

COME FOLLOW ME

WHEN FORGIVENESS IS HARD

Genesis 42-50

In this week's Come, Follow Me study we study a large scripture block that includes The sons of Israel travelling to Egypt and meeting Joseph. We have chosen in this lesson to only focus on the principle of forgiveness, BUT as you study this week look for as many principles as you can find, ask application questions and look for Christ. Have a great study.

When Forgiveness is Hard When...

The Stories I Create are not True

When I gather Allies to defend my position

When I don't see God
Purpose (Truth)

Consider This

*Why might it have been hard to forgive his brothers?
(Gen 37)*

What experiences or Attitudes might have given Joseph the strength to forgive? (Gen 45:1-15)

What blessing came from Joseph's forgiveness of his brothers? (Gen 50:15-21)

Who do I need to forgive, and how can I invite the Saviors healing power into that situation?

- 5.

When has forgiveness been a blessing in your life?

How has forgiving others been difficult in your life?

How can the example of Joseph in Egypt help you understand true forgiveness towards others who have harmed you?
