Background to the Gospel

In today’s reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew’s Gospel. In Matthew’s record of Jesus’ teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the “discourse on the Church” (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community’s concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples’ question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these “little ones” astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those “little ones” who have strayed.

In today’s Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God’s assistance.

Highland Grove will be having another Youth Liturgy on Sat. Sept 5 at 4:30. This is a beautiful way that our young people can participate in a special way by doing the readings, prayers and leading the hymns. Let’s encourage our youth to become leaders in the church and accept responsibilities in our parish.

There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Holy Hour after the 4:30 mass in Highland Grove on Sept. 5. Everyone is most welcome.

There will be coffee hour in Cardiff after the 11 a.m. mass on Sept. 6. We appreciate everyone who has been supporting us and encourage more people to volunteer.

The diocese is requesting that all the volunteers in the diocese should be screened. To this effect, the screening committee will be contacting the volunteers in the parish for the different levels of screening exercise depending on their volunteer ministries.

CHURCH ENVELOPES- Please be sure the envelopes you are using are for the current year. All other envelopes should no longer be used. Please ensure that your name is clearly written on any envelopes that are used.

There will be a Town-Hall Family meeting of members of Our Lady of Lourdes Church on Sun. Sept. 20 right immediately after mass. All those who attend mass in OLL are encouraged to attend.
