Today's Meeting: President Don opened our meeting at 6:45. Lloyd Viehland led us in our invocation. Doug Oncken led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. We were glad to see Harold Hackman back with us after his sinus surgery last week. Now he should be ready to undergo his knee surgery. Keep Bobby Grant in your prayers as he is still bed ridden at home. This week, we open the sports season at Columbia College with soccer games this Friday and Saturday. The parking lot by the soccer field is finished so we will all have easier access to the concession stand. Next weekend, we have the Hampton Inn Volleyball Classic on Friday and Saturday. We will need two full teams working each day. Doug said that he checked out the shed and he did not believe it is sturdy enough to be moved. When we get a new shed, he said it will have to be placed next to the existing shed. Jack brought up the question of what to serve at our next evening meeting. The suggestion from the floor was spaghetti or Italian food. The evening meeting will be on September 12. The first Monday of September is Labor Day, so the board meeting is being moved back to Monday, September 9. Hugh Murrell led us in the Optimist Creed to close the meeting
