

Role of Interns @ My Good School

My Good School: What are the various programs?

The Little Book of Values inspires the Joy Of Learning (JOL) Life Skills Program: Educating Children to Become Thinking, Responsible and Caring Citizens by Julie Duckworth and Ian Gilbert. We will together build the future of education on immutable values alone: Appreciation, Caring, Cooperation, Courage, Freedom, Friendship, Happiness, Honesty, Hope, Humility, Love, Patience, Peace, Quality, Respect, Responsibility, Simplicity, Thoughtfulness, Tolerance, Trust, Understanding & Unity.

JOL is the core program of My Good School and has three elements-

- The joy of Reading (reading sessions every Sunday)
- The pleasure of Speaking (A podcast team prepares a show every month)
- The joy of Writing (Express yourself at the reading sessions; write about the value of the month or anything you like and post on the blog.

EXPERT ADVISE!

- ❖ VOLUNTEER - This is a great learning opportunity. Throughout the internship period, you'll get many opportunities to lead. Make sure to make use of them.
- ❖ DECISION-MAKING SKILLS - At My Good School gives the freedom to work in any one of the programs you like. We believe that It is about acting rather than being acted upon, shaping rather than being shaped, and making responsible decisions and choices rather than accepting those determined by others. Make your choice with a conscience!
- ❖ PUNCTUAL – On Sundays, we host meetings to have open discussions. Make sure to join them and don't miss the interactive learning.
- ❖ RECORD YOUR WORK – Track your learning progress by documenting your weekly progress.
- ❖ SPREAD THE JOY – “Knowledge increases by sharing, not by saving.” Think of innovative ways through which we can promote our organisation and learn for all. You can do so by making creatives etc.

BEST OF LUCK!
