MESSAGE

Trinity Sunday

We have the rare occasion this year that Trinity Sunday falls on Father's Day! This is a very special occasion since I have often believed that Trinity Sunday is the one feast day that celebrates the Heavenly Father. We have many feast days throughout the year that celebrate Jesus. Most particularly are Christmas and Easter, for example. We even have a special feast day for the Holy Spirit, which is the Pentecost. But there is no special feast day for the Heavenly Father. So today when we celebrate the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I believe that we should give special recognition to the Heavenly Father. This means that it is all the more significant that Holy Trinity falls on Father's Day. Let us give thanks that we have such a wonderful Heavenly Father, the one who wants to do good for everyone. He sees all humanity as his children. At this particular time, let us invoke him for peace for our world that all his children may live in peace and security. His will for this earth is that all may live in his kingdom of love. May God bless you all,

Why I love St Anthony's

My wife and I were fortunate to retire in Mendocino. We became members of Saint Anthony Parish, 20 years ago. We love our little church, especially the mural in the back of the altar. The theme that it presents of peace beyond the raging storm is extremely meaningful to me.

I have nothing but gratitude for the welcoming received from our fellow parishioners. I am convinced that prayers from our parishioners got me through a life threatening disease illnesses and helped me walk again.

Being able to attend Mass daily has given me a relationship with Jesus and that I never expected.

I could mention so many parish related events that are special but they all are part of a special gift from God which I gladly accept. -Ed Burke

"...because the love of God has been poured into our hearts!" From today's reading
