O GOD WHERE ART THOU

D&C 121-123

In this weeks lesson we talk about the Prophet Joseph Smith experience in Liberty Jail. At this time the Prophet and the Church were under intense persecution, as a result Joseph Smith spent a horrible winter in Liberty jail. We all experience refinement that come from adversity. We all experience our own liberty jail. As you read this week look for lessons that Joseph was taught and the lesson you have learned in your own liberty jail.

Read D&C 121 - what lessons does the Lord teach Joseph and myself about our own liberty jail experiences?

What is my personal pavilion? In what ways do I create barriers between myself and God?

What are some of the greatest lessons adversity has taught you?

If you could share with someone how you have become like Christ through trials, what would you tell them?
