Today's Meeting: President Don Helmreich opened the evening meeting at 6:45. Lloyd Viehland led us in our invocation. Lindsey Wulff led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Jack congratulated Peter Warnock on his Texas Aggies winning their football bowl game. Peter then reciprocated by congratulating Jack on the Iowa Hawkeyes winning their bowl game. No one mentioned Missouri's bowl game. Mike Gregory reported that the basketball double header on December 31, turned into a single men's game, but we still took in over $200. Mike also reported that they were visited by the Health Department at the concession stand. We passed their inspection, but they told us that everyone handling food in the stand, needs to have a food handling license. This will mean we will each have to take a class, take a test, and pay a $15 fee. Mike is going to look into this further and address this issue at the board meeting on Jan 14. Jack went over the work schedule for Columbia College through the month of January. Our big event this month is our annual Coon Supper next Monday. We usually set up the kettles and wood on Saturday, but this year, we will do this on Friday, at noon. Mike asked me to put this in the newsletter so anyone wanting to help can show up at Cunningham's at noon. Sunday is the coon cooking and we will start at 7:00. Sunday morning is also the day the volunteers enjoy a wonderful breakfast and lunch as the members clean out their freezers and we fried fish and all kinds of unique meats, biscuits and gravy, cheeses and sausages. It is a good time for all. Remember, next Thursday is a breakfast meeting, not an evening meeting. Doug Oncken led us in the Optimist Creed to close the meeting.
