MESSAGE

CONNECTION

It is interesting to see how the theme of connection weaves its way through today's Gospel passage.

If we have a conflict with our brother or sister we are first called to go to that person and try to make amends with them and thus we will have won a friend. If that fails we are called to take two or three others with us in hope they will help mediate the situation. And even if that fails we are to hope the church would bring about reconciliation.

Jesus then switches over to God. We are called to be connected with God to ask him what we need. Praying with two or three others even reinforces that connection. And our connection in Jesus with and through the others is our ultimate means of interceding before God. It all comes back to how we connect with others as well as God and understanding more and more the great power we all have in prayer!

May God bless you all !

Fr Rob

NEWS FROM AROUND ST ANTHONY'S

• Our monthly Men's and Women's Mass is this Wednesday at 9am -

This is a great occasion to express in a special way our love for God as well as have a great moment of fellowship with other devoted parishioners. Hope you can make it!

• Milestones the loss of our dear loved ones - Ginger Kraynek passed this last Thursday. She was the wife of Sam Kraynek a very active parishioner before Covid as a reader and treasurer of our Finance Council.

Karen Linden passed at the end of July. She was a founding member of the Lord's Land with her husband Gary Linden. Gary worked with Dennis Smith on many projects on the Coast.

Earlier this year both Jerry Westfall and Rick Sacks both passed as well. Karen, Jerry and Rick were major figures in the Christian community here on the Coast. It is with great regret to see these pillars of our community leave us. May they rest in peace!
