RULES FOR AFFILIATION OF A STATE OR REGIONAL NEW ZEALAND CLUB

Rule 1. Any state or regional club should be affiliated with both the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. and the American Federation of New Zealand Rabbit Breeders, Inc.

Rule 2. The name of the club should refer to the New Zealand rabbit.

Rule 3. To form a state or regional club, you should have at least six members of the Federation. A membership of at least six should be maintained for a club to exist. Information on affiliating with the AFNZRBA may be obtained from the AFNZRBA secretary.

Rule 4. A copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of the club should be submitted to the Secretary of the Federation within 90 days of the affiliation request. Any changes in the Constitution and By-Laws should also be submitted to the Secretary. Affiliation is subject to review of the Board of Directors.

Rule 5. The officers of each club should consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and at least three Directors. All Officers and Directors should be members of the Federation. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined.

Rule 6. A complete membership list, including officers and their terms of office, should be submitted along with the club's annual renewal.

Rule 7. Each club should hold a meeting and a show at least once a year, however it is not a requirement. They need not be at the same time. The show, if held, should be ARBA and AFNZRB sanctioned and follow all applicable rules.

Rule 8. These rules may be amended at any open meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of all members present, providing there are at least 30 members present.
