A soul friend is someone you already know
who inspires your heart and helps you to grow.

They're like special Earth-angels who are there just for you;

Through the good times,
the in-between times,
or when you're
feeling totally blue.

Sometimes an enemy is a soul friend in disguise, who's there to show you something that helps make you wise!

More often a soul friend is a person who cares—
who understands your heart, and wants to be there!

When you're with a soul friend,
you feel happy inside;
it's like your hearts are dancing you can be yourself and jive!

When big problems arise and you just want to hide, a soul friend shows up,
and walks by your side.

When you're stuck
and confused
and the world
seems so dark,

a soul friend will help you find your lost spark!

Thoughts of our soul friends
help keep us bright;
through the snowiest of days and the stormiest of nights.

It's good to remember they're always in our heart...

our heartstrings are connected,
we are never far apart!

Are you a soul friend?
You probably are!
We're all someone's
North Star!

How do you know
if a soul friend is true?
They share their goodness, that's the main the clue!

We're all connected to ones here-and-now but soul friends are those, who show us our WOW!
