

"I Choose You" by Sara Bareilles

My whole heart. Will be yours forever. This is a beautiful start, to a lifelong love letter
Tell the world that we finally got it all right. I choose you. I will become yours and you will become mine...We are not perfect we'll learn from our mistakes, and as long as it takes I will prove my love to you. I am not scared of the elements I am underprepared,
But I am willing. And even better I get to be the other half of you.

"How Do I Love Thee" by Elizabeth Barrett Browning

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
I love thee to the depth and breadth and height
My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.
I love thee to the level of every day's
Most quiet need, by sun and candlelight.
I love thee freely, as men strive for Right;
I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise.
I love with a passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.
I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints,—I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears, of all my life!—and, if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil, but rejoices with the truth.

It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. The Marriage Covenant N and N, through the Holy Spirit, Christ is present among us and abundantly blesses your love. As you take hands and offer to one another the vows of the marriage covenant, your lives will be profoundly linked in a new way

The promises you make within this pledge need constant, nurturing and attention everyday.

Wedding Poem

They are about to say 'I do', three little letters, two little words.

Its the simplest part of the day; but there is nothing simple about the things that will remain unsaid.

'I do' means I do know I could be hurt, but I am ready to be healed with you.

It means I do want to try, even when the fear of failure holds me back.

And I do not know the future, but I am ready to be surprised along the way.

'I do' means I do want your love & I do give you mine.

And nothing we do will ever be the same, because we will be doing it all together.
