About US

Let us be the brand you live in and love, or the brand behind your brand!

At US Blanks, we want you to feel comfortable just as you are. We deliver you quality apparel staples produced in the USA. We believe the best products can be made using socially responsible practices. Our team of industry experts is dedicated to bringing our customers the most ethically produced apparel. Our clothes are crafted to be your go-to classics.

As a vertical manufacturer, we mill our own fabric, dye, cut and sew all right here in Los Angeles. This means, for our wholesale customers, we are able to offer unprecedented speed-to-market service. US Blanks quality standards ensure that superior fabrics, with consistent colors and feel, are implemented on every garment that passes through our California facilities.
