Today's Meeting: President Mike Gregory opened our evening meeting at 6:00. Don Helmreich led us in our invocation. We then sat down to a wonderful chili, soup, and stew dinner prepared by our members. After dinner, Cheryl Gregory led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. We are still in the middle of a busy week at Columbia College. In fact, we had 4 members missing the dinner because they were working concessions at a basketball game. It was good to see Wayne Forbis back with us after his gall bladder surgery. It was reported that Craig Adams had hernia surgery this past week. Joy Gardner had a fall and is now rehabbing at the Bluffs. Harold Hackman is scheduled (again) for his knee surgery on December 6. Mike Gregory presented Don Helmreich with an OI Life Membership in gratitude for his two years as club President. Mike Gregory passed around a sign-up sheet for Salvation Army bell ringing on December 5 at the HyVee on W. Broadway. Sign up soon to get the shift you want. Mary Dewey told us of a zone Christmas at the clubhouse on Tuesday, December 10. Tickets are $12 and the party will feature an Ugly Sweater competition. This Saturday is the Piano Showcase at the Missouri Theater at 7:00. Members who have attended this event, have all given glowing reports on the talents of these youngsters. Our next evening meeting will be on December 12 and we will enjoy a nice Holiday Dinner. Remember, with the Thanksgiving Holiday coming on November 28, Our club meeting will be moved to Wednesday, November 27. Don Helmreich led us in the Optimist Creed to close the meeting.
