

HARRIET'S NEWARK SISTERS IN BLACK LIBERATION

ENSLAVED BLACK WOMEN FACED UNRELENTING VIOLENCE AGAINST THEIR BODIES, MINDS AND SPIRITS. HARRIET TUBMAN IS A SYMBOL FOR THE THOUSANDS OF WOMEN THAT ATTEMPTED TO FREE THEMSELVES AND THEIR PEOPLE FROM SLAVERY AND OPPRESSION. NEWARK WOMEN CLAIMED FREEDOM FOR THEMSELVES AND BUILT A SUPPORTIVE COMMUNITY.

1) COLORING PAGE DOWNLOADS:

- Enslaved Newark Women Liberation Stories (1800s) Coloring Page
- Ellen Cordelia King Coloring Page

2) LOOK AT PRIMARY SOURCES ON MAPPING SLAVERY NEWARK

-Visit www.mappingslaverynewark.com

- Scroll to bottom of page to review primary sources that connect with the pictures

3) READING SOURCES – 7th Grade to Adult

-The Incredible Legacy of Newark's Black Women Activists

Harlem Renaissance Writer Brenda Ray Moryck and a New Jersey Community's Untold Century of Intellectualism and Artistry

<https://bit.ly/newarkwomen>

-Newark Women Blog

Spotlighting little known women from Newark, NJ

<https://newarkwomen.com/>

Primary Source Set: African Americans in Newark 1666-1970

This guide links to a small number of items from the Newark Public Library collections to get you started on research. You can also e-mail us or view our website for more information on non-digitized collections. Content note: some of the primary sources quoted include offensive racist language.

<https://www.npl.org/primary-source-set-african-americans-in-newark-1666-1970/>

4) VISIT THE POP-UP EXHIBITION AT NEWARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

<https://www.npl.org/about-the-library/hours/>

5) VISIT THE HARRIET TUBMAN MONUMENT

<https://visitharriettubmansquare.com/>

6) VISIT THE LIFTING AS WE CLIMB MURAL

The mural and website highlight five Black women in New Jersey who helped win the vote in New Jersey.

<http://www.blacknjwomenvote.com>

HARRIET TUBMAN MONUMENT

LEARN MORE AND LOOK AT HISTORICAL SOURCES!
WWW.MAPPINGSLAVERYNEWARK.COM