely responsible for all components of your or your child's costume(s). We urge you to ensure that all pieces are accounted for before leaving the festival venue. Failure to return costumes, in their entirety, will result in a charge to you.

For out-of-town festivals, we have reserved hotel blocks, and emails have been sent to all classes attending. If you have yet to book your room, kindly do so as soon as possible.
