

NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ANNOUNCED

AT PERSON COUNTY EDUCATION FOUNDATION

April 17, 2018

Person County Education Foundation, an independent 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, welcomes Amanda Foushee Morrow as their new Executive Director. Mother, wife, and entrepreneur Amanda Morrow will bring a wealth of experience in fundraising, community programs, student support, and community activities.

Amanda received a BS from Western Carolina University in 2001 where she Double-majored in College of Education and Allied Professions Program. Amanda taught kindergarten from 2002 until 2006 at the Efland Cheeks Elementary School and at Woodland Elementary School from 2006 until 2012. She served as Woodland Elementary PTA president from 2013 thru 2016, where she planned and managed book fairs, set up the Giving Backpacks Program to help children during the holiday season and regularly drafted and reviewed grant applications.

In 2015 Amanda paired with her sister-in-law, Rachele Foushee, to build the Events by RA company. She will remain an active partner in their wedding planning company which specializes in larger-than-life weddings.

Amanda received the 2018 Couples Choice Award Recipient from Wedding Wire, as well as Pride in Person Award, and the Person County Board of Education National PTA Award of Excellence. She holds a certified Teaching License in Birth-Kindergarten and an Internationally Recognized Wedding Planner certificate.

Outgoing Executive Director, Jennifer Kafer, has worked closely with Amanda so the exchange will move seamlessly. They have become an outstanding team in a brief period of time.

Amanda has the leadership, professionalism, and dedication to support PCEF in obtaining their goals. She will be a definite asset in fundraising, summer camp scholarships, adult and student activities as well as community and volunteer events
