Team Integration Workshop

Looking to quickly build trust and strategic alignment on a new or merging team?

Or maybe you are a new leader of an intact team wanting to lay the groundwork for success?

We can help.

With foundations in neuroscience, our customizable workshops help leaders at all levels improve how they connect, communicate and influence their teams, ensuring a more effective workplace and enhanced results.

WHY TEAM INTEGRATION?

In today's world, organizations need leaders to be strategic, agile and emotionally intelligent to get the best out of their teams, create engagement and get exceptional results.

This is especially true when you have a team impacted by a new leader, organizational restructuring, mergers or acquisitions of new assets.

A customized integration workshop with neuroSHIFT will provide your team with the tools to build a solid foundation for teamwork, trust and social awareness out of the gate.

The Benefits:

- Accelerates the time it normally takes to form a team
- Increased engagement and retention
- Establishes quick and deep insight into the team and the leadership
- Creates a culture of open, honest and transparent communication

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Access to Facilitators who spend the time to understand your team's unique opportunities and develop the most effective content and learning approach for successful integration
- Theory, tools that stick and reflection practice delivered in highly interactive and engaging live or virtual workshops
- Experiential learning to embed new information, support new habits and increase engagement
- Content grounded in neuroscience to help your team leverage a common language and raise self and social awareness
- Exercises that work to build a deeper understanding of personal and team dynamics, working to establish trust and safety in real time

We have delivered our workshops in forums that range from Leadership Summits, Town Halls and Team Meetings to Quarterly Leadership Meetings and Team Building Events. We do it all!

WHAT SETS US APART?

- All of our Coaches are neuroscience-based trained and certified
- We offer Leadership and Emotional Intelligence Assessments, with debrief and action plan included
- Programs and customized workshops offer a supportive, safe environment to learn, practice and grow
- Our online community, myneuroSHIFT, provides deeper levels of engagement with past and present clients, so leaders are exposed to other leaders from diverse backgrounds and industries

'Jacquie and Leanne were wonderful facilitators and their workshop left me with concrete tools I could put to use on the spot. The one-on-one interactions were extremely helpful, as were the many tools they provided. Both were fully committed to the attendees' success and development.'
