Today's Meeting: President Don Helmreich is vacationing in Alaska, so Doug Oncken opened our meeting at 6:10. Lloyd Viehland led us in our invocation. We then sat down to a delicious Italian dinner. Everyone got plenty to eat and had a good time. After the dinner, Jim Ballenger led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Most of the meeting was taken up in discussions of work assignments for the upcoming Boone County Fair and the Show-Me State Games. Doug has a signup sheet for volunteers for the Fair. We have plenty of volunteers, but there are also several shifts still open. If you would like to volunteer, call Doug ASAP. The Fair starts next Tuesday. Jack has a signup sheet for volunteers for the first weekend of the Show-Me State Games at Columbia College. These games start on Friday of next week. The signup sheet will be available at next week's club meeting. Jack says he still has six openings for the first weekend. See the attached sheet and call Jack if you can volunteer to work. Remember, Columbia College is air conditioned. Jack reported that he has the contract for our work with Columbia College and he will turn it into Drew in the next few days. It was reported that Bob Bratton is ready to start his chemotherapy. Bob corrected me last week, he has myeloma (a blood cancer), not melanoma (skin cancer). Doug Oncken mentioned that Joy Gardner is in the Terrace, room N101. Members are welcome to drop in a visit her anytime. Darrin Chandler led us in the Optimist Creed to close the meeting
