Re : Official List of Nominees for The Committee on Election (Elecom)

In preparation for the 2026 Association Election and pursuant to the governing provisions of the Camella Lipa Homeowners' Association, Inc. By-Laws, the Board of Directors is pleased to announce the official list of nominees for the Committee on Election (ELECTOM).

The nominees were duly nominated by the respective community phases, reflecting the collective participation of homeowners in the democratic process of the association. The evaluation process was undertaken in accordance with the qualifications and procedures prescribed under Article VI, Section 2 of the Association's By-Laws, ensuring that all nominees meet the standards of integrity, impartiality, and commitment required for this crucial committee.

Following the nomination and evaluation process, the following individuals are hereby presented as official nominees for the Committee on Election (ELECTOM):

List of Nominees:

1. Ms. Rhea Mulingbayan
2. Ms. Yolanda Vical
3. Ms. Nelia Asi
4. Ms. Marilyn Alday
5. Mr. Alberto Ilao
6. Ms. Maria Lourdes Alejandria
7. Ms. Emmanuela Rosales
8. Mr. Jamie Limbo
9. Ms. Jenny Mendoza
10. Ms. Rosalia Evangelista
11. Ms. Emelie Mauleon
12. Ms. Gloria Ilagan

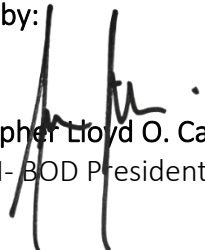

Please be informed that this nomination is subject to the acceptance of each nominee. The Committee on Election, once constituted, shall be responsible for administering and ensuring a fair, transparent, and credible electoral process for the 2026 Association Election.

In accordance with the Association's By-Laws, each member of the Committee on Election shall hold office for a fixed term of two (2) years from the date of proclamation.

Upon receipt of all responses, the Association shall issue a subsequent announcement declaring the official members of the Committee on Election (ELECTOM).

The Board extends its appreciation to all homeowners for their continued cooperation and support in fostering transparency, accountability, and good governance within our community.
