EVACUATION ALERT LIFTED

JULY 26, 2024 – 3:00PM – The Regional District of East Kootenay’s Emergency Operation Centre has advised ʔakisq̓nuk First Nation’s Leadership and senior management that the threat caused by the Madias Creek Wildfire (N21398) has significantly diminished.

Accordingly, the Evacuation Alert issued by the ʔakisq̓nuk First Nation on Monday, July 22, 2024, has been rescinded.

The ʔakisq̓nuk First Nation thanks all for their diligence and understanding during this period. We encourage all to continue to follow best fire smart practices, and maintain a 72 hour emergency kit in the event another emergency situation were to arise. Current wildfire information for the entire province can be found at <https://wildfiresituation.nrs.gov.bc.ca/map>.
