No child should feel the weight of poverty just to have clean clothes or school supplies.

Kidz Closet Charities is a 100% volunteer-run, nonprofit organization that's quietly transforming lives—one shirt, one pair of shoes, and one smile at a time. Founded in 2008 by Susan Jursik and Diane Mahan, the charity began as an offshoot of their children's consignment shop in downtown Vero Beach. The idea was simple yet powerful: repurpose high-quality, gently used children's items to support families facing economic or safety challenges. In a world where so many families face invisible struggles, Kidz Closet Charities stands as a reminder that community isn't about wealth — it's about warmth. A Treasure Hunter's Paradise

The Treasure Coast, nestled along Florida's Atlantic shoreline, is more than just a scenic destination—it's a haven for history enthusiasts, nature lovers, and adventure seekers alike. This region, spanning from Melbourne to Jupiter, is renowned for its pristine beaches, vibrant marine life, and most intriguingly, its historical significance linked to Spanish treasure galleons.

A Rich Maritime History

The name "Treasure Coast" originates from the legendary shipwrecks of Spanish galleons laden with gold, silver, and precious jewels that sank during storms in the 18th century. Today, modern explorers can still uncover these historic treasures through scuba diving and snorkeling adventures at sites like the Ais and Florida Keys wrecks. The region's underwater parks preserve these archaeological sites, offering a fascinating glimpse into maritime history.

Treasure Hunting and Metal Detecting

For those eager to engage in treasure hunting, the Treasure Coast offers an array of opportunities. Local laws permit responsible metal detecting on certain beaches, where beachgoers have occasionally unearthed Spanish coins, jewelry, and artifacts. Communing with the history beneath your feet makes every walk along the sand a potential treasure-hunting expedition.

A Natural Wonderland

Beyond its historical allure, the Treasure Coast boasts remarkable natural beauty. The Archie Carr National Wildlife Refuge is a critical nesting ground for endangered sea turtles. Visitors can witness the awe-inspiring sight of hatchlings making their way to the sea during nesting season. The Indian River Lagoon, one of the most biologically diverse estuaries in North America, offers kayaking, birdwatching, and eco-tours to explore its abundant wildlife.

Exciting Events and Cultural Attractions

Throughout the year, the Treasure Coast hosts vibrant festivals celebrating its maritime heritage, such as the Treasure Coast Pirate Fest and the Sebastian River Days. Art galleries, historic museums, and seaside towns like Jupiter and Vero Beach enrich the cultural landscape, making the region a dynamic destination for visitors.

Why Visit the Treasure Coast?

Whether you're drawn by the mystery of sunken ships, the thrill of a metal detector find, or the tranquility of pristine beaches and lush wildlife, the Treasure Coast promises unforgettable experiences. Its blend of history, adventure, and natural splendor makes it a must-visit location for anyone seeking excitement and discovery.

Whether you're hunting for handcrafted jewelry, gourmet treats, or one-of-a-kind home décor, the region offers a festive blend of markets, fairs, and small businesses ready to help you check off your gift list.

Major Holiday Shopping Events

Treasure Coast Holiday Food Fest & Craft Fair – Port St. Lucie Held in partnership with the Humane Society of St. Lucie County, this is the largest holiday shopping event on the Treasure Coast. Featuring a massive craft fair marketplace, the event showcases local businesses, artists, and specialty artisans offering hand-made gifts, seasonal décor, and gourmet goodies. Guests can enjoy holiday-themed cocktails, local craft brews, and tasting menus priced at just $1–$5 per item, making it a delicious and affordable way to shop and celebrate.

Downtown Stuart Holiday Stroll Historic downtown Stuart transforms into a festive wonderland with twinkling lights, live music, and extended boutique hours. Local shops offer holiday specials, complimentary treats, and gift-wrapping stations. It's a walkable, family-friendly event perfect for soaking in the season while supporting small businesses.

The Red Barn – Port St. Lucie A quirky, colorful shop offering vintage finds, holiday decorations, and Florida-themed gifts. Their

Tips for Treasure Coast Holiday Shopping

Shop early: Many local events kick off in early November, and popular items sell out fast.

Bring cash: While most vendors accept cards, some smaller artisans prefer cash.

Support local causes: Events like the Holiday Food Fest benefit organizations like the Humane Society of St. Lucie County, so your purchases help the community too.

Look for pop-ups: Many boutiques host limited-time holiday markets with exclusive items and discounts.

Whether you're strolling through a craft fair or browsing a beach-side boutique, holiday shopping on the Treasure Coast is more than just a task—it's a celebration of community, creativity, and coastal charm. So skip the big-box crowds and shop small this season. The perfect gift might be just around the corner.

REALTOR RV TRIP #9

STILL HEAVEN ON WHEELS By SHARON WERNLUND

Primitive conditions lured us back to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park for our 9th year of family RV vacations. Hardcore campers, we're not. More like glampers.

For two days, we surrendered Wi-Fi, cell phones and creature comforts from electricity to hot showers to commune with nature. We cooked by campfire and flashlight, relished sightings of black bear, deer and wild turkey; and hiked in Quiet Zen through woods and wildflowers. Horseback rides on slow-paced mountain trails were therapeutic to de-stress and let someone else lead.

What's so special about the Smokies? Our daughter Rachel said it best: "Isn't it obvious? It's beautiful!"

This year's vacation in our 24-foot Winnebago motorhome only lasted two weeks. We rolled out of Palm City, FL on Sept. 2, logged nearly 2,700 miles through five states and saw as many family members, friends and attractions as possible.

Under the Smokies, we explored the Tuckaleechee Caverns in Townsend, TN that was once a secret playground for two young boys in the early 1900s. The guided tour meandered through dimly lit tunnels to behold rock formations millions of years old, a waterfall higher than Niagra Falls and an area as big as a football field. The cave, operating since 1953, is also home to the Department of Defense seismic sensors to globally detect nuclear tests, earthquakes and hurricanes.

Other entries in my RV diary include:

Sept. 6 – Hiked around Bass Lake at the Moses H. Cone Memorial Park in Blowing Rock, NC. The park's grand jewel is the historic mansion of Cone, a textile magnate, conservationist and philanthropist of the Gilded Age. The 3,500-acre estate, run by the National Park Service on the Blue Ridge Parkway, offers manor tours, hiking and carriage trails, fishing and horseback riding.

Sept. 8 – Visited friends in Virginia in the small town of Stuart named for Confederate general J.E.B. Stuart. There's a statue of the Civil War hero on Main Street and self-guided tours of his birthplace and boyhood home. I wonder if locals had ever heard about our own Stuart in Florida and a wacky intersection called Confusion Corner.

Sept. 13 – Strolled the happy streets of Helen, GA recreated in the 1960s as a Bavarian village to boost tourism with shops, food, music, Alpine architecture and even a roller coaster. It was Oktoberfest and business was booming. Lunch was perfect with bratwurst, German potato salad and a cold beer.

Sept. 15 – Walked the rim trail that overlooks "Georgia's Little Grand Canyon" at Providence Canyon State Park in Lumpkin, GA. The canyons, some 150 feet deep, showcase vibrant shades of soil from light orange and pink to purple. Though beautiful, these canyons aren't natural wonders but blamed on poor farming methods by early settlers.

Happenstance kept our trip fresh and fun: Proudly displayed at a BBQ joint in Georgia is an autographed jersey gifted by Atlanta Braves great Chipper Jones as part of his tip. At a North Carolina campground, we bought treats to feed the goats and then realized the importance of the fence as the hungry herd raced to greet us. For decades, a gift shop in Boone, NC has sold nesting dolls from fairies and politicians to Elvis made in St. Petersburg, Russia.

Like a good movie, our vacation ended too soon. There was no time for Loretta Lynn's ranch, the satanic goat or FDR's Little White House. With luck and good health, we'll mark our 10th trip in 2026 with more adventures and keepsake magnets for the RV fridge.

Paella Night

Costa d'Este

BEACH RESORT & SPA

Nestled in the heart of Ocean Drive, one will find Miami vibes with chic aesthetics that will have you nearly salsa dancing as you head towards the double doors behind the famous circle wall fountain. With complimentary valet daily, Costa d'Este beach resort has all the amenities one could want for a vacation of relaxation including an award winning spa, oceanfront pool with hot tub and bar, luxurious rooms, and a restaurant that offers up live music and experiences throughout each month, The Wave. Of course, the restaurant and poolside bar are also fun for locals to enjoy and in particular on Wednesday nights when the feature of the establishment is paella.

Paella night encourages reservations and when you make them they will ask if it's a special occasion; I was so glad I mentioned it was for my friends birthday because we were surprised with a little something special at the end. With the time change, it gets dark earlier yet our 5:30pm reservations allowed for us to order a cocktail and watch the waves crash on the shore. Owned by Gloria and Emilio Estefan, the Costa d'Este is full of Cuban tastes and that includes their drinks too. We had a signature mojito made with dark rum and instead of soda water, it had champagne; what a twist!

As an appetizer, the ceviche duo though small in size was packed with flavor! It was a sampling of local seasonal fish ceviche alongside an aji amarillo octopus ceviche served with plantain and tropical chips; each bite was bright and the softness of the seafood coupled with the fresh peppers and citrus made for a perfect pairing with our cocktail.

The establishment is built around leisureness, so if you want to stretch your experience, their all-star staff will happily execute and that allowed us to take brief intermissions in between courses to see the full sunset and take lots of pictures which led us to our choice of paella. For this special night each week, guests can choose the traditional paella that has a delightful mix of mussels, clams, chicken, shrimp, and scallops atop speciality rice and veggies or one can have a duck paella, chicken and chorizo paella, or a seasonal vegetable paella. The sizes of the paella are plentiful and you can choose for one or for two that can easily feed more. The birthday girl opted for the traditional while I ordered the duck and we planned to share them both. A fresh bread with sweet plantain butter came to the table; it was so surprising and addicting to taste that butter. It is worth going just for that!

With the darkness of the outside in full view of our dining table, we switched up the drinks to espresso and french martinis that seemed to have paired well with our meals that came to us in petite cast irons. The tenderness and flavor of the duck was sensational and the bits of chorizo really amplified the flavor of the saffron in the rice. The traditional paella was beautiful in presentation and the seafood was cooked to perfection. It was a terrific meal that required boxes.

Having a final round of drinks, we were over the moon to see the presentation of the birthday dessert the staff presented of a chocolate flourless cake with fresh berries, whipped cream and chocolate cursive with candle. Each bit was decadent and was a nice size for sharing.

If you are looking for an experience for any upcoming dining opportunities, Costa d'Este provides a paella night that is luxurious and intimate whether it is with a group or just a table for two. Wishing you a great meal wherever you go; cheers!

Celebrating the Holidays

Festive Traditions of the Treasure Coast

Lighting Up the Coast: Oceanfront Holiday Parades and Light Shows

One of our most beloved traditions is the annual beachfront holiday parade in Vero Beach. Residents and visitors gather along the sun-kissed shores to watch floats decorated with twinkling lights glide past, accompanied by marching bands and festive music. In addition, the Jupiter Christmas Light Show transforms our local parks and neighborhoods into shimmering winter wonderlands, with spectacular displays synchronized to holiday tunes—a sight that never fails to enchant.

In Martin County, the Stuart Christmas Parade is a highlight, featuring festive floats, marching bands, and a special visit from Santa, delighting families downtown. Meanwhile, in St. Lucie County, the tradition of the Port St. Lucie Holiday Boat Parade lights up the waterways, where decorated boats cruise through the canals, creating a magical scene that embodies the coast's nautical spirit.

Sea Turtle Sentinels: Holiday Care for Nature's Giants

Here on the Treasure Coast, we're proud of our commitment to preserving our natural heritage. During the holiday season, local conservation groups host special events at Archie Carr National Wildlife Refuge, where volunteers help in caring for nesting sea turtles and hatchlings. It's a meaningful way to celebrate the season while giving back to the environment that makes our coast so special.

As locals of the Treasure Coast, we take pride in our vibrant community and unique holiday traditions that bring us together each year. From seaside celebrations to cultural festivals, the holiday season here is unlike any other—full of warmth, spirited cheer, and cherished customs passed down through generations.

Holiday Markets and Cultural Festivals

Our community also comes alive with festive markets, offering handmade crafts, local artwork, and delicious holiday treats. The Sebastian Craft Festival and the Vero Beach Holiday Market are favorite destinations for families searching for unique gifts and seasonal cheer. In St. Lucie County, the Tradition of the Holiday MusicFest at the Sunrise Theatre draws crowds with seasonal concerts and performances, highlighting our rich cultural scene.

Community Feastings and Santa Visits

No holiday season in the Treasure Coast is complete without a family-friendly visit from Santa Claus! Many towns organize tree-lighting ceremonies where children can meet Santa, take photos, and enjoy seasonal goodies.

In Martin County, the Palm City Christmas Celebration features a festive parade, tree-lighting, and visits from Santa himself. Local churches and community centers also host holiday dinners, bringing neighbors together over home-cooked meals that embody the spirit of giving.

A Coast-Wide Spirit of Togetherness

What makes these traditions truly special is the sense of unity they foster. Whether it's watching a parade, caring for our wildlife, browsing holiday markets, or sharing a meal, our community's warmth shines brightest during this season. The treasures of the Treasure Coast aren't just in the sun or the sea—they're in our shared traditions and the joyful spirit we carry into the new year.

From all of us who call this beautiful coast home, we wish you a warm and joyful holiday season!

WHERE THE TREASURE COAST LIGHTS UP THE NIGHT!

NOVEMBER 8
5-10 PM

OCEAN DRIVE, VERO BEACH

There's something magical about a bonfire by the beach—crackling flames, salty breezes, and the rhythmic crash of waves. Now imagine that times five. That's exactly what's in store at this year's Beachside Bonfire Fest, lighting up Vero Beach on Saturday, November 8th from 5 to 9 PM!

A Night of Coastal Charm & Community Spirit

This isn't your average beach hangout. The Beachside Bonfire Fest transforms Ocean Drive into a glowing trail of fire pits, live music, and seaside celebration. Participating hotspots like Costa d'Este Beach Resort & Spa, Mulligan's Beach House, The Driftwood, The Boiler Room, and Kimpton Vero Beach Hotel & Spa will each host their own bonfire bash, complete with food and drink specials, live entertainment, and good vibes only.

Music, Munchies & Memories

Groove to live music by local favorite i95, sip on signature cocktails, and savor beachside bites as you hop from one fire-lit venue to the next. Whether you're dancing in the sand or toasting marshmallows under the stars, this is the kind of night that makes you fall in love with the Treasure Coast all over again.

Grab Your Event Passport

Want to make the most of the night? Pick up an Event Passport at any participating location for a suggested $20 donation. Visit all five bonfire spots, collect stamps, and you'll be entered to win one of several raffle prizes valued at over $500! Proceeds benefit the Next Generation Veterans of Indian River County and the WWII Tribute Team—so you're partying for a great cause.

A Few Friendly Reminders

- No coolers allowed—support the local spots!
- Bring your beachy best: comfy shoes, cozy layers, and your camera for those golden-hour selfies.
- Parking fills up fast, so arrive early or consider carpooling.

Don't Miss the Glow

Whether you're a local or just visiting, the Beachside Bonfire Fest is your chance to experience the Treasure Coast at its most vibrant. It's a night of firelight, friendship, and Florida magic—and it only happens once a year.

So mark your calendar, rally your crew, and get ready to light up the night!

You Deserve a Massage

With the holidays ahead, we all get to feeling a little stressed. Yet, many of us do not take the time that is needed to care for our bodies and muscles as the pressure mounts. Though, if we did, the power of massage therapy offers numerous benefits for both physical and mental health. Some of the key physical benefits include:

- Relieves muscle tension and pain: Massage helps to break down muscle knots and adhesions, reducing pain and stiffness.
- Improves circulation: Massage stimulates blood flow, which can help to reduce inflammation, improve oxygen delivery to tissues, and promote healing.
- Enhances flexibility and range of motion: By loosening tight muscles and connective tissues, massage can improve flexibility and range of motion.
- Boosts the immune system: Massage can help to stimulate the lymphatic system, which is important for fighting off infections.
- Reduces stress and anxiety: Massage promotes relaxation and can help to lower levels of stress hormones, such as cortisol.

Then, there are mental health benefits such as:

- Improves sleep quality: Massage can help to calm the mind and body, leading to better sleep.
- Reduces depression and anxiety: Massage therapy can release endorphins, which have mood-boosting effects.
- Improves mood and overall well-being: Massage can provide a sense of relaxation and rejuvenation, which can contribute to overall well-being.
- Reduces chronic pain: Massage can help to manage chronic pain conditions, such as fibromyalgia and arthritis.
- Improves skin health: Massage can stimulate blood flow to the skin, which can improve its tone and elasticity.

With all these benefits in mind, it is worth highlighting some of the incredible massage venues throughout the Treasure Coast and their specials they are running for the holidays whether you get it for a loved one, encourage someone to get it for you, or if you decide to treat yourself; these are all professional operations that will have you limber and loving the chaos.
