

Saint Anthony's

Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

February 11th 2024

MESSAGE

We live in an interesting society where 'branding' is a phenomenon and where the 'brand' is essentially the individual's personality presented and developed in a certain way!

'Influencers' on social media can actually earn a healthy income simply by publicizing the clothes, shoes, cologne or cosmetics they wear!

How far away from all that is Jesus in today's Gospel! Instead of publicizing His miracles, He orders those who were healed not to tell anyone about what just happened!

There were certainly pragmatic reasons why Jesus did not want his miracles to be known - at one point they wanted to drag him off and make Him a king!

But I think there's another underlying reason here: Jesus valued relationships more than 'things'. It wasn't the 'thing' of the miracle that could be held up as a sort of trophy - but the relationships He developed with the individuals and people He encountered.

Let us always value relationships more than things and especially the most important relationship we have: the one we have with our loving God!

May God bless you all !

Fr Rob
