

Saint Anthony's

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 10th, 2024

MESSAGE

What does it mean to take the risk of believing?
 Do we risk anything in our lives by practicing our Faith or coming to church?
 In today's Gospel, the rich people gave from their excess to the Temple treasury. But the practicing of their Faith didn't really cut into their daily budget. The widow however gave all she had knowing that God would find a way to provide for her.
 In a strange way maybe even giving all that she had ended up providing her with a better situation in life!
 But how much do we invest of our time and resources in our Faith?
 I don't want to be too negative about this point since I know of many people who come to church on a weekly basis and also spend time each day with prayers, devotional reading and scripture study cultivating their personal relationship with God.
 But in the end what does it cost us to believe? Probably very little in the end - thus all the more reason to have a great sense of gratitude for all the blessings we have received in our lives!
 May God bless you all !
 Fr Rob

Annual Parish Christmas Dinner

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting once again their annual Christmas dinner on Saturday, December 14th at 6:30pm. Be sure to come for a wonderful dinner, fellowship and Christmas caroling. Ticket prices are $30 per person for dinners of either prime rib, chicken cordon bleu or eggplant parmesan. The price of the ticket barely covers the cost of the dinner and the Knights offer this dinner as a service to the parish community. Tickets will be sold after Mass on the weekends starting November 16th and will also be available through the Parish Office. Hope you all can make it!
