

Saint Anthony's

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 14th 2024

MESSAGE

We have the odd expression in today's Gospel of shaking even the dust off your feet in testimony against them. What is the significance of this phrase and why did they do this?

Shaking off the dust signifies making a separation with the place you've been. Like in the sense: I want to have nothing to do with you so I am not EVEN taking the dust on my feet from your place!

Hopefully when we encounter someone we take away something of the encounter with us. A warm heart, a sense of joy or excitement are often the effects of a positive encounter. In some cultures it is even customary to give a gift as a remembrance of the encounter that was made.

This should all make us ever more aware of the effect we give off to other people. How do they feel when they leave us? Have they been lifted up by our presence? We fully hope every person is in a better space after they encounter us than before and in this way we have imparted on them a special blessing!

I hope that you all feel blessed by the services you attend at St Anthony's! May God bless you!

Sacred Music Concert next Sunday July 21st at Noon

We will be offering a free Sacred Music Concert here in St Anthony's church. It should be a great experience to enjoy the transcendent value of music. Works like Bach's Cello Suite No.1, Ubi Caritas et Amor by Duruflé, 'It Is Well' by Horatio Spafford and the Cherubic Hymn will be featured.

A reception will be held after the concert in the Parish Hall.

Seating is somewhat limited but if you know a friend who might like to attend, please invite them!

"A plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth."
