

S.RAPAEEL.14.MINI

Thank you all for being here today and creating the beautiful energy unique to each one of us that together creates this beautiful soup of humanity that we are. So I'd like to invite you to prepare yourself in some small way for the information and the love that you will receive through Kryon. Maybe you'd like to close your eyes for a moment, just take a breath in, and just let yourself settle a little more into your body, into your chair.

And take another breath with me, and feel where your feet are on the floor connecting with the beautiful planet, beautiful Mother Gaia, through your shoes, through the cement, through whatever else is underneath, she is there supporting our every step. And then bringing your awareness to the top of your head where the divine energy enters in. Let's breathe the breath of that in through the top of your head.

And notice if you can feel it connect in your heart center, right in the middle of your body. And just let your beingness rotate around, revolve around the center where your heart is. Let your breath come to your heart, let your awareness come to your heart.

And though each one of us experiences that heart-felt-ness in a different way, when we put all of those hearts together, it forms a beautiful garland that surrounds us. Each flower just a little different, and each flower just as beautiful. And each flower opening to the message of love and honoring that comes into us with the grace and the joy that Kryon brings.

Greetings dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. Perhaps some of you have not seen this before. What do you think so far? There are ones, there is an energy shift in this place that is profound.

My partner steps aside and he does it in an instant. These are things that used to take him a great deal of time. To make this shift so quickly, to open this portal, to remove the filters and let through what comes.

And in this portal steps an energy that you cannot describe for you have no language, you have no concept. If I said the room was filled with multi-dimensional energy beings, God, the intellect would say show me, I don't feel anything. Those who read and feel are overwhelmed because their portals are open and they're ready.

This represents the process of the human being by free choice to acknowledge or not the unseen things of the planet because you're going to see a whole lot more of it. Nature itself is going to open up. You're going to feel the life forms that dwell in the trees.

You're going to feel the congratulation hugs back when you hug a tree. For the first time you're going to be open to multi-dimensional areas you don't even know exist and it's happening in the room. Let me bring you a concept.

The author has consciousness and writes a book. Whether it's a novel or whether it's research, the author has the consciousness which is energy that pours in to the project called the book. The consciousness forms a sentence of communication.

The words on the page. When you read them, it's the consciousness of the author. If you believe in esoteric kinds of things, energy that perhaps has not been identified but you know it's there, what do you think surrounds you at this moment? All of the consciousnesses of the books on the shelves that are facing you.

Start to read some of the titles. Spiritual help, lives that have unfolded, stories of redemption, healing, beauty, love, masterhood. Who wrote them? The consciousness of the individuals on the walls are still here.

Now that is a concept that is far out. And yet this is the kind of thing that we are telling you. You don't know what you don't know.

Sometimes many of you would come into a place like this store that you sit in now and you would glance at the books having no idea if there's anything here for you today and one will literally fall in your hands or they will glow so that you will see it and you'll pull it out and you'll know this is for me. This is the consciousness of the author in synchronicity with your higher self giving you what you came for. Now what is that energy called? And how do you prove it exists except that it's happened perhaps over and over to some of you? This is the synchronicity that we speak of.

You have another name for it that's creating your own reality. It is real, it has literally physics behind it, there's energy involved and that is what is coming to you. Tonight I'm going to give a lecture in my channel with information we've never given before.

I'm going to call it soul summary. Why are you here? What is it that begins now? What really is the soul? Why is it different? How does it remember where have you been? I'm going to open up areas of thinking that will be on what you can pick and some of you will think it's the strangest crying channel you've ever heard but it's time. It's time to start delivering you the potentials of why you came, what perhaps is next for you and the involvement of the peace of God inside you.

Not your akash, not your innate, not your cellular DNA but your soul. What it truly would mean. Now I frightened my partner and the whole day he's going to worry about it.

It keeps him on his toes. Dear ones, the love of God is here, it's here and you can call it whatever you want to. The masters knew it, the masters knew it and in this there is free choice for every single one of you to walk a path as fast or as slow as you want.

One of the interesting things about humanity is that when they awaken and start seeing the truth of some of these energies, they become impatient. They want more. They see the processes and they want them faster than the processes go.

This is an attribute of enjoyment. You like what you see. What I want to do is to give you hope, dear ones, you're going to like what you see.

It happens slowly, wait till you find out literally who you might be. I want to tell you tonight if you didn't know already what the system might be that brings you here. I know who's here.

I know the various degrees that you're interested in what you're seeing now. I know the ones who are not interested. Blessed are you who love someone so much next to you that you would come and endure something like this that you don't believe in.

Free choice, dear one. Everyone in the room has it without judgment. Isn't it beautiful? Isn't it beautiful that God does not force upon you anything but instead lines the streets with gifts and if you want to see them, they're there.

And if you don't, you don't have to work with them. Beautiful. And in this, I want you to be comfortable.

Believer and non-believer alike who are not only here but perhaps listening to this message, I want you to understand fully that God is not in judgment of what you choose or don't choose. It's the holiday season. I know what that is.

Dear ones, I know you. I know the cultures around the planet, anyone listening to this. I know where the holiday season has come from and you're careful to use the right words so you don't offend anybody else.

What do you think of the system that created it, Christianity? Perhaps it's not for you, perhaps it is. I want to tell you something in case you haven't heard it before. The master who walked the earth called Christ was real.

The things he did, the things that got reported that he did were real. All of it happened. One of the things that he said was, I am the son of God and so are you.

He was an example to follow of a compassionate human being operating at 90%. His consciousness won over physics every time. He had the power of life and death.

I'm going to talk more about that tonight in ways that you didn't expect. And you might say, well, it's fine, but I'm not necessarily going to go to the church with that name on it. You might say, well, there's beliefs in there that I'm done with.

I'll give you a challenge, dear one. It's going to test your tolerance level. I challenge you to go to the church you don't want to go to.

And there I want you to sit and enjoy the love of God that is there. You may not celebrate, sing the songs, you may not kneel, you may not do any of the things that are the doctrine of that particular organization. You may not even believe in some of the things they believe in.

But let me tell you something you didn't expect. Healings occurred there. The love of God is there.

The love of God is anywhere. Anyone asks for it. Did you know that? Anyone.

Go to the synagogue, you'll get the same thing. The love of God is there and healings have been there. And the mosque is the same.

It's true that there is one God and all humanity knows it. And there'll come a day, not when everything is synchronized and harmonized, but tolerance-ized, where you don't judge the other one and it's okay. Any way you want to, to say, I believe in the creative source and it's inside me.

The holiday season is about tolerance, is it not? Tolerance of family that maybe doesn't believe what you believe. Tolerance of all manner of things when you get together in ways you don't normally do once a year. What is your gift to the planet? You start practicing it now, I'll tell you.

As you can show your mastery anywhere you are, in any situation you are, even in the difficult ones, the ones you don't believe in, you can still stand and be patient and know that you are God. This is the message. The discovery of mastery is the beginning of spiritual evolution.

Oh, I have so much more to tell you. It will get weird. And so it is.

S.RAPAEEL.14.AKASHDAY

Take a breath with me. And on behalf of Lee and I, I thank all of you and I thank our wonderful host Rob and his terrific staff for just having this space to be in. It is truly wonderful and unique in every way.

And all of us who support people like Rob and the store, it's just, it's a wonderful thing in the day of the digital world to have a place like this to be able to come to and feel the energy and enjoy each other's energy. And then there's the chai. So, with gratitude to all of you and to the potentials that you all go forth with.

And the energy that comes to us through crying at the end of the day and the love that's shared from the other side of the veil, the entourage that crosses the veil to come be with us, to embrace us, unconditional compassion, unconditional love for the human. So, just let yourself feel what that wash of love is like, how deep it goes and how much it means. Because there's nothing that we can know in our humanity that's like that, except perhaps the love of a mother for a child, that limitless, compassionate, deep, transcended love.

Greetings, dear ones. I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. When we started yesterday and invited an entourage into the room, and it has been here ever since, it's not linear and you can't count them.

They don't really even have a consciousness like you do. Think of them as energy. Multidimensionality is this way.

It's complex to you. For us, it's reality and it's real. When we invite the entourage in, we actually are giving permission for an assemblage of energy that would be benevolent and compassionate to every single one who is here.

It's different each time. When you sit in an assemblage like this, dear ones, the very sitting in the chair, facing one direction, becoming quiet and focused, is intent. Did you know that? Intent to work on yourself, intent to know more, intent to be tolerant.

Not all of you have the same needs, wishes, wants, desires, and the paths are all different. But the entourage knows them all. The Kryon entourage is from the central core and the central source.

You might even say that the energy shakes hands with that which is you and your higher self, and some of you feel it. It's a safe place. Yesterday I made the statement it was the last channel of the year.

Now it was, if you define it like I do, that the channeling is filled with new information, profound things. You should listen to it many times and write it down. Not this one.

Not this one. This one's for you. It's for the ones in the room and anyone else who wishes to listen.

But it has to do with what you've experienced this day. For it was, it was different for many of you. The program is designed to stimulate things within you that would question your reality, to present complex things that perhaps you haven't thought of before or don't even understand yet.

It pushes the envelope of your three-dimensional reality so that you would feel free to look beyond it. And we use the words, is it possible there's more? What we have that is difficult, we on the other side of the veil, what we have which is difficult for us is you. You're coming from an old energy, born into an old energy.

And it's starting to revise your reality into a new one. A one that you didn't expect. One that has a new normal.

One that is filled with different rules. You got to recalibrate. And humans don't do this easily.

Your brain is not designed for it. The survival brain that you have takes concepts and owns them and they become your reality. It's survival spiritually.

And when the rules start to shift, it threatens many things within you. Sameness. You desire it and you want it.

And suddenly it's different. You weigh everything that we say that is new against what you were taught by those you trust. And again I will tell you this, that the energy shifts.

And what you may have been taught may be accurate and true for that time. But it moves and shifts. You change this planet so greatly that the future shifted.

The purpose of the planet shifted. Its place in the galaxy shifted. The potentials of what comes next for you and the next planet of free choice shifted.

Someday it will be your task to seed others with your DNA. Now do you understand all that? No. Greater than that.

Do you understand what was presented today in detail? No. You're not supposed to. I want to give you a concept.

This is a short message really. Just for you. All of you who sit here.

I want to give you a concept and I want you to remember this. It is a metaphor we've used before but I want you to really see it. Humans love to eat.

It's a pleasure that you all have. And you should. It was designed that way.

Designed that way. It's a beautiful time when you sit with others and you have a great meal. In the process of having a meal and the scenario of food in general, you all know that there are probably wonderful cooks and not so great cooks.

And when you go someplace and you discover a meal that is just wonderful and every bite is miraculous to your taste buds, you remember it. I want you to put yourself there for just a moment with your friends. People you know.

People you don't. You're all around the table and it represents, well, this room. And you're served a beautiful meal all together.

There are various degrees of enjoyment but in general you all do. Some of you are raving about it. You want to meet the cook.

You love it. And so you do an exercise and you work around the table to find out what each one thinks about the food that they ate. Then it starts to get a little difficult.

A little difficult because now you're receiving the insights into what each person found to be delicious or not. Was it texture? Was it taste? Was it experience? And then you get one who's the intellectual. Did you enjoy the meal? Oh, one of the best.

But I really did not enjoy it much. Well, how could you have it one of the best but you didn't enjoy it? And they say, because it landed on my taste buds and it made me wonder what the recipe was. I'm frustrated and it's interrupting the process of my enjoyment of this meal because I don't know what's in it.

I don't know how it was made. I don't know how long it was marinated. I don't know anything about the cook.

And so here I am frustrated. No, I didn't enjoy it. Do I have to go any further? I want you to sit here and enjoy the tools of this new age.

There's a system that is delivering to you intuition. Do you really have to figure it out? There is a system delivering to you new concepts of who you are, of what you can do, changing your very biology. Are you going to sit there and intellectualize it? Do you really have to know the minutiae to see the light? I give you this because the answer is in every single one, to some degree, the answer is yes, to some degree.

Around the table you go and you find that it's common. Even those who loved it want to meet the cook. They want to see the face.

They want to know the recipe. Even the ones who loved it. And then there's the one just smiling away.

Says, I don't care. I don't care to meet the cook. I just want more.

I want to invite you to be that person. Dear ones, you don't have to know. Eventually, I promise that these things will start to line up and become spiritually logical.

You ever have a situation in your life where you have no idea what and why you're upset, you're frustrated, time goes on, things happen, and you look backwards and go, oh, now I see. You're looking at the handiwork of synchronicity that pushes and pulls you around without your knowing or knowledge because you asked for it, because you allowed it, taking you into a benevolent place that you didn't expect. And there you sit looking backwards and going, I never could have planned it.

And if we had told you at the beginning what the plans were, you wouldn't have done it. And you know I'm right. So I want you to sit here without knowledge, that the love of God knows your name, and that you are able to work through puzzles without knowing the recipe, the minutia, the hows and the whys.

Some of you are built to ask these questions and you're just going to have to be tolerant with no answer, with the promise that someday you'll understand much better and you'll enjoy the logic of it. But for now, it's okay not to know. Don't let your intellectual brain spoil what's coming.

Don't let the survival instinct in you have to have a need-to-know attitude to participate in one of the greatest shifts of energy in humanity where the old soul is leading the way. That's the message for you. Specifically for this group because you have been through a day of teaching which is eclectic, moved around, covered many subjects and only introduced you to concepts.

And now it's up to you. The seeds have been planted for you to change the very essence of who you think you are. It's all in the akash.

Truly, old soul, think about it. It's a well of experienced knowledge and wisdom just waiting to be brought forward and pasted upon your life today. What are you going to do with it? You have to figure it out or you just go with it.

Blessings to you at this time in history. You're in the right place at the right time working with the puzzles that are supposed to be worked with. Did you hear me? That are supposed to be worked with because you are recalibrating your life.

I'm crying in love with humanity and so it is.

S.RAPAEEL.14.MAIN

Let's just come now from the mental process of the day and all the information and all the love that streams out from this stage and from Mr. Lee Carroll and his inspirations and his guide and bring yourself into your own center, whatever that is for you. So start with a breath and with the gratitude of what a beautiful day you've had together, this beautiful family that you all are. Each of you weaving your own particular thread into the tapestry of this day.

Each bringing a resonance each bringing your soul signature. Each of you bringing those pieces and parts of yourself that contribute to the delicious soup of humanity that we are here today. Each different resonance, each different thread woven with light and love and sacredness and oneness for the whole that we make when we're together.

Each necessary part like cogs in a wheel of this angelic machine that brings us to the moment where we open ourselves, where we gratefully receive the wisdom and the honor that Kryon presents to all humanity, to those in this room, to those listening, the oneness and the love that we are. Greetings dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. We wanted to pause a moment for the entourage to come in and for those who are sensitive here to feel it.

It is so difficult to give information that is beyond what you expect and even after it is given it's unknown whether it sticks. Some information is advanced. This is the last channeling of the year.

The last two times I have sat in front of you have given you summaries. This really isn't a summary at all. It's the next step.

I'm going to call it the completion of the story of the soul. It really begins to explain something that is unexplainable but we have to tie it together and I wanted to do it this year. The next three years we have described to you as the years of completion.

Three years, a catalytic number in numerological terms to describe a nine. Two, three, four represents the second, third and fourth year of this new energy. 2015, 2016, 2017 added together all of those numbers create a nine as well.

Something will be completed in those next three years that is esoteric and I'm going to start the process tonight by letting you in on a little bit of information a little more advanced than I have before. Dear ones, this is difficult. The difficulty is mostly with my partner.

He's a translator. As many years as he has been doing this, if I give him information that is beyond his comprehension, he is not able to translate it. His comprehension is much like yours and so we fall back on metaphors.

We fall back on the things that we know are within the comprehension of him and the rest the entourage paints for you. In the room, the third language must play a big part of this. The third language represents an intuitive language that is literally being broadcast with my voice to anyone who wishes to listen.

Loving, informative, benevolent information that goes beyond the spoken word available to listeners as long as there are listeners. I want to start with an example of what we're trying to do. I want to tell you about the soul.

I want to tell you in terms that I've never used before and I can't. You don't have the words, you don't have the experience, you don't have the energy and no concept of where you're going. Not really.

And it's so beautiful. Let us say for a moment, pretend with me, just pretend that a ship lands from another planet. It's friendly and out steps a humanoid couple and they give you their names and where they're from and they speak your language.

And as you look at them, you know very well they do not have the seed of God that you have in you. It's not part of their scenario, but they have intelligence and they're interested in humans. Let us say and pretend for a moment they are safe.

They are on an exploration mission and you are the only human that is able to talk to them. Pretend they're going to get everything they know about humanity from you. What is it that they would ask you? Let's pretend.

They're not going to ask you about history, they're not going to ask you about anything, they're going to ask you about things they don't have. And they're going to look at you and they're going to say, as long as we've been looking at you and watching humanity, there's one thing we have not understood. Please tell us about love.

Where do you begin and what kind of love? Are you going to tell them about the love you have for the planet, for your partner, for the animals in your life, for your ancestors, for your mother, for your father, for those who you've lost? And how would you begin? How many kinds of love are there and what are the differences? And when you started, and even if they said we have plenty of time, where would you begin? And when you did begin, how would you describe the emotional field of love? You could say whatever you wanted to say and they could understand the language, but you and I know that love is more than language. When you fall in love, there is a thickness of spirit, there is something palatable. You look into the eyes of your newborn, that's not just emotion, there's communication.

Love has a field around it that's beautiful, it vibrates. Two humans together in love. They form a bond, there's actually a third energy formed because of the two they have for one another.

They think about each other from long distances. It's more than language. How are you going to describe that? Let us pretend they sit there and they listen to you.

As long as you want to talk, they're taking notes. When it's time to go, they thank you, shake your hand, and they mean it. Their research is done and they fly away.

You can just imagine what they're saying to each other. They're not any closer to knowing about love than they were before. Because everything you've said is not discernible because they don't have it.

This is the puzzle tonight and all we have is what you can absorb. So we go to the third language and we want you to see what we're talking about. We want you to understand as much as you can.

Let us review what we have said about the human soul. The soul is not part of that which is corporeal and yet it resides in you at a corporeal level. But it's not.

It's not chemistry. It's not synapse. It's not intuition.

It's not any of the things you've studied. It is something you can't understand. It's a piece of the creator.

The creative source which created all that is, long ago, created a beautiful benevolent system and it needed a universe to accomplish it and galaxies and planets and life. And all of those were put together and accomplished correctly, properly and not accidentally. The creative source that built the planets around you, the galaxy that you circle is inside you and it hides.

It hides because it's part of the test on the planet for you to discover with free choice if it's there. To make it hide even more there's only a certain percentage of it you can handle so you're not aware of it. You're not aware of its grandness or what it is actually but you are aware of it intuitively.

Humanity knows God. As far back as you can look at your history human, you came onto the planet and you looked for the creator because it's inside. And then it happened.

The Pleiadians came. I'll tell you about them in a way I've never ever told you. The human soul permeates everything about you.

It is not locatable. It is pure multi-dimensional energy that is sacred and beyond anything you can ever ever measure. It's not in a scale that you have ever seen.

You don't have a word for it. You don't have colors for it. It's too far above any sense that any human will ever have to identify.

And it loves you because you're family. Closest thing is love and that's what you feel. You can't explain that.

You can't explain your soul. You can't explain the creator but you know it's there. It has no gender.

It's generic and beautiful filled with splendor and it's inside everyone. Dear one, it's inside me. I am not a human.

It's inside me. I speak to you from a position of honor and gratitude. I've never been a human.

I can't believe what you go through. Astonishing to me that you would have signed up for this. And the soul is right there.

Is the soul part of your DNA? Yes, of course. I've identified the layers it resides in but that's not all. It's in every chemical in your body.

It resides in the energy of your consciousness in ways you don't know. It's accessible in ways you don't know and it loves you beyond measure. I cannot tell you what it is because you don't have the concepts to understand it.

But if you could think for a moment of the most beautiful colors you've ever seen, that would be it. The most benevolent force you've ever felt, that would be it. The most love you've ever had for anyone or from anyone, that would be it.

It surpasses anything you've ever experienced on the planet, that'd be it. And the Pleiadians gave it to you a long time ago. I want to tell you about them after I tell you about you.

Dear ones, this is difficult and this is a review of one thing we've discussed and we're going to go further than this. The things I give you today will sound outlandish, beyond weird and strange to many. We're prepared for that.

But many of you have to know it. I'm talking to old souls, both listeners and in person. Not all, but most.

Most. I want to tell you who you are if I haven't given you this information before in this way. You need to hear it now.

When humanity was ready to be seeded by the Pleiadians, you simply were part of the animals on the planet. Designed to be at the evolutionary stage you were. You were way beyond that of cavemen.

You were ready. You look like you do now, you act like you do now, and you were ready. And it wasn't that long ago.

You want to paint a picture of 200,000 years and a hundred thousand of them were just getting it so you only had one kind of human instead of 14 or 15, like all the other animals. Now here's the question. When it was time to build Lemuria and the seeding took place as it did, who do you think was here to receive the seeds? Just regular humans that have come up through the evolutionary process? Just another animal? And the answer is no.

It was you. And you came from the Pleiades. I want to tell you something.

When it comes to reincarnation, it's not limited to this planet. You were aware of that, were you not? You have to come from somewhere. When you have an exponential growth of humanity, where do you think the pool comes from? Other places.

Life does not then emerge from nowhere. What if I told you there's a set amount of entities and soul groups that incarnate and it's been happening for millions of years, other places, long before 200,000 years ago. You came from the Pleiades.

You agreed to drop that which you had evolved to come back into a form that was basic and receive the seeds because you had to be of a certain kind of chemical readiness, soul remembrance. All the things you've never heard had to be correct for the seeds to take, for the meld of the DNA, the chromosomes to move around for you to become who you are. This is the creation story.

So let's put it in simple terms. Adam and Eve were special. They were you, having come fresh from another place, ready to receive the knowledge of light and dark.

It wasn't basic and Receive the seeds because you had to be of a certain kind of chemical readiness Soul remembrance all the things you've never heard had to be correct for the seeds to take For the meld of the DNA the chromosomes to move around for you To become who you are. This is the creation story So let's put it in simple terms Adam and Eve or special They were you Having come fresh from another place ready to receive The knowledge of light and dark it wasn't random. That's who you were You're not just old souls you're very special old souls You've come from the Pleiades It's a system you wouldn't believe You came from everything to almost nothing and you did it because you saw the potential of today How many lifetimes have you lived? last couple hundred thousand years What have you been through to get to today? I want to tell you where it's going and the potential of where it can go and I want to paint some Timeframes for you, and I don't want to scare you With how long it's gonna be But I want to show you the potentials of what you can be And this is where it gets odd When I say Pleiadian, who do you think about? What do you picture? humanoid forms that are perhaps taller and very wise It will come here Not necessarily in vehicles, but they come here that would come here instantly What might that tell you about what they've got you don't So now I want to paint a picture Pleiadians the seven sisters made up of nine sons three habitable planets all habitable by Pleiadians eventually Have been a society of enlightened humanoids for two million years you got two hundred thousand a Hundred of it really counts toward Lemuria 50,000 really is where it began Really Almost all the rest of it was just getting ready And I just told you that the Pleiadians have been at it for two million years You're looking at a society that is eight times Longer than you eight times they went through what you did almost to the team They grew up and matured just the way you did they had a time frame for them, too they went into graduate status like you are now and Everything changed for them two million years a portion of that about 10,000 were spent killing each other sound familiar Killing each other.

They were the playground of maturity casting stones Calling names without any maturity in the dark the same issues you had they had They passed the marker and they began to receive information and I'll get there Believe me tonight. I'll tell you But I want you to I want to tell you about them Their DNA is like yours you probably knew that you're gonna find it all over the galaxy DNA is DNA and The principles which created it here have created it everywhere It is the building block of life period and you're gonna see it Someday when you find life in other places in this solar system, it's gonna have DNA You're gonna start understanding. It's natural occurring life process Everywhere two million year their DNA started to become More viable like yours 44 54 55 66 77 88 let me tell you what happens at 88 You start to meld with the soul You're designed to be divine did you know that I Want to tell you something you're designed to live forever Renewable every cell keeps going and going especially the divine in you When it starts balancing up the cellular structures, it creates new ones.

It goes to the blueprint It never gets old you never get old Crying what are you gonna do with overpopulation when you never get old? Let me give you a hint. The Pleiadians have three planets. Does that give you something you learn to move around you learn about the universe? It's not an issue.

It's not a problem. It's beautiful a Pleiadian Is the closest thing you'll ever see to an angel in your life? They're working at 88 percent They have control over physics. They're entangled with anything they want to be The human soul is divine physics at its maximum control over everything the Creator Is in the soul The Creator is that is the master physicist of the universe If you are at 88 percent of that you got control over everything That's the seed that you have inside what is their society like you might ask there is no society Way past that there is only the togetherness of love closest thing to an angel you'll ever see eighty eight percent of the creative source Over two million years the Pleiadians were seeded by others We've talked about Orion of Taurus They become your grandparents.

There's one before those you've never even heard of They took a million years or more You do understand do you not In a planet that's over four billion years old. You're the new kid on the block here. You're really new Imagine what was going on in your galaxy.

Do you know how long a billion years is? Imagine what went on? This is the only planet of free choice in the galaxy at this moment dear ones you're in and You just passed a marker and all the life in this galaxy that has divine DNA knows about you The signal was sent I Want to tell you what that does that brings? celebration hope visitors and help The system begins All of this talk about soul and here's why I Want to tell you about the system. My partner has spent a day talking you about evolution Spiritual evolution within the cellular structure of your body creates a symbiotic relationship with your DNA your Akash Intuition all of these things and he never really talked about the soul because we haven't given him this yet The system of spiritual evolution comes through the soul period Doesn't come through the pineal the pineal senses the higher self Intuition Senses the higher self, but the soul is the one who delivers the information the soul is connected to the grids Your human soul is the catalyst and always was for the graduation Energy that you are now ready to receive it does not come in Through the human portion it cannot the time capsules That are opening that the Pleiadians have armed if I will may use the word Armed literally ready to go off in your direction To give you information is going to go to the soul part of you and the soul part of you is only Engageable as you approach 44 Spiritual evolution is going to be an increase in soul awareness Now here's something we've never talked about that. You are starting to feel We're gonna call it this we're gonna call it soul Remembrance your Akash is only from earth Let me tell you something about that We've gave you information a long time ago what happens to your Akashic remembrance When you pass over the veil, it stays here It's in the cave of creation in a crystalline substance.

You might say that remembers everything It's like you have your own crystal and it stays on the planet And when you when your soul comes back it picks up the information puts it in your DNA and off you go It stays here So, let me ask you why are some of you remembering who you were on another planet I Know who's here. You see Some of you are remembering Pleiadians Some of you remembering that you went through this before it's giving you hope because you know where it went you got to see 88% and That's why you're here because the chance of that happening here. You're not gonna miss it Who knows how long it's gonna take it doesn't matter because you're gonna be here the whole time 88% Soul remembrance is what we're gonna call soul Akash It remembers past earth And this is starting to happen with the Evolutionary process of that which is taking place on this planet with old souls in is gonna come Soul remembrance, you're gonna remember your eternal who were you? five million years ago You were not Pleiadian That is going to occur to you as well You want to know you want to really know where your souls are coming from? All the planets of free choice that have graduated They're not coming from the sky and some well From the creative source they're coming from other places who have gone through this dear ones That's who you are But the ones in the room and the ones listening You wouldn't be here and you wouldn't be listening unless you had a certain attribute of soul remembrance That is already at work.

Not what you've done on the planet, but what you did in the Pleiadians in The seven sisters you went through this you graduated and you spent a long time Going that direction closer and closer to the divine source It's so attractive dear ones to come to a place where you're one with God. You've been there You've done that and you were the first on the planet to receive the seed and now you awaken and you remember a Little of what it was like just a little You struggle with the conflicts of being a human and also knowing where you could go or what you can do frustration sometimes chemical imbalance In the last two years Many have died. Maybe they've been friends of yours You weren't ready for it Maybe they've been partners.

I want to tell you something if you haven't heard it before They're back They can't stay away that long they had to leave then in order to pave the way for your return dear one Because of what happened in 2012 Scheduled to leave early To pave the way for you coming back. There is a system here, which is beyond benevolent There is a system here, which reeks with the greatest love of The creative source you can imagine dripping with it waiting For you to become one with God the room is filled with pictures of holy men and women Many of them on other continents who have found the connection That brings them to a wholeness Where they can keep themselves alive for a long time be one with the planet melding consciousness with nature and all that is In an older energy. This was always possible, but it took discipline and it changed their lives forever Some of them could not eat The things they used to eat many of them became celibate All of these things in order to create this precious energy that for a moment would give them the solace of Feeling the Creator and I want to tell you dear ones.

They were the forerunners For what's coming this is your future With free choice, you can turn it around if you wish, but you're not going to You can go slow if you wish But you're not going to and I know this because of what has happened in the past You see peace is addictive Love is addicted Benevolence of spirit and compassion is addictive. You know how I know Let's talk about the master That the season is about today perhaps you saw pictures of the Christ And you saw the animals gathered at his feet that was accurate the animals saw The 88 to 90 percent in him and they were attracted to it. It's addictive you see People gathered from all over just to sit at his feet and watch him glow Because it was addictive the entourage he had around himself was palatable and You can feel it in the arms of God And you sat in front of him and all was well with you for those moments And if you spent a little too long, he might feed you while you were there and all of that was real It's a celebration.

Is it not for an addictive energy of love of? compassion and that is where you're going but beyond that as you increase the percentage of Efficiency of your DNA your soul brings in more of the creative energy from the source That's the evolvement of a human spirit way beyond biology Way beyond consciousness you handshake with the source that created the universe I Complete this story of the soul That's where it's headed That's why we teach it Now, you know you might want to review the words how long will it take too long This is just the beginning You're in year two dear ones in year two and There's such a celebration that you made it you will start to see humans mature in spirit We've said it over and over The things that are so out of balance today In humanism will start to be balanced and mature You'll see it everywhere in every aspect you can think about even politics Balance Compassion Wisdom you'll start to see it When you come in next time You're gonna remember who you are That's my promise You're gonna pick up where you left off you will be a wise old child Beyond any children, you know today old soul and you're not gonna make the mistakes you did this time around none of them It comes in with you more than a car soul remembrance Will keep you safe and your children will carry what you carry That's the way it's gonna work That's what's gonna propel it forward past peace on earth to graduation into soul energy To esoteric for you It's okay. I've got time Check in with me in about a million years and So it is.
