Signing ceremony at Bangkok between CHARGE+ and EGAT

Updated: Jul 30, 2023

CHARGE+ has just signed a partnership agreement with Electricity Generating Authority of Thailand (EGAT), the Thai state-owned enterprise for energy generation and electricity sales to the distribution companies in Thailand. The signing was done between CHARGE+ CEO Chee Kiong Goh and EGAT Assistant Governor Warit Rattanachuen, witnessed by Deputy Governor Prasertsak Chergchawano. This partnership will entail EGAT availing sites in Thailand for CHARGE+ to implement charging stations. Both parties will also conduct roaming between our EV driver users, an initiative that will be instrumental for the 5,000km EV Charging Highway across 5 countries in Southeast Asia which CHARGE+ announced concurrently. We are also honoured to have Juan Tiang Kow of Enterprise Singapore as our witness for this signing ceremony at the sidelines of the annual Future Mobility Asia
