Background to the Gospel

In this week’s Gospel, Jesus offers three more short parables. The first two parables describe the great value of the kingdom of heaven. In the first parable, Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven is like a buried treasure that is worth possessing even if it means giving up everything else. In the second parable, Jesus proposes that the kingdom of heaven is like a pearl of great worth for which one will sell everything else to possess. These parables teach us that we are to place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God.

The third parable that Jesus proposes in today’s Gospel is reminiscent of the parable of the sower heard in last week’s Gospel. The kingdom of heaven is compared to fishing with a wide net. After the fish have been collected, the good fish are kept and the bad fish are thrown away; so too, in the final judgment, will the wicked and the righteous be separated.

Today’s Gospel concludes with a curious statement about the scribes. It is possible that Jesus is here instructing the early Christian community on how to proceed in the interpretation of Jewish law with respect to Jesus’ “new” teaching. Jesus’ teaching about the kingdom of heaven does not replace the Jewish tradition; it interprets it in a different light. (Loyola Press)

Pastoral Home Visits to Parishioners by Father

Darlington: Father Darlington would like to make pastoral visits to the homes of parishioners as part of the parish’s ongoing commitment to spiritual care, fellowship, and pastoral support. These visits provide an opportunity for prayer, encouragement, and strengthening the bond between the parish and its families.

Parishioners who would like to receive a home visit are kindly requested to fill the contact sheet at the entrance of the church to arrange a convenient date and time. We warmly encourage all families to welcome this opportunity for prayer and pastoral fellowship.

There will be Coffee Hour in Cardiff after the 11 a.m. mass on Aug. 2. We appreciate everyone who has been supporting us and encourage more people to volunteer.

There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Holy Hour followed by pot-luck dinner after the 4:30 mass in Highland Grove on Aug. 1. Everyone is welcome.
