

ATTENTION!

STREET CLOSURE REQUEST

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2023

Our 3rd annual BOO!Dat FREE Neighborhood Halloween Celebration is scheduled for SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28th, 2023
(Rain date: Sunday, October 29th)

This year we would like to expand the event from the two private properties it usually takes place on to the entire block.

(This won't require activity on your property - only the street portion of our 2900 block)

The permission of either the resident or owner for each property is required to attain the city permit in order for this to occur, and we are hoping you will agree so this kid-centered, family tradition can be a successful)

We are asking you to complete the attached form and return it to 2929 Audubon St.

Child's Play Haunted House

This year we are letting the kids build their own haunted house, dress up, and scare the socks of the adults!

Costume Contest

Who will take home the headless trophies for best costumes this year?

New Orleans vs. Indianapolis Pep Rally

It's the day before the big game and we can't let that go without some New Orleans style game pep.

Fright Night Haunted House

After the kids have haunted, the fright moves to the big Fright Night Haunted House filled with animontronics and haunted spirits.

plus... Music, Food, Spirits, & Carnival Games!

You can help make this event even greater by:

- Agreeing to 1 day street closure
- Participating in our Trunk or Treat
 - Setting up your vehicle as a Trunk or Treat stop
- Participating as a character in our Haunted House
- Run one of the Carnival Games
- Assisting with kids arts / crafts
- Attend the event
 - Socialize and have a great time with your neighbors and family
- Some ways you can include your home
 - Decorate for Halloween OR
 - Give us permission to decorate it
 - Spectators won't enter your property
 - Allow us to run a cord for power if needed
- Making a donation to defray the cost of the event:
 - CashApp: $Reachthegoal
