Board Meeting, Mon, Jan 14, 6:30, at the clubhouse

Today's Meeting: President Don Helmreich opened our meeting at 6:45. Lloyd Viehland led us in our invocation. Mike Gregory led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Jim Ballenger reported that Mary Lou is doing much better now. Harold Hackman is almost back to his old spry self after his surgery last week. Jack reminded the group that we had decided not to have an evening meeting in January due to scheduling at Columbia College. That also means that the evening meeting in February will fall on Valentine's Day, February 14. We decided to leave that for the date of the evening meeting and decided to make it a special dinner for the wives and partners of the members. The menu was not finalized. Jack went over the work schedule for Columbia College and promised to get out a new work schedule within the next week. Jack also announced that he is updating the club roster and any members who have changes to their address or phone numbers should notify him for the update. The board meeting has been moved back to January 14. We have two new membership applications to vote on in addition to our regular deliberations, so all board members should plan to attend. We had a long discussion on the Coon Supper and it looks like everything is on schedule for the event this year. Bruce Rice led us in the Optimist Creed to close the meeting.
