Greetings dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. I've said this so many times, I know where I am. There's no magic or mystery in who sits in front of me.

It is the precursor to the Compassion Choir. Not all of you have yet arrived, but the ones who are here are the ones who should hear this. And so I could tell you, dear ones, as I have so many times, that I know who is here, that I know about your lives, and what has brought you here, but it wouldn't be good enough.

It just has to extend thousands of years before this day, to the lives you have lived and the things you have discovered that brought the wisdom to light of an old soul who would go through this journey. I know where I am. You're wearing a badge and it says Lemurian to me, but in English it says Compassion Choir.

And you take a break, you stand in line with others, and they look at you and they say, what is a Compassion Choir? What do you say? Most of you make up something. You can't explain it. And if you did, what would they do? They'd look at you strange.

That's the way it looks to most. But the old soul in you, the Lemurian in you, doesn't just enjoy this day. That part of you resounds with what you're doing saying, this is why I was born.

So I could do it. And you'd be right. It's the awakening of what I'm going to call the templates of the future.

Who in this room has been talking templates for years? And that's the teacher Peggy, you see. She knows about templates, but I want to talk about other templates as well. What is a template to you? It has many meanings, but it is a pattern, is it not, of something that you would like to repeat.

In our case, a template is a purity that cannot be changed. The good doctor mentioned the seed biology that you have a million years. It's a little more than that.

Not much, but a little more measured in revolutions, in part revolutions around the galaxy of the constellation of the seventh sister. How many times around the middle? And since all the stars go at the same speed around the middle, that particular timing you can use in a galactic way no matter who you talk to. For you go in partial revs.

And I tell you that because there'll come a day when you'll measure how long you've had a graduate enlightened status in revs around the middle. They had to put templates here. There had to be templates.

Templates of their society. Templates of purity of the creator, which they knew about. And they are in many forms.

And we have talked about ascended land. The template of Gaia itself is here on ascended land. It can't be touched.

It is protected. And we've even given you some of those ascended areas and you can feel them where you go. It's a template of purity.

Because you're going to need that. You're going to need that to look at and copy and emulate for what you're going to do next. If you've got a society that's a million years beyond you, not just technically, we're talking about consciously, you've got some work to do.

But I want to tell you this is the beginning of it. There are those who would say that human evolution works in stair steps. It doesn't.

How many of your parents were involved in World War II? And how long ago was that when you were still warring with each other and building the best weapon you could to kill the most people? How many years ago? It was yesterday. That was like a hundred thousand years of evolution of humanity. It didn't get any better.

Just because you had more people and higher technology, the consciousness didn't shift, if you noticed. So there's nothing guaranteed with time. What shifted, and right on schedule by the way, was the consciousness of the old soul.

Turning on a light that brought me to this planet. I've always been here. But it brought me here to give you messages 23 years ago because you were starting to turn the key in the lock even then.

And human nature started to evolve. And the 1111 was the point of demarcation. The 87th harmonic convergence.

You can point to that and historians will point to that and say this is when it began. So that by the time you reached the middle or measured middle of the precession of the equinoxes, you'd be ready. That's why I'm here.

That's why Yai was born. That's why you sit in the chairs. All ages sit here for this time.

So humans didn't simply evolve to this place hardly. Intent, compassionate action, all the things we're talking about coming together in a confluence of energy that started to make the difference. And that's what's happening.

And the templates are starting to be seen. There's templates in the crystalline grid, there's templates in the Gaia grid, there's templates in the magnetic grid, there are templates, are you ready? In your DNA. There is a pure Lemurian Pleiadian template in each one of you.

And it sings through the pineal. It sings through the pineal. How many of you are aware that as you sing the tones, you're feeling something in you? You're not singing them to the earth.

You're not singing them to the Pleiadians. You're claiming the template in you. And that's the most important template on the planet.

And it hasn't been hidden. Dear ones, it's been there all along. And it's difficult for us to describe to you a quantum DNA when all you see is that which is linear.

But it had to be there. But there's more. And I will reveal to you for the first time today, because you deserve it.

And because you're in a node that sings it. I want to tell you that there are other pure templates and other pure templates that are residing on this planet. And those templates are going to be used, and I'm not going to tell you how, because you wouldn't believe it.

And they are there residing outside of humanity, and they're going to be protected. There are templates of Gaia, templates of humanism, templates of invention and creation. And they're swimming around in the ocean as whales.

And we told you that this would be important. The consciousness of those animals don't know this. So you can't look a whale in the eye and say, I know your secret.

But they're here for the duration. You realize that they're protected. They're like the ascended land.

They are a protected species on this planet. If you want to say there was a 13th time capsule, it would be them. You get the 13, don't you? If you didn't, it was just explained a moment ago.

And there they are. They're pure Pleiadian energy. There are templates there that will be retrieved when they're needed, inventions that will be retrieved when they're needed.

They swim the oceans. They travel further than any other animal on the planet travels on a regular basis. They cover the globe.

Now you know why. And now you know who they are, what they're for. They represent all of the purity of humanity to come.

A humanity that has free choice. But look at the choices in this room to find the template. So as I close, I will say this.

You're going to be planting seeds through the tones in these next days. I want you to think inward to the time capsule in your DNA that's going to open and give you longer life on the stage already been mentioned. There is a template for health that works at 80 to 90 percent and keeps you from aging.

There's a template for consciousness that brings out a new kind of human survival called compassionate action. The changes relationships between all of the players on the planet that would normally create drama. Major religions, business, you wouldn't believe how they can change.

And it's not that they will change themselves as much as they will change the relationships between them. Putting together instead of separating is the template for the future. And it's inside you.

And the more you desire it and want to find it, the closer it comes to your reality. There are some of you who will lay on your deathbed someday and wonder if you failed. You'll think to yourself, I'm not really sure I extended my life that long, but I sang the tones.

I want to tell you something that you're not considering. These things that are dynamically, akashically inherited, that are going to pass on to not only you, but to others in lives to come, are going to resound with what you do here today in your body. Did you get that? In other words, you're opening the template for your next life.

And when you come in again, that akashic inheritance and remembering will see the template first that you created this weekend. You're creating your future, not just this one. Because old soul, you're coming back.

You'll always come back. You're not going to miss the finale. The more of you make this decision, the greater the light will be on the planet.

And you will know I'm right in time. The words that I speak this day will not disappear. They will be held as truth, and someday they will be put forward as their own template.

When historians take a look at the spiritual history of the planet and say, it was here before you all the time, you're the pioneers of the pioneer, the pioneers of the future. And you are making a difference. I want you to ponder that, ponder that.

And then if you dare, before you go to sleep, when you get yourself a 20 second hug, well done. And so it is.

CHOIR FINAL CHANNELLING

Greetings dear ones, I am Kryon of Magnetic Service. The Indigenous Grandfathers are here, and many of you felt them in the room. The Indigenous Grandfathers will always be, wherever you do this.

For this is their prophecy, and as far back as you wish to go on the planet, north and south, this is their prophecy. That there would come a day when Indigenous and non-Indigenous would gather together and honor each other through the earth. This is an anointed place, this day it is sacred land.

And I want to say something to you, in all love and compassion this day, if you've come to have a good time, you could leave now. And the empty seat will be withdrawn, and it will be closed in by those who recognize the sacredness of this day. Of this day, I'll give you messages in four pieces today, about what you're doing, the history of it, a little bit about Yaw Yee, always.

I'll tell you about your future choirs, I'll even link up a note and a note for you. But for now, let us set the energy of this place and call it what it is. For the few hours that you're here, turn your consciousness upon that which you have learned.

Treat this as sacred ceremony, for it is. Treat this as something that is impactful to the planet, because it is. Honor the indigenous who walked the dirt before the cement was laid down in this place, and see them as family, for they've expected you, dear ones.

And here you are, right on time. Let the prophecy be fulfilled this day. Let it begin.

And so the winds of change are upon us. They're upon all of us, even that which you would call creative source, especially that which you would call creative source. If you ever thought you were alone on this planet and what you were doing here was isolated, think again.

Well, the things that you do today are an exposure of greater things for the galaxy, for the neighborhood. They know what you're doing here. I wish to speak of history.

I wish to speak of the history of the ancients. I wish to speak of the history of the tomes. Let us start with a phrase that you may have heard, that history will drive the future.

And if you speak to a modern sociologist, a modern anthropologist, this is a cynical statement. For what they see is history tending to repeat itself, as though humanity would never learn from the mistakes they made. And it would seem that they are correct.

For in the last few thousand years, there has not been much evidence of progress. As I mentioned before, the sticks that you hit each other just got bigger. That's the only change.

Survival was still survival. And so it would appear that that statement is correct. That the history of the planet will repeat itself and drive you into the future without a great deal of evolution of consciousness.

Now, let us go back even further in time, however, and look at how the indigenous looked at it. Every single indigenous culture on this planet starts their ceremonies honoring the ancients, their own ancestors, for there is a recognition that the template of wisdom lays there. And so they ask the past for help with their future, but it is not a cynical look.

Instead, it is a beautiful look that the future could be developed by the wisdom of the original grandfathers and the ancients as far back as they could look, acknowledging the wisdom of the past. Now, let us turn another page and look at this in a quantum way. A quantum way, outside of three dimensions, climbing into the esoteric box that you have chosen for today.

What is your past, human being? Your quantum past. And now I ask you to look at the template that has been placed here by the Pleiadians. That is in your DNA.

Those are the ancients for you. And so, indeed, history may drive the future, the history of the Pleiades, a graduate planet, the real ancients, the ones you carry right now in your DNA, the ones who have set the sacredness of this space. And so the indigenous had it correct, except when you now apply the quantum aspect, you go further back than this planet.

You're looking at the history of a graduate, divine, aware culture. And that is the door that you are opening. A few years ago, Yahi, who you call Dr. Todd, started making the tones, and he did not know why.

When they started to become structured, we started to give him instructions on what he was doing and why he was remembering. He was remembering the divine tones of a quantum history. And it started with remembering the tones out of Lemuria.

And this day, you have an example of his now remembering in real time the past from the Pleiadians, delivered to him as he needs it, not from something that he had in his akash. Now, for some of you, this is difficult to conceive of, but this is what is happening this day. Last year, you put together what we would call the Lemurian choir.

And this was the opening statement, the key in the lock, as I told you then, an enablement of the time capsules of the planet, an enablement. The key had been turned. The lock was disengaged.

The lock could only be disengaged with a planet that saw this, that the history that they were looking at to propel them into the future would not be their history, but the seed biology history, the Pleiadian history, that it was possible for humanity to raise its consciousness. And you turn the key and the galaxy knew it and the neighborhood knew it. And at some level, dear one, every human on the planet knew it at some level.

That was the enablement. And there were those who would say, we're done. We have done our job.

We have enabled. I want to give you an example of what that's like. That would be like a pioneer finding gold, panning it and seeing it glisten in the water, realizing he had discovered the mother load, and then walking away and saying, that's nice, without finding the gold.

There is the human attribute of the now in modern society that sees an event and says, that's all. Let me do something more exciting. Those of you who are here, I want to tell you, it doesn't get more exciting than this.

Every single time you put these tones together and do this, there is elevated potential. It is true that you turned the key. You discovered where the gold might be.

But now you get to use it. And using it is your destiny. And using it comes right from the creative source.

A month ago at Lake Titicaca, the prophecy was fulfilled. The shaman from the north meet the shaman from the south. And the time capsules collectively were open.

You turned the key last December. A month ago, you might say that you then opened the door. And today, you're walking through it.

It doesn't get more exciting, or does it? And I'm going to give you some information in these next sections about the future choirs, about what you might be doing, about perhaps what their names should be, and even a little more about Yai. But this is the history, and the history will drive the future. A future that sees humanity different than any sociologist could ever conceive who is alive today.

That is our prophecy. And finally, I want you to see where you sit. For the last time you gathered in a choir, the indigenous were the Lemurian.

They represented the seed biology. Today, you sit in a place where the indigenous were the prophets of the earth. No other group but the Maya had the time fractals figured out so that they could tell you when the end of a long count occurred, and give you the prophecy of what you're standing here today doing when you sing the tones.

That was their prophecy, the beginning of a new calendar. With human nature starting to change, with potential starting to elevate, and finally, finally, the ancients would come forward and their consciousness would be revealed. And they're here today, watching you.

Some of you are them. We have given you explanations of the nodes and the nulls of the planet. We have given you new information that has only occurred in the last year.

Information that could not be given because you had not reached this point where these time capsules would be needed. Nodes and nulls are confusing to humanity. They are not a three-dimensional concept, but we're going to give you something that will help you to understand a little more why things come in pairs.

Even three-dimensional physics comes in pairs. You will always present a choir in a node, and there's a reason. The node is an overlapping of both physical and esoteric grids, multi-dimensionally creating a situation where you feel good.

Human beings tend to feel better in places where negativity is being removed rather than in places where positive things are being pushed at you. Did you know that? Human beings love to cleanse. You do it all the time.

Every opportunity for a cleansing, you're there. If you want something removed that doesn't suit you, you're there. That's why a node makes you feel so good.

For it seems to be the cosmic vacuum cleaner for the crystalline grid, realigning it, recalibrating it, and taking away the things that no longer serve you, creating a space where you can put into it the things that you want. There's a node and a null, and there must be, there are 12 pairs. When you speak to one, you speak to both because they're quantumly alive.

You might even say they're entangled. There is no reason for you to visit a null when you've already visited a node because you speak to both of them. Isn't it interesting? The push and pull energy that we have spoken of, even at the center of your galaxy, even the creative source itself, is a pair.

So let us put this in a way that you can further understand. Dear ones, if you're going to populate another world, would you send one human? No, you send two. And the energies of them are masculine and feminine when you look at humanity in three dimensions.

And the beauty of them coming together in a way with love creates that which will beget other human beings. It is a beautiful process. It is an energy that comes together.

It is a node and a null, and they are equal, and they are beautiful, and the result is creation. Let me tell you some things about Yai. As the priest that he was in Lemuria, he had high science.

He had it from the Pleadians, and he was selected to have it, and he lived a very long life. Lemurians procreated. That's what they were doing to bring in the souls to create an akash, a template that would be beautiful.

Yai had many children. As many of them did, he lived a very long time. Some of his children actually became the akashic templates of the ancients, and I know that he suspected that.

But in today's life as Dr. Todd, there are no children, and yet there are, for he has been responsible for bringing you the push-pull energy that will create new consciousness on the planet. You might say, because of that, that Dr. Todd is always quantumly pregnant. I'm not sure he wanted to hear that.

But does it not then show you that there is a balanced male and female in the man, the gentleness that some of you have seen, the beauty of mastery that some of you have seen? I would like to recall with you his history on the planet, for it didn't start with the esoterics. It started with a vision, and in this vision he was taken on purpose into that which was the DNA molecule itself, and he got to look around. We even called him the twist master, for he got to see how it was put together.

And although this particular knowledge did not then implement into his science, it gave him the vision of what was needed next. It is Dr. Todd who has put together the first quantum energy on the planet and been able to facilitate it, duplicate it, and use it. Long before he was doing these tomes, he had discovered something that I will call benevolent physics.

And what he found in this quantumness, as he remembered it as a Pleadian, was that every single thing he did with this invention was benevolent. And that is out of the odds of scientific discovery, for usually when you work a puzzle in science, in chemistry, you always have experiments. Some work, some do not.

Everything he touched with this invention was benevolent. And some of you know of the latest, and the stem cells that are guided to the places they should go. How do they know where to go? What is the template that could be used? I want to tell you what the template is.

It's Ga'i. This is high science given to you by the Pleiadians with physics that knows where to go to heal a human being. And as I stand here saying these things, and these words perhaps would be echoed around the planet someday, and seen, some would be laughed at, and other scientists will say, we're seeing this too.

Can you imagine discovering elements of physics that know who you are and only do benevolent things in your body? And the reason I bring it up is because the tones you are singing are benevolent pairs that are co-creating a birth of a new consciousness on the planet, one that is balanced with male and female, one that is not in survival mode, one that has compassion first, that will create a new kind of thinking. You're planting the seeds. It's not going to be in your news tomorrow.

Dear ones, you know that. It may even take a generation or two for you to start seeing it completely, where one generation must die out and another come back with a new crystalline grid on its feet. But you are helping the planet birth.

That's why the tones are sung together. That's why they have to come together in a certain way in order to birth this new child on the planet, which is new consciousness, a new human being. And it's so far removed from your logic at the moment.

But you can feel it, can you not? And you know you're doing something important, can you not? And you know the ancients are smiling on all the planets of free choice. And that is the story of what is going on this day in this place. And after the break, the next installment, I'll tell you about the choirs that you're going to sing in soon.

And so it continues. And you might ask, what is the future of the choir? Yahweh has not been given instructions specifically on how many choirs, when to do them, or how long it's supposed to last. So I'll let him know now.

This is not a linear process. It is not necessary to go to every single node on the planet and assemble a choir there. Isn't that good news? There is a period of time for the singing of the tones and the assemblies of the choir.

And it's through 2016. This is the completion year, this group of years, the beginning of the 18 years past the precession of the equinox's center, is the time for this. And this will coincide, Yah-ee, with your schedule.

And it will make sense to you to put the nodes together and perhaps other choirs in non-nodal areas to accomplish certain kinds of energies yet to come. But let us speak of the ones that are scheduled. And they appear right now on a three-dimensional schedule of time.

And let us speak about what they will be, and let us name them. Now, Yah-ee, in your mind, you've already named them, but you never ask. So we're going to rename them.

Yah-ee, not everything is yours to accomplish. Almost. Let us discuss the attributes of what is to come in the next two years.

And look at the attributes that perhaps you have not yet discussed or thought of as you schedule the choirs. Some of this you have thought of, Yah-ee, and some you have not. The next two nodes that you will sing at that are scheduled are both extremely active places for Pleiadian creation.

In fact, you might even say they are the most active. What I mean by that is that Pleiadian energy is still there. It is still there, felt by humans who have no idea what they're feeling.

They are both sacred land. They are both protected. So let us discuss the first that you know about, and this will be next year.

It's the year of the seven. Seven, in absolute classic numerological terms, that being from the Tibetan source, not esoteric but classic, would be divinity. And so you might then wrap around the divine greeting to the Pleiadians in the mountain called Shasta.

And the choir that is assembled there in a few months is going to be one that is not about creating a birth of an energy on the planet as much as it is an assembly of celebration, greeting those in the mountain that you've known have always been there. The city that is Telos, that those in the past dedicated their lives to seeing the city in the mountain, the metaphor of the creative source which lives there even today, will be celebrated by the choir that will go there. Is it not interesting to you that this node has no resorts around it? Not really, not like here.

There has not been an attraction that would create something that would be inappropriate around the mountain, that it is pristine, it is village-like, and that is where you will go next in the year of the seven, the divine year, and you may wish to then create and name this the divine choir, the divine greeting choir, whatever in the scope of those things, because that is what you're going to do. You just sang a tone about the seeds of creation, sing it again there. In fact, you're going to sing it in 2015 as well.

So that is the story of Shasta, alive with energy, of the Pleiadian source, so close to the surface, is it, that those who are not interested in esoterics can climb that mountain and feel them, perhaps even see the lights that are there at dusk and at night, where there should be no lights. The mountain has a lineage, and the lineage is that of the creative source. Go and celebrate them and greet them with the choir.

The year after that, there are two choirs scheduled, one in a node and one not, and so I will discuss with you perhaps the names of those and the energies around them. You have the tones already, and those you think you need will be delivered to you in real time, just like they were for this one. The choir next year is about celebration.

The choir in 2015, the year of the eight, is also going to be at an extremely active Pleiadian site in the middle of the continent of Australia, in Uluru. Now the Aborigines have something that most people do not know. If you've studied their culture, they claim the creation source is the seven sisters.

This is their tradition, and so they are claiming those from the stars came, and they landed first at Ayers Rock, and Uluru was the point of creation for them. There are many points of creation around the planet. There are some very ancient ones, and this is one of the most ancient.

Lemuria has an entirely different attribute as being the first civilization that was sequestered by being an island to have Pleiadian energy and last as long as it did, but Uluru may have the original seeds of the Pleiadians still there. If you ask the indigenous in Australia, who are now part of the planning of this area and ownership of this area, they will say that the ones whose names you cannot pronounce are still there, and they will not allow a human being to go there except a shaman. They will not even allow aircraft to fly over it.

It is that sacred to them, and so you will go and you will gather there. That is the creation choir, and it is celebrating not only that which began on this planet, but that is where you are going to put down new energies, and when 2015 arrives, you will know what those energies are and what you need to do in that place to complement this node and open that capsule. The Australians say that they have evidence, carbon dated, of civilization as you know it, up to 60,000 years old at Uluru, and so you will go there and feel the ancients tap into the history and the template that exists there that the Pleiadians brought and that the indigenous call the Seven Sisters creative source, a very special one indeed.

There is another one in 2015 that you have planned, and it is not in a node. It is in Israel. It is not even close to a node, and you might say, what are you doing there with a choir? What might you do there? I hope this gives you chills, dear ones, and I will tell you what you are doing there because Israel, in all the prophecies in the last 2,000 years, has been called the ignite point of the end of the earth.

Israel was going to be the trouble spot that would trigger World War III. The alliances that would be political on the planet that would bring you a nuclear war, all because of what took place in Israel. All of the problems of the Israelis and the Israelites of all through history culminate there in a troubled area.

So what might you do there, my dear ones? In 2015, you are going to disengage the trouble. You can call this the forgiveness choir if you want to, but they will argue about who is forgiving whom. It would be better to call it the healing choir.

Healing of ancient enemies, the beginning of sacred land being more sacred than ever before, where the masters who walk there figuratively can look at one another, hug one another, shake hands, and say it is the beginning of a new Israel. It is going to be the new Jerusalem, and that is what you are going to do there. It is the city on the hill.

It is the one seen by the prophets all along that would glisten with healing, with forgiveness, with new humanity. This is the opportunity you have. It is not an ode.

It does not need to be to heal it. Many of you will wish to be part of that. Those of you who cannot will know when it is going to occur, and perhaps there will be a way for this one to include through the internet those who wish to join, and you have time for that.

This is what we see as the energies of these next three. Beyond that, in 2016, it would be the completion, yet to be known, yet to be planned, but I have just given you the names. And so it is at this point in time that you see that what you are doing here is a series and not one of them is complete by itself.

You must have them as a series. A human being does not have to be in all of them. That would be linear.

Those who are attracted and can come and go to each one will be the right ones, just like those who are the right ones here. Plan on it. Participate in it.

Be part of it. You have earned it. You have reached the end of not just a ceremony, but a time of co-creation and the birthing of a new energy on the crystalline grid.

And in review, I say yet again that the crystalline grid of the planet is the action grid. It is the rememberer of human action and that which postures the energy of the newborns. But when the newborn humans come into the planet, the first thing they will see besides their parents and their environment is they will relate their akash to the current energy of Earth.

And that is postured by the crystalline grid. And therefore, if you change the grid, you change humanity's newborn potential. You are pulling in the history from another place that is pure.

And in review, when we told you that the whales had the pure templates of the planet, they are stored there so they will never, ever be destroyed. Not just the templates of the planet, but also of the pure human being. The one that Yah'i says will let you live forever.

Indeed, there is a template for that. It's biological, it's esoteric, it's divine. The inventions of the planet, the quantumness to come, the templates of invention are all there.

You cannot separate one template from another. A Gaia template is a DNA template. And therefore, the answer to the question that Yah'i has just posed is there is no difference.

Dear one, today, for what you do, what you think the crystalline grid, you're doing to yourself. And therefore, you are clearing that which is recalibrating within your own DNA, and you will be different because of it. You are creating compassion to the crystalline grid at the same time you are rewriting it in yourself.

You cannot separate these things. In a linear way, the human being wishes to compartmentalize one and then another. And in singing this tone or that tone, they wish to know what is activated here, how is this working.

It does not appear to us that way. It is grander than you think. When you put something on the stove that you've worked on very hard and all the ingredients are there, you heat it up together.

You don't put a pot on the stove and just a portion of the ingredients heat up. All of it heats up. And this is the quantum soup of what you do with the choir.

You turn the key in the lock for yourself in December 21, 2012. And this day, you open the time capsules inside your DNA, allowing you greater wisdom in this place, healing. Healing.

Things that you've asked for, dear choir members. I said to you first, if you've come to have a good time, you shouldn't be here. You came to work and you have.

And the result will be some of you receive what you came for. And the rest will have the seeds planted for grander things. Much grander.

It is personal. It is planetary. The time capsules open on the planet in the nodes and the nulls and inside humanity, especially the ones who are participating.

Humans have free choice. But one of the grand things is that as you open a time capsule and enable it, humanity, which is not esoteric, which would never be here, which would not understand any of these things, will be affected. It is permission for them to find things easier, to see the compassionate ways, to put things together instead of tearing them apart.

Church leaders, politicians, all affected with the time capsules that begin to open. So don't linearize what you've done here as something you did for a node and a null today. That's not the way it works.

Instead, you are heating the pot of the perfect templates of earth and humanity. It's all on the stove together. And by a series of events, you are lighting the fires.

When Yahii began, his quantum invention led him to Africa. It's interesting. And now I give you some things you should know yet again about the future, which may seem mysterious.

Brian is not a prophet. I am here to show you an overview which is already taking place that individually a human being cannot see. When I arrived 23 years ago and I told you there would be no Armageddon, it's because we saw what was in progress, not because we had the prophecy of God.

We saw what humanity was doing and that's why we came. We saw the potential of the end of the prophecies of war and that's why we came. We saw the potential of Yahii and this day and that's why we came.

You sit in prophecy today, fulfilled, and you're part of it. Yahii was led to Africa. It is interesting, is it not, how many of those in this room are working at some level with Africa? And you didn't think I knew that, did you? I do.

He's still working in Africa. Yahii's work takes him into many places, but it's about Africa. It's about healing the continent, perhaps even feeding it with quantum invention.

Africa. 2012, December 21, you were in a node in Lemuria and at that time, we did not reveal it, but we did later on, that the matching null was in Chad, Africa. And so you paired up, did you not, with a Lemurian node and a null in Africa.

That was the first of the pairing that we have revealed. The second pairing we revealed in Lake Titicaca was the natural one that you would expect with the node of the lake in Bolivia and the Tibetan mountain is the null. Will it shock and surprise you that the second choir links this Mayan peninsula node with the null in Mount Kilimanjaro in Africa? Africa.

What is happening there? Why is Yahii involved? Why is the choir doing those nodes and nulls first? And the answer is, dear human being, what we have told you before, even that of the Akash, of the man who is talking, knows that his next stop is in Africa. And he will have different colored skin and he will be part of a political structure and he will help Yahii when he gets there. It's about Africa.

And the reason is because it is an untouched continent and when it is healed and when it is fed and when it begins to be its own entity, it will have nothing to undo. It will have no cultures to rewrite. It will start over.

And it may very well be the biggest, highest consciousness, most elegant culture to ever exist on the planet. And you're planting seeds for it right now. It's coming.

There are so many things you cannot imagine on this planet which are good news, which we see. And yes, it's a long way away. But if we had told your grandfathers there would be no war, would they have believed you at this point in time? If you had told your grandfathers and grandmothers that today's political structure would be so different on the planet, that former countries of war had come together and they have a union together where there are no walls anymore with the same currency, would they have believed it? If we told you today that there are continents right now lining up to do the same thing, would you believe it? It is all part of what you're doing.

The time capsules are you. And inside you is Pleiadian DNA. And inside you is a template of their history.

And that is going to start to be revealed, making you more compassionate. And isn't that why you came? Isn't that why you came? And so it is.

Greetings dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. Mis estimados, soy Kryon de Servicio Magnetico. I know where I am.

Yo se donde estoy. Some would think this was an odd thing. Algunos pensarían que esto es algo raro.

The channeling experience Pero la experiencia de canalizar appears to be an odd thing. parece ser algo raro. For if you look at it in a linear way ya que si lo ves de manera lineal you would seem to think that the personality of the human being parecerías pensar que la personalidad del ser humano goes someplace else va a otro lugar and in then comes the entity from beyond y en esa persona entra una entidad que viene del más allá named Kryon que se llama Kryon and then Kryon speaks y luego Kryon habla then he leaves y luego se va and the human being comes back y regresa el ser humano and that is not what happens y sin embargo eso no es lo que sucede that is not what happens eso no es lo que sucede and to try to describe it y tratar de describirlo in any other terms to you con otros términos, con otras palabras a ustedes is so difficult es tan difícil and there are so few metaphors y hay tan pocas metáforas to describe this incredible meld que podrían describir esta fusión increíble between humans and spirit entre los humanos y el espíritu and that's what it is y eso es lo que es what if I told you that what you see here qué pasaría si les dijera que lo que ustedes ven aquí is what is going to happen to humans in the future es lo que les va a suceder a los humanos en el futuro they won't all walk around channeling no van a andar por allí canalizando todos they won't need to no lo necesitarán hacer because they will all have a constant contact porque todos tendrán un contacto constante with the God inside con el Dios interior is it possible es eso posible for humanity to have this kind of thing es posible que la humanidad tenga este tipo de cosa even certain parts of humanity to have this kind of thing incluso que ciertas partes de la humanidad tengan este tipo de cosa and the answer is yes y la respuesta es sí but when it starts to take place pero cuando empieza a darse it's not going to appear odd no va a parecer algo extraño it's going to be called sino que se va a llamar mature common sense sentido común de la madurez those who have it y aquellos que lo tengan will appear to have wisdom parecerán tener sabiduría they don't have to have a group in front of them y no tendrán que tener un grupo en frente de sí to pay attention que les pongan atención to write books que escriban libros it will happen by itself es algo que se dará por cuenta propia this is part of the evolving human being esto es parte del ser humano en evolución this is part of what you have asked for esto es parte de lo que ustedes han pedido have turned the key and the lock for es parte de lo que han dado la vuelta a la llave para abrir and they're beginning to walk into that which we call the opening of the time capsules of Gaia y están empezando a entrar en lo que llamamos a entrar en las cápsulas del tiempo de Gaia it affects human nature esto afecta la naturaleza humana that's what you're doing eso es lo que están haciendo and so let us speak some more of that hablemos un poco más al respecto let us

Kryon, y qué pasó con el amor? let me ask you a question permítame hacerles una pregunta was love in the cave? había amor en la cueva? yes you've always had it siempre lo han tenido many kinds of love muchos tipos de amor diferentes even in survival incluso en situaciones de sobrevivencia an incredible love for your children tenían amor extraordinario por sus hijos for one another amor el uno por el otro for family amor por la familia for God amor a Dios you don't have to emphasize love no tienes que poner el énfasis en el amor for it is not a new attribute ya que no es un atributo nuevo of human nature de la naturaleza humana it will pass right over where it belongs va a llegar exactamente a donde pertenece and you will be able to love each other even more y podrán amarse los unos a los otros aún más but it's not new pero esto no es nada nuevo don't misunderstand me no me malinterpreten don't leave this place and say well, Kryon said you don't need love no se vayan de aquí diciendo bueno, Kryon dice que no necesitamos amor I am saying you already have it lo que estoy diciendo es que ya lo tienen you know what to do with it you know what it feels like ya saben que hacer con el amor ya saben como se siente el amor and so the last thing I'm going to do entonces lo último que voy a hacer is give you the metaphor es darles la metáfora of what this channeling meld is like what happens when the human being falls in love there's a meld, is there not? it's a mystery to psychologists what that chemistry is it's a mystery to know what that chemistry is it affects your way of thinking you see the other person and you sigh a lot and it can last a lifetime, you know it's a bond it's a bond of energy that is inexplicable and multidimensional y todos ustedes lo han tenido mi socio y yo en estos instantes estamos enamorados no puede ser mejor que eso, no es así él no se ha salido de su cuerpo más bien se ha fusionado conmigo y por unos instantes en el día compartimos el mismo espacio de consciencia y habrán aquellos que vean esto y solo vean la rareza lineal de todo esto pero algunos lo podrán ver ahora y dirán ahora entiendo esta es la invitación para la nueva consciencia humana estoy seguro que hablaremos más adelante y así es

GCC-Day 1

Please give yourself a few moments to come back into your body fully. So, take a deep breath in through your nose, let it out through your mouth with a sigh. And do that again.

And bring your energy down towards the center of your body as you do. And again. And bring it right down into the middle of your body.

Feel yourself relaxing in the chair. Feel your feet connected to the earth. And just allow that energy from Gaia, and the energy of the crystalline grid that runs right through this room, connecting all of us, heart to heart, like beautiful beads on a necklace, with our own hearts and our own space, together creating a wreath, like a lei, you know, a wreath, a circle, yeah, a circle of hearts, that expands around this room.

And take a breath into that. And let it expand past this room, past this peninsula called the Yucatan, and take a breath and let it expand even further, across the ocean, around the world. There are many sisters and brothers on the planet right now, who are tuning into the energy of this event.

And their hearts join our hearts. And their feet stand on the same grid. And we connect with them in love, in compassion, and in the energy of the magnetic master, who is bringing us all together to this moment.

Greetings dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. The channeling is going to be different. And occasionally that's appropriate.

The last few channelings have been about profound things. Spoken about old souls changing human nature itself. We've spoken about the grids of the earth, the time capsules.

We've spoken of many things of the future. But every so often, I need to speak to you personally. This will not be a channel that you're going to want to write down.

Or remember the points of interest. It's for you, old soul. And if I had to title it, and I don't like to, it would be more in the series of the transformation of the old soul.

Things that we have discussed before, we discuss again. We want you to hear it. We want those who are listening outside of this room to hear it.

And it's difficult to know even where to begin. The old soul is the one who is wise. He does not necessarily belong to a belief system.

It just so happens that many are here. Who would call themselves one thing or another. The esoteric thinkers or the new agers.

But there are so many old souls on the planet who are not. And this is for them as well. You've made a decision, dear ones.

So many of you sitting here and listening. And the decision that you made, that we know of, is to step out of the box of organized spiritual thinking. And think for yourselves.

And so in the process, you become a collective of organized thinkers for yourself. This room is a box. And you're in it.

How are you ever going to get out of this mold? And there will be those who say, wait a minute, Kryon. We do not have a doctrine. We don't have rules.

We don't have a prophet we worship. We don't have buildings we report to. We're not like the others.

And you're proud of it, aren't you? Dear ones, that's a doctrine. Did you realize that? Did you realize that? There's got to be a transformation of how you think about yourselves. You have rejected the old linearization of God.

And now you have applied a linearization that is not written down to your personal life. And you don't know it. Now this is for you.

So one sitting in the chairs, for I know who is here. Every so often, we give a channeling for you. Because I know who's here.

I know who is listening right now. And some of the information I'm going to give you, some of you have heard. And some of you have never heard it and need to hear it now.

And some of you have never heard it and need to hear it now. Are you aware of how you've linearized your relationship to God? We've told you that God is conceptual, that God is inside you. We've told you that through the pineal gland, the innate of your body gives messages to you.

We've told you that none of the messages are linear. We've asked you to trust your intuition. And despite all that, you'll sit in the chairs and you'll say to yourself and others, Am I doing it right? What's next? Why am I not getting the results I thought I would get? Why are my goals not being met? What do I have to change in order to create a more spiritual being in myself? Do you see what I'm saying? You're looking for linearity.

You're missing the very thing that you rejected. You long for doctrine to explain you. And you come to the meetings.

You write down the steps so you can go home and be closer to a conceptual God. And you don't even know you're linear. I want you to start to transform your thinking about the relationship inside you.

I have an answer to the human being who says, Am I doing it right? Here's the answer. If you're asking the question, no. You're not doing it right because you haven't understood the concept.

You're intellectualizing, arguing with yourself and ignoring the conceptual part that wants to hug you and tell you you're fine. Crying, I don't really feel very good about myself. That's because you're not doing it right.

That's because a part of you has decided to judge yourself, right? That's linear, you see? Here come the rules again. Some of you need to hear that right now. All of this that I am saying is standing in the way of a healing in this room.

And the irony is that you have come for this healing and you're ready with your pencil and I'm telling you to throw it away. I want you to get conceptual. I want you to understand what the goal is.

Old souls sit in the chairs and they listen to this message. All incredibly different. All ready to hear this message.

It's time for spiritual common sense. A larger plan is here. A plan that has you with spirit, with God.

Every moment of the day. The irony is that is the same goal of the ones in the boxes that are organized. But the old soul has the ability to have the wisdom to step out of the linearity.

What is the goal? The innate in your body is aware of all the Akashic lives you've had. And in that there is an answer. What are you supposed to do? 99% of you are supposed to walk around as whole light.

In a non-linear fashion. Crying it seems like all I do is do errands and take care of the family and then come home and sleep and get up and do errands. Yes.

Congratulations for being an errand light worker. We're in the process of getting up and being and doing every footstep you have when you're in joy and out of frustration enhances the earth. It enhances the earth.

That's your job. It's not linear is it? You can't make a list of it can you? Get out your pencil. Here's what Kryon says.

Can't write it down can you? And you don't like that. Every single one of you has a separate path. Some of you were designed to be healers.

You know who you are. And the one sitting next to you isn't. That's okay.

That does not fit into a structural doctrine. Does it? Some of you were designed so that you're simply gentle people. And in the process of not becoming strange you're attractive to other old souls who may be wandering around wondering who they are or why they're here.

You may find them in business. You may find them in government. And they just want to know you.

And we've said this a hundred times. Don't give them a Kryon book. Give them your attention.

Give them your caring. Look in their eyes and listen to them. Don't solve their problems.

Just be someone who can sit and love them. And they'll love you for that. And they will see God in you.

And that is the goal. Where is your pencil now? Put it down. Every single one of you is different.

And we're asking you to put the linear pencil down. Don't ask a leader how am I doing? What should I do next? Ask the piece inside you which was designed and built to let you know. Transform the way you think about yourself.

Start to understand you're not supposed to necessarily be like your neighbor who may be a healer or an author. Get used to being with people who are not of like mind. Practice being with those who are not of like mind.

And see how you can fit in. Because you have the love of God and the gentleness that they need to see and experience. Do you see where I'm going here? Transform the idea of who you are.

Don't put a label on yourself. You are a spiritual person on this planet who thinks for themselves. But the beauty is that there is a benevolent system.

And that hooks you to all the other human beings who are starting to see this picture. This is what starts to change the grid. The chances are the people you will meet and help are old souls.

And the goal is not to bring them into this room. The goal is to give love to them so they would rethink who they are. And as they rethink who they are they change the grid.

Contagious compassion. And you're the catalyst. That's what you're here for.

Sometimes my partner will be approached by human beings. Anxiety in their faces. Tears in their eyes.

And they'll say, I don't know what I'm doing wrong. I don't know what to do, where to go. And it's everything he can do to stop from hugging them.

I'm pleading with them. Drop the linearity. Don't pay any attention to any other human being and what they think you should be doing.

Find the passion of God in you. Did you know there's a spark of joy in every single human in this room? And it's not linked to anything that's going to happen in the future. It's not hooked to the fact that perhaps you've got a day off soon.

It's self-generating. It's its own joy. And it always wants to be there.

Don't you want to be happy? You can be. You're designed to be. Unless you step on it with linearity.

Free yourself of this doctrine that you have given. I'm talking to you. It's a personal message.

I think you know it is. It is the key to the healing you came for. It is the key to longer life.

It is the key to health. It is all hooked into that system of benevolence. It is starting to work in your biology that lets you know you're doing it right.

Release the systems that are not appropriate for you of judgment. And if you want a system, dear ones, we've got plenty of them. But they don't have symmetry.

They're beautiful. And you can't write them down. A quantum physicist will be able to tell you how this works.

For they live in a system a system of potentials not absolute empirical rules. Take a cue from them. What is your potential as you get up from the chair? What did you come here for? I want you to walk out differently than you came.

And release anything linear that may stand in the way of you seeing the God inside you. Just walking on the planet is why so many of you are here. So go and do it.

And feel the joy and the release that is there for you. A simple message and a difficult one for the old soul. And so it is.

Coba

There will be those listening to this later. And just for reference, we stand in the middle of a Mayan village in the country of Mexico in the Mayan Peninsula. And we are here with permission of the families of the Maya and their ancestors.

For we are here in respect and indeed we see what they have done to hold their traditions when all around them there is not their tradition. There is rain and it may get wetter. And so now those who are listening who are not here have an idea of what we're doing.

There are animals around us and we are all standing up except for just a few who are sitting on a wet rock. We have a short channeling and so let it begin. Greetings dear ones, I am Kryon of Magnetic Service.

We honor the land and the tradition and the permission for the words we are speaking. This is the last message of this event that you have called the Global Consciousness Retreat. And so we bring you one last attribute.

We're talking about turning the page and we're talking about turning the page from an old energy to a new one. The wobble of the earth lasts 26,000 years and the ancients saw this as significant. That at the point that the wobble begins and ends when you look at the sun and measure where it is it points directly to the center of the galaxy.

A great creative source which many call divinity and God. It corresponds with the calendar's end of where I stand and the traditions that are here. And it starts the beginning of a new one.

A new energy is here. The potential of the highest consciousness on the planet and it's appropriate we stand here where the predictions were given. The ancestors saw it coming long before any of the modern belief systems.

I give you the last attribute of the difference between a survival consciousness and one that is not. I give you the last attribute of the difference between a survival consciousness and one that is not. between a survival consciousness and one that is not.

Let us go back in time when the Israelites were walking in the desert. They had been freed from Egypt and they were walking. They walked for 40 years.

They walked for a full generation in a circle. And many wonder why this was as it is. And the answer is one word.

Inbred intolerance. Intolerance that was at the cellular level. Intolerance that was at the cellular level.

It was impossible to bring the consciousness of slaves to the new land. They had seen too much. They had felt too much.

And they had lived generations of slavery under the dominion of the Egyptians. And it was impossible to rewrite that consciousness in a day. A full generation had to expire.

40 years. Before their children could go into the promised land. And we're asking you.

Can you rewrite what you have as intolerance? Can you rewrite what you have as intolerance? As you move into an energy that will not allow it. Can you rewrite the traditions that you've had all your life? And say, I am finished with that. And this is the biggest issue that you will have.

Some will worship the old energy. And never be able to shift. The old soul has the ability to walk into unfamiliar situations and cultures and not judge.

What is before you that is different? And the answer will be everything. Get ready for a shift which will test the very fiber of your consciousness. Get ready to relax everything that you've ever learned is appropriate and proper.

Put it on the shelf. And look around you. And start new tradition.

These are the wise words of today. For some of you will be tested in this manner shortly. You will return to your homes and be tested in the tolerance area.

See God in everyone. No right and no wrong. See God in all things.

And so it is.

GCC-Day 2

Greetings, dear ones, I'm Kryon of Magnetic Service. Saludos, mis queridos, soy Kryon del Servicio Magnético. This is the time when my partner steps aside.

Y este es el momento en que mi socio se coloca a un lado. And as I've mentioned before, Y como lo he mencionado anteriormente, he does not leave. Él no se va.

He stays. Se queda. And what you hear now is the meld between the two of us.

Y lo que escuchas ahora es la fusión entre ellos dos. This system you call channeling Este sistema que llamas canalizar is simply a meld of the human being and their higher self es simplemente una fusión del ser humano y su ser superior in a way that opens communication to the other side of the veil. de una forma que abre la comunicación hacia el otro lado del velo.

We want to talk about the other side. Queremos hablar sobre el otro lado del velo. We've spoken of some of these things before.

Hemos hablado sobre algunas de estas cosas antes. We want to clarify them. Y queremos clarificarlas.

Expand on them. Expandir al respecto. I want you to see the beauty of the system.

Queremos que veas la belleza del sistema. In a way you may not have seen before. De una forma que quizás no lo has visto antes.

I've said this in the past. He dicho esto en el pasado. I know who's here.

Yo sé quien estás. How could I not know who's here? ¿Cómo podría no saberlo? We are allied with the souls of each of you. Estamos en alianza, aliados con el alma de cada uno de ustedes.

In a way we cannot explain. De una forma que no podemos explicar. For it is simply not seeable by you in your consciousness the way we have it.

Pues simplemente no es algo que puedas ver desde la conciencia en la forma que la tienes ahora. It's not that you cannot understand it. No es que no puedas entenderlo.

It is just that it is beyond that conception that you would think was there. Sino que está más allá de esa concepción de lo que crees que está allí. Human beings, very linear.

Seres humanos, muy lineales. And very singular. Y muy singulares.

Again. Nuevamente. We want to paint the picture.

Queremos pintar una foto, una pintura. The human being believes they are complete. El ser humano, los seres humanos creen que están completos.

And yet there is the acknowledgment of mysterious things inside. Pero aún así está el reconocimiento de cosas misteriosas dentro. But you look in the mirror.

Pero te miras al espejo. And you believe you're complete. Y crees que estás completo.

If I told you that perhaps you're not. Y si te dijese que quizás no lo estás. It opens questions for you which are frustrating.

Eso abre preguntas para ti que pueden ser frustrantes. Because you want to be complete. Pues quieres estar completo.

And you believe you are. Y crees que lo estás. If you look yourself in the mirror.

Si te miras en el espejo. You think you're seeing the whole package. Crees que estás viendo el paquete completo.

The body, the mind, the soul. El cuerpo, la mente, el alma. We've told you that there is God inside.

Y te hemos dicho que hay Dios adentro. There is. Y lo hay.

But you believe it is in your corporeal self. Pero crees que está en tu ser corporeo. And you walk around the earth complete.

Y caminas por la tierra completo. You don't. Y no es así.

And you're not. No estás completo. And that is the subject of this channel.

Y ese es el tema de esta canalización. The mystery of the soul. El misterio del alma.

It is far more complex than you think. Es mucho más complejo de lo que crees. Complex but beautiful.

Complejo pero hermoso. And when I am finished. Y cuando termine.

With just the one lesson now. Con solo esta lección de ahora. I think you will begin to see things differently.

Creo que empezará a ver las cosas diferentes. What I'm going to tell you will explain even greater the mystery of synchronicity. Lo que voy a explicarte va a explicar a la vez de una manera mejor el misterio de las sincronicidades.

Those who are singular and logical. Aquellos que son singulares y lógicos. Do not believe in synchronicity.

No creen en las sincronicidades. They call it chance or luck. Lo llaman algo casual o suerte.

Logically. De forma lógica. The planet is aligned with what you would call that which is averages.

El planeta está alineado con aquello que ustedes llamarían lo promedio. And we've discussed this before. Y hemos conversado al respecto antes.

When you compute the averages of things. Cuando calculas los promedios de las cosas. You'll get what is commonly referred to as the bell-shaped curve.

Obtienes lo que comúnmente se llama aquella curva de campana. And in this logic. Y en esta lógica.

There is no way you can change it. No hay forma de que puedas cambiarla. Some of you are average and some of you are not.

Y algunos de ustedes son promedio y algunos de ustedes no lo son. And according to the statisticians who believe in this logic. Y de acuerdo a los que manejan estadística y que creen en esta lógica.

There's no way you can change this. No hay forma que puedas cambiar esto. And we've given this lesson before.

Y hemos entregado esta lección antes. Now we're going to expand it. Pero ahora la vamos a expandir.

In one area. En un área. The human soul.

El alma humana. I'm going to give you information. Les voy a entregar información.

Which I want you to understand because it's logical. Que quiero que entiendan pues es lógica. It is spiritually logical.

Es algo lógico espiritualmente. It will make spiritual common sense. Les va a hacer sentido espiritual.

De un sentido común espiritual. Not just esoteric information that we pour to you. No es solo información esotérica que les soltamos a ustedes.

But something that you can cognize. That is to say it will make sense to you. Sino algo que puede ir a sus niveles cognitivos.

Es decir que les puede hacer sentido. Let's go back in time. Volvamos atrás en el tiempo.

Let us observe the earth. Observemos la tierra. And the consciousness of what you feel your human soul is.

Y la conciencia de lo que tú crees que es tu alma humana. The human soul as seen as a mysterious overlay of human consciousness. El alma humana mirada como una superposición.

And there is no agreement. No hay un acuerdo. About its existence.

Sobre su existencia. Or its attributes. O sobre sus atributos.

But it is seen as a part from the human being. Pero se ve como una parte del ser humano. And somehow it comes together with the corporeal human being for a while.

Y de alguna forma se junta con el ser humano corpóreo por un tiempo. And when the human being departs the earth in death. Y cuando el ser humano parte de la tierra al morir.

It survives that. Sobrevive a eso. And goes somewhere else.

Y se va a alguna parte, alguna otra parte. And even with these attributes there is dissension and argument. Y aún así con estos atributos no hay realmente acuerdo y hay discusión.

There is some spiritual thinking. Hay algún pensamiento espiritual. That believes that you get your soul at the same time you get your corporeal body.

Que dice que obtienes tu alma al mismo tiempo que obtienes tu ser corpóreo. You live a lifetime on the planet. Vives una vida en el planeta.

And the soul then goes somewhere else forever. Y luego de eso el alma va a algún lugar para siempre. So there has to be a beginning.

Entonces debe existir un comienzo, un inicio. Now logically Ahora bien, lógicamente you understand this is linear. De forma lógica comprendes que esto es algo lineal.

For in human being logic everything must have a beginning. Pues en la lógica del ser humano todo debe tener un inicio. The idea of something having no beginning at all is very frustrating to the human mind.

La idea de que algo pueda no tener ningún inicio es algo muy frustrante para la mente humana. Therefore all spiritual thinking por lo tanto todo pensamiento espiritual has the soul coming in with you. Tiene o habla de que el alma viene, llega contigo.

The human body leaves y luego el cuerpo humano se va and the soul continues. Y el alma continúa. Humanity is in agreement.

La humanidad tiene un acuerdo. Those who are spiritual thinkers aquellos que son pensadores espirituales are in agreement that the soul goes forever after death. Tienen el acuerdo de que el alma va para siempre luego de la muerte.

They are not in alignment, however. Pero no están alineados, sin embargo. And whether it has a beginning or not.

Respecto de si tiene un inicio o no. We have told you. Les hemos dicho.

You are forever in both directions. Que ustedes son para siempre en ambas direcciones. We have told you.

Te hemos dicho. That you have one soul that shares many bodies. Que tienes un alma que comparte varios cuerpos.

And each one of them is you. Y cada uno de ellos eres tú. The oldest spiritual systems on the planet agree with this.

Los sistemas espirituales más antiguos del planeta están de acuerdo con esto. You might even say it was original spiritual thought. Puedes incluso decir que era el pensamiento original espiritual.

Until later when it became modernized. Y que luego se modernizó y fue cambiado. So why do I tell you this? Ahora, ¿por qué te estoy diciendo esto? Because in every single case.

Pues en cada lugar, en cada caso. It has the human being capturing his whole essence of his soul. Tenemos al ser humano capturando la esencia completa del alma.

And living with it on the earth. Y después partiendo. Until death.

O continúa con ella en la tierra hasta la muerte. Simple. Very simple.

And incorrect. It can't be that way. No es así.

No puede ser así. Intuitively you know it cannot be that way. Intuitivamente sabes que no puede ser de esa forma.

And we have told you before. Y te hemos dicho antes. Part of you is not here.

Parte de ti no está aquí. Now let's examine that for a moment. Examinemos eso por un momento.

We've given you the example so many times. Te hemos entregado el ejemplo tantas veces. Of the Hebrew master Elijah.

Del maestro hebreo Elías. When he ascended. Cuando ascendió.

And it was done on a schedule that was his. Y fue realizado de acuerdo a un calendario que era propio de él. He got to see something very unique and special.

Logró ver algo que era muy único y especial. When the parts of his soul came together after death. Cuando las partes de su alma se reunieron luego de morir.

De la muerte. It's almost like he exploded in light. Es casi como que explotó en la luz.

Almost as though he dematerialized his body into pure light. Es como que hubiese desmaterializado su cuerpo hacia pura luz. Many metaphors were there.

Muchas metáforas se mencionaron o se dicen allí. Pero ¿qué sucedió? What were you looking at? ¿Qué es lo que estamos viendo? You were looking at the parts of the soul coming together. Lo que vieron allí o lo que se habla allí es las partes del alma que se juntan.

But all the parts belong to Elijah. Pero todas las partes pertenecían a Elías. You see, when you leave the other side of the veil, dear one.

Lo ves cuando dejas el otro lado del velo, mi querida querida. Part of you stays there. Parte de ti se queda allá.

Part of you is imbued into your consciousness and your corporeal DNA. Y parte de ti entra entonces o ingresa a tu conciencia y a tu ADN corporeo. And there's even more complexity that I will not discuss at the moment.

Y hay incluso más complejidad que no discutiré en este momento. I just want you to get the one concept. Quiero que simplemente reciban un concepto.

Part of you is here. Parte de ti está aquí. Part of you is with me.

Y parte de ti está conmigo. Right away. Y ya de una vez.

The human being doesn't like that. Ya el ser humano no le gusta esto. They want to know what the rest of them is doing.

Quieren saber qué es lo que está haciendo el resto de sí mismo. There's a feeling of being out of control. Hay una sensación de estar fuera de control.

Wait a minute, Kryon. You mean part of my soul essence is somewhere else? Momento, Kryon o Kryon. Parte de mi esencia del alma está en algún otro lugar.

Yes, dear one. Sí, así es. And if it were not, Y si no fuese así, you'd be pure light.

Serías entonces luz pura. Tell me you understand that. Realmente, de forma casi segura, entiendes eso.

No human being can carry the full essence of their god self. No ser humano, ningún ser humano puede llevar consigo la esencia completa de su alma. You would vaporize.

Se vaporizaría. Tell me you understand that. Dígame que entienden eso.

This is logical, is it not? Esto es algo lógico, ¿no es así? So right away, there is spiritual logic. Entonces, de una vez, vemos que hay lógica espiritual. Whether you understand it or not.

Ya sea que lo entiendas o no. That has you in two places at once. Que te ubica entonces en dos lugares al mismo tiempo.

Now, we have told you this years ago. Y te hemos dicho esto hace algunos años. Now we begin the questions.

Pero ahora comenzamos con las preguntas. And these questions y estas preguntas all have answers. Todas tienen respuestas.

And I'm going to provide them to you first for thought. Pero te las voy a entregar a ti primero para pensar. You have a certain consciousness.

Tú tienes una cierta conciencia. Which is you on the earth. Que eres tú aquí en la tierra.

You've developed it on your own as an old soul. Y la desarrollaste por ti mismo, ti mismo como un alma antigua. And it is unique to you.

Y es algo único para ti. Every human you meet y cada humano a quien conoces has a different consciousness. Tiene una conciencia diferente.

But let us examine you. Pero permitámonos examinarte a ti. Let me ask you the question.

Permíteme preguntarte. If part of you is on the other side of the veil si parte de ti está del otro lado del velo does it have your consciousness? Tiene entonces tu conciencia. And the answer is no.

Y la respuesta es no. Your consciousness tu conciencia is that which is determined by earth action. Es aquella que es determinada a partir de acción en la tierra.

Akashic remembrance. Recuerdo Akashico. Grid activity.

Actividad de la rejilla. Akashic inheritance. El heredar de lo Akashico.

And all earth based attributes. Y todos los atributos basados o con relación a la tierra. Your consciousness is part of the test that you are in.

Es parte de la prueba en la que estás. But what about the other part of your soul? Pero que hay respecto de esa otra parte de tu alma? It's not participating in the earth test, is it? No está participando en esta prueba o ejercicio de la tierra. No es así.

What is it doing? ¿Qué es lo que está haciendo? The first thing it does is keep you connected to God. There is a beautiful silver tether between you. When we say you have a piece of God inside, how would you define God? God is the ultimate collective.

El colectivo completo o final. The oneness of the souls in the universe. Which when they're together are not singular.

They are part of the creative source of the universe. Pure love. Beauty.

You're part of that. When you're not here, you're part of that. There are so many simple belief systems that never align the soul with God.

In fact, when you're gone and in death, that beautiful soul that you have, according to some systems, stays separate, is judged, sometimes punished, sometimes trapped. I want you to use some spiritual common sense right now. Does that sound like a good system to you? Does that sound like it's accurate to you? I want you to use spiritual common sense.

The piece of God in you is the rest of your soul, which is together with the creative source you call God. When you leave this planet in corporeal death, you are instantly with all things. There is no hierarchy of judgment.

All of the things that humans have made up, so it sounds like human things. Personalities you might meet and judgments you might have. We've said it before.

Do not humanize God. So what's the rest of your soul doing right now? I want you to picture it as that which is all-knowing with the consciousness of the Creator. This is important for this lesson.

Everything you're learning right now is how to get in touch with the rest of you. What you consider learning about the template in you may or may not be Pleiadian. Depending upon your belief system, it's still a piece of the soul on the other side.

If a Pleiadian could come right now and stand and speak to you, there would be an elegant discussion complete with quantum physics about how much of that higher self that you can absorb into your body and still live. How much of that higher self can you absorb into your body and still live? This is so complex. What's the percentage of the soul you have compared to the one upstairs? Oh, we've told you before.

Just about 30%. That's what you're walking around with right now. It is why in sacred numerology 33 is the highest known master number with a definition.

You have to absorb more of that which is the sacred soul of you which then begins to activate DNA in a higher percentage for you ever to get to a place that is more sacred than now. It will change humanity. What it wants, what it thinks about.

How it works. Intuitively you will receive the next master number which will be 44. And although the meaning of that is not yet established, I can tell you what it's going to be about.

Co-creation and structure with Gaia. Every master number definition from 44 to 99 will represent evolving humanity spiritually. Back to the question.

What's the rest of you doing right now? We have established it has the mind of God and not of you. But it has another name. Your higher self.

I've just defined it. The rest of you. The soul that is not in your body, that is you.

100% you. But that is split from you is your higher self. And what is its consciousness? It's not your consciousness.

It's the consciousness of God. Now where am I going with this and why am I telling you this? I'm about to explain how synchronicity works, dear ones, and I want you to listen. Because it may affect what you do next.

If you can understand these complex things, you're going to smile. And go, oh! Now I understand how that I can change the bell-shaped curve. And how I can go places and do things outside of being average.

Let's pretend for a moment that you know a human being I want to paint this picture correctly. It is not of high consciousness. Let us say for a moment the human being is incarcerated in jail.

Let us say for a moment that that human being is very low consciousness. Let us say that that human being perhaps has hurt people. Maybe that human being doesn't even care that they hurt.

Now you know a lot about the consciousness of that human. Now here come the questions. What is the consciousness of that human being's higher self? It's just like yours.

Are you aware of that? The human being in jail may have no connection to the higher self because they're not interested. There's no intent to find out. But does the higher self of that individual still exist? Yes, it does.

And let me ask you this question. Since it's on the other side of the veil with yours, and since everything on the other side of the veil is allied as one, does the higher self of the murderer know your higher self? Sure does. Now, where am I going with this? What if I told you that there were trillions and trillions of souls all who know you on the other side of the veil, and when you walk from one place to another with the intent to do something compassionate, with evolved thinking, that it doesn't matter at all what the lower consciousness of humanity is thinking, all of their higher selves are rooting for you. Think of this. I want you to think of this.

This is how synchronicity works. You think you're alone, walking to work, and when you arrive at work, you're presented with a lot of low energy. People who don't care about God, who are not high thinkers, don't care about their spirituality, and you're alone.

There you sit in the dark alone, surrounded perhaps by dozens of human beings who could care less about a compassion choir. Now, stop for a minute. Stop.

You're only seeing a part of them, 30%. Are you getting this picture? All of the rest of them are with your higher self, knowing exactly where you are, and they're going, we know you. Keep going.

Keep trying. Show the light. Do you understand what I'm saying? It doesn't matter where you walk.

The other humans that you're coming in contact with have a part of them that wants you to be there. Do you understand the magnitude of help you have? They want to be allied with that human that they belong to. They want that light to shine and have that other human being start to look for God in them.

Do you have any idea what it would be like to have a soul split? You say goodbye to all that is on the other side of the veil that is you. You come into the planet blind to the fact that part of you is on the other side of the veil, and you're lonely. You're lonely.

And all the people walking around without this knowledge, they're lonely. There's always a longing, always such a longing to connect. It's a love connection.

It's a love connection. That's how you fall in love with yourself. You know that? There are those in this room and are listening to this who've done this.

It's the most important thing in their life. You've found your core. You've fallen in love with the connection between you and your higher self.

There's nothing like it. You have joy because you're together. Oh, you don't have any more than 33 percent perhaps.

But the connection is seen. It's all you need. The hand that comes from your other side to you and says, we may not be with you a hundred percent, but you can hold our hand through life.

And the ones that do not have that, can you understand their frustration? Can you look in their eyes and understand why they're lonely? The old soul that you are gives you the wisdom to know these things. It doesn't make you better than they are. It just means you're more informed.

The catalyst for other human beings to want to know more about this is when they see it in you. You're connected and they're not. And they can be.

That is going to be the secret of peace on earth where there are enough connections made to change the overall consciousness of the planet. So I don't want to close this meeting without you understanding the concept. Let's say you go to work now Let's say you're surrounded by low energy but you're starting to think quantumly and as you look at every single human being you know that there's more than 60% of them who are cheering for you to be there.

They're on your side and that helps you move mountains create synchronicities that they could never create. Imagine the higher self army that you have ready to fight the old energy on this planet less than one half of one percent of this planet is connected and that's all that's going to be needed. When they see your connection dear ones they're going to want what you have.

They're not going to want your religion or your belief system. They're not going to want to know about ETs or Kryon. They're going to want to know how you do it.

How can you wake up joyful in the morning? What's the connection about? They're tired of being alone. That's your challenge. That's your challenge.

I hope this has not been too complex. I don't think it has been. I want you to greet that part of you which is celebrating right now.

I want you to visualize somebody that gives you a hard time. I want you to hold their vision right now just for a moment. And now I want you to smile because they're not all there.

The rest of them is cheering for you and begging you to be tolerant and see the reality of what's there. And so it is.
