Background to the Gospel

Now that the disciples have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he must suffer and die in Jerusalem to be raised on the third day. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely, calling him “Satan.” In opposing this aspect of Jesus’ mission, Peter shows that he is no longer speaking based on the revelation from God but as a human being. Jesus then teaches all of the disciples about the difficult path of discipleship: to be Christ’s disciple is to follow in his way of the cross.

Peter could not yet understand what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah. It is unlikely that the other disciples understood any better. Messianic expectations were a common aspect of first-century Judaism. Under Roman occupation, many in Israel hoped and prayed that God would send a Messiah to free the Jews from Roman oppression. The common view was that the Messiah would be a political figure, a king that would free Israel from Roman rule. This is perhaps what Peter envisioned when he was led to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. In this passage, however, Jesus is beginning to teach his disciples that he would be the Messiah in a different way.

Jesus would be more like the suffering servant described by the prophet Isaiah than the political liberator. Those who would be Jesus' disciples would be called to a similar life of service. Perhaps this is what Peter feared most in Jesus’ prediction of his Passion. He whom Jesus had called “rock” would also be called upon to offer himself in sacrifice and service to others. Christian leaders today are still called to sacrifice and serve others as Jesus did.

Highland Grove will be having another Youth Liturgy on Sat. Sept 5 at 4:30. This is a beautiful way that our young people can participate in a special way by doing the readings, prayers and leading the hymns. Let’s encourage our youth to become leaders in the church and accept responsibilities in our parish.

There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Holy Hour after the 4:30 mass in Highland Grove on Sept. 5. Everyone is most welcome.

There will be coffee hour in Cardiff after the 11 a.m. mass on Aug. 5. We appreciate everyone who has been supporting us and encourage more people to volunteer.

The diocese is requesting that all the volunteers in the diocese should be screened. To this effect, the screening committee will be contacting the volunteers in the parish for the different levels of screening exercise depending on their volunteer ministries.

CHURCH ENVELOPES- Please be sure the envelopes you are using are for the current year. All other envelopes should no longer be used. Please ensure that your name is clearly written on any envelopes that are used.
