Letter from the President

Of what accomplishment over the past two years are you most proud? Is it a student who has found their own delight in music? Or is it a personal goal you have met? Or is it the connection you feel with your students that will last long after the lessons are discontinued?

We are drawing to the conclusion of my term as president, and I can say I am very proud of the way the board has worked together to accomplish much during the past two years. People have donated time and expertise in ways that we may never fully appreciate, but the results will have lasting benefit. We've had several who have had to step away from their offices due to cross country moves, changes in employment and further education. There have been others ready and willing to step in and finish well.

We live in the midst of constant change due to the impact the internet has had on our lives. SPPTA has striven to meet those challenges head on, and adapt as we must to the new ways of communication. We have streamlined elected offices, set up a teachers-only Facebook page, produced the newsletter for digital distribution, and continue to work toward more innovative ways to use technology. We have purchased a projector, sound system and video screen. We have established an on-going support group for those pursuing National Certification. We have made the Honors Recital an opportunity for all students to be considered to perform. SPPTA exists to benefit the membership by offering continuing education, camaraderie with other teachers, and opportunities for our students to be challenged. I am thankful for the unity we have felt as we pursued our shared goals. We have worked together to accomplish these purposes and have had a great deal of fun along the way. When someone commits to serve on the board of an organization staffed solely by volunteers, it is cause for celebration.

Today I celebrate my fellow board members.

Thank you all for your willing service! Sarah Mensen (President-elect, 3rd VP and Honors Recital co-chair), Sue Krebsbach (Treasurer), Elsa Hosch (Secretary and Recital chair), Judy Sherman (Corresponding Secretary/Historian), Elizabeth Richter (1st VP), Beverly Olson (Concerto Chair), Rebecca Buseman (2nd VP), Barbara Rossow and Sue Freeman Dopp Haugen (Contest Workshops), Rachel Crooks (Programs Chair and Membership Chair), Donna Liew (Social Chair), Monica Allen (Directory), and Cynthia Ali (Publicity Chair).

With gratefulness,
Marilyn Henry

The 8th Annual MusicLink Playathon

The 8th annual MusicLink Playathon was held at the Mall of America on the weekend of Feb. 13-14 and was another wonderful success. 247 students performed on a variety of instruments and voice raising over $9,000 for the work of the MusicLink Foundation. 48 teachers were represented including 8 SPPTA teachers. Our Saturday evening Popular Styles Hour was another hit featuring Doug Rohde with the “Katzen Jammers” playing back up to our young performers. It was a fun and rewarding weekend!

Over 30 years!

Over 30 years! – That’s how long the partnership between Mississippi Valley Orchestra and St. Paul Piano Teachers Association has been in place. What a privilege to have each winner of the SPPTA Concerto Competition, be able to perform their solo in concert with the Mississippi Valley Orchestra! This year’s performance took place on Sunday afternoon, February 21st, at the First Lutheran Church in Columbia Heights. After the audience was welcomed to the event, and had applauded while pianist Nita Qiu and conductor James Straka took their places, the people in the auditorium quieted. The conductor did not raise his arms as expected, but instead observed as Nita alone opened the concert with unaccompanied solo piano. Smiles were on the faces of orchestra members. Quiet murmurs could be heard in the audience. Some individuals shifted to get a better view; others, eyes closed, needed no visual. Then, enter full orchestra...lovely. Nita performed the first movement of Saint-Saëns’ Piano Concerto No. 2, confidently navigating the entire keyboard. After returning to bow again to a standing ovation, and receiving a bouquet from the orchestra, Nita walked again to the back of the auditorium to join Jim Straka. From there, unseen by the audience, he clearly yet silently communicated to the orchestra, through a fist raised to the ceiling in victory, and a smile. Congratulations again, Nita, on being SPPTA’s 2015 Concerto Competition winner, and thank you for your years of participation in this program. It has been delightful – through these annual snapshots - to watch you grow as a musician, and we are confident that growth will continue!

Respectfully submitted,

Beverly Olson, SPPTA Concerto Competition Chair
