Background to the Gospel

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

FUND RAISING CONCERT

Lloyd Watson Community Centre on Aug. 23 at 2 p.m.

The "Rhythm and Grace" Concert planning is coming together. Tickets and posters are available this weekend. We have asked Kelly Crick from Cardiff, Sharon Steel from Chandos, and Katie and Melissa Burroughs to manage ticket sales at each parish. All ticket money should be returned to them and they will direct the money to Katie and Melissa. Please see them and help by selling tickets and delivering posters. All 3 churches will benefit from this concert so hopefully all will help with the success of the show. Silent Auction will be helping with funds at this event.
