MESSAGE

In today's Gospel we have the interesting story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes. The role of the boy with the five loaves and two fishes is an intriguing one. What was he doing there? Was he a merchant selling them? Or a servant carrying them for someone else?

It has been proposed that this boy was merely carrying his lunch made up of loaves and fishes and that he offered them to the Apostles! Pretty amazing! The poor kid who probably hadn't had anything to eat that day offered his lunch to the Apostles!

What a lesson for us about doing the little we can and leaving the rest to God! We don't have to do everything! But we do have to do what is in our capacity to do - and leave the rest to God.

He'll make up the difference!

May you all be blessed in doing what you can do to build up the Kingdom of God!

Fr Rob

News about our beloved Kiwi Brothers

Josh and Sam Braly - otherwise known as the Kiwi Brothers - have endeared themselves to our church. Whether at the Games Night, Advent and Lenten Services, or the recent Sacred Music Concert, they are very present to St Anthony's. On Sundays they regularly attend Grace Community Church in Ft Bragg. Growing up in New Zealand they came to the home country of their father, to the US, to work at Yellowstone National Park. After living a year of the party life with which that work is often associated, they had a radical reconversion to God last September. As Sam has said: "When I turned my life over to Jesus, all the addictions fell away." Since then, they've engaged themselves in the churches along the Coast coming to almost every church related event. They have also endeared themselves to many non-Christians for all the work they do along the Coast catering to individual needs. Josh has decided to do the Discipleship Training School at the Lord's Land while Sam is heading back to NZ for a few months to reconnect with family and friends there. Josh will have to raise thousands of dollars for this school. I'm sure he would appreciate any support you could give. You can contact him at kiwwibrothers@gmail.com
