

WHEN TO CALL 911

- ALLERGIC REACTION - swelling of face/lips, difficulty breathing, widespread hives, or an Epi-Pen was used.
- BURNED SEVERELY - especially on the face, hands or genitals.
- CHEST PAIN - if a child reports their heart hurts (physical pain).
- CHOKING - if the child cannot breathe, talk, or cry.
- UNRESPONSIVE - the child is unconscious or not breathing.
- FALL - if a child fell from a significant height or has experienced an accident.
- POISON - if the child has or is claiming they ingested drugs or unknown substances and is acting strange or unresponsive.
- SEIZURES
 - Lasts more than a few minutes
 - If the child doesn't wake up or is unresponsive after a seizure
 - If a child has no history of seizures
 - If the Seizure Action Plan instructs you to do so
- SERIOUS INJURY - head injury with vomiting, loss of consciousness, severe bleeding, broken bones sticking out of skin (compound fracture).
- TROUBLE BREATHING - child is gasping, wheezing, blue lips/face