Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10th, 2026

MESSAGE

PRIESTLY PRAYER

The Gospel reading this Sunday is from what is called the Priestly Prayer of Jesus. This takes place in the upper room at the Last Supper when Jesus makes his final discourse with his Apostles.

It begins the 17th chapter of the Gospel of St John.

Jesus says here that he has come to glorify his Father by accomplishing the work he gave him to do. We can ask ourselves what exactly was this work the Father asked him to do? I can't help but think that it was nothing less than ushering in the Kingdom of God. All that Jesus did was to witness to this Kingdom. First of all to witness that there is a Kingdom of God - a life, a reality that comes from God and not from this world. A place where there is healing, restoration, redemption and reconciliation takes place. Jesus gave witness to all of this through who he was and what he did! May we walk in imitation of him every day of our lives!

May God bless you all !
Fr Rob
