

GROUP ONE KRYON ONLY (F)

Greetings dear ones, I am Kryon of Magnetic Service. Nahui hui o makalihi. You are here, and you've always been.

But the key is about to be turned in the lock. And the crystalline is about to be activated in the way that you have expected and the potentials realized. And it has not been an easy journey.

But it is complete. And in these moments where I can speak in this way, I wish to tell you what has accomplished, what you've done, who is here, about the tones. But first, I wish to talk to Yahí.

Yahí, come sit down, let's have a chat. Before me is the manifestation of a system. It's the Akashic system.

One that drips with love, with purpose, and with energy. That such a thing could take place where the priest that had the responsibility of the sounds, given by those who have names you cannot pronounce, who begin to flood into this room with the ancestors of the land, could actually take place in this fashion. A system of divine guidance and free choice.

And here sits the man, who was also a man back then, who was responsible for remembering in his Akash, not just the tones, but the combinations of the communication, the talks to the key. I'm going to explain that in just a bit. Yahí, congratulations.

Congratulations for duplicating the 24 of 36. Do not fret, my good friend, because I will tell you that the other 12 will not be presented for another 26,000 years. You have time, sir.

And so as he stands in a moment, against all odds, in a three-dimensional construct of those who may be watching or listening, it comes to fruition, a full cycle. The cycles are well known. The precession of the equinoxes, the end of the long count.

There is more here than you think. In the Western world, in the cultures that you've grown up with, the prophecies have been of doom. For they have not understood what the ancients knew.

You deal with mythology, which is only a few thousand years old, not understanding that underneath that, there is the truth. And the truth has been known by the ancients, by the ancestors, by all of those who came years and years ago. And you can see it on the walls etched in their pyramids, in the parchments, who said this is the potential of a beginning.

A beginning so profound that it will mark the difference between ages on earth. And this is the day of celebration in this time zone. Let's proceed.

And so the information continues. And during this day, I will present to you some of the answers to questions that have never been given. For when you talk about quantum energies, you deal in a consciousness that you are not used to.

The idea that the sounds, the tones, and the movement would be anything special is beyond the reach of most minds. And even those who are here are taking for granted something that has been told of them. And yet some of you are beginning to feel it.

Some of you began to feel it in the rehearsals. You may not know what you're feeling. Could it be that certain frequencies, motions, noises to you, when put together in a certain fashion and sung against each other, would create a third energy? And that is what you're doing.

And here's what I would like to tell you that has not yet been discussed. The series of twelve combinations that you are doing now have only been given once on the planet. Only once.

In this place called Lemuria. We're going to tell you more about Lemuria, which was called Lemuriha back then. We're going to tell you where you sit, who is listening, who is here in a moment, and what you're actually doing.

But I want to talk about the tones. For the base of the twenty-four tones are simply the elements of a mathematical formula. And this formula actually corresponds to the way DNA interacts with itself.

And the good doctor will discover that later. There is a correlation of what he's doing beyond the sounds. But here's what you need to know.

Two things today. And the first is this. The completion of this group would appear to be the completion of all twelve pairs.

It is only the completion in 3D. For the group that comes in with the intent to be here, on this place, must finish theirs as well, for the key to be turned in the lock. I'm going to discuss the key as well, something we have never told you before, of what the tones are really doing.

When you put the tones together in different ways, they communicate differently. The twenty-four tones are the mathematical elements of multi-formula. The formula for today is the one that would be given, that you know about, a quantum signal which I'm going to tell you about shortly.

And it's specific to today. It is specific to the timing of the solstice and the precession of the equinoxes. But here's what I want to tell you.

When you take the tones and put them together in different ways, both backwards and forwards, that Ya'i knows and is sensing, you change the communication, where it goes and what it says. This particular communication speaks to a multi-dimensional source that is listening. And what bleeds over from it talks to the cetaceans, and that is why you see the excitement in the oceans.

But you should also know there's a set of tones yet undeveloped for them, where you would get together in a place and sing an entire different set that will talk only to them at a time and in place to be decided. There are tones you can sing to make you warm. How is it that some of you sat in this room, which is temperature-controlled, fanning yourself a few days ago? Were you aware of what was taking place, of the temperature that would increase, not necessarily in the room, but within you? There are tones to charge batteries.

Doctor discovered that. It's endless. There are tones that talk to Gaia.

This is only one set of many. And so you are opening the door of the kind of communication that we have never discussed before. It is specific to energies that perhaps you've only started understanding that are there.

The Earth knows who you are today, Gaia especially, and I'm going to talk about that very soon. Very soon. And the message continues.

I'm going to wait for the fourth period of information before I give you the structure of what you're totally doing. I wait for the fourth, for it is the numerological equivalent of structure. It is the Gaia number.

That is why I wait. So let us speak now for your information, if you have not heard it before, dear ones, of Gaia, but specifically of the mountain called Lemuria or Lemuria. For this, you are sitting on, used to be the largest mountain on the planet.

The choir was not performed here, but close to here. In those days, the mountain and the peak of this mountain was approximately, in your language, 30,000 feet. The bubble beneath the hot spot that is volcanic pushed up the mountain and this is something that geologically is unprovable.

There still will be signs that it was possible and there is protocol for those signs have been seen in other hot spots on the planet. If you had held the meeting on the top of the mountain, you would not be able to breathe. But at 20,000 feet, it was bearable.

You actually held this particular ceremony in what back then was called the saddle. Today, it is the space between the two peaks of Maui. Approximately 20,000 feet back then, it was cold.

It was very cold. And you were always cold when you gave this particular meeting. No matter what tones were sung, some of you at sea level would roll your eyes and think to yourself, it's going to be cold.

And it was. What do you think Lemurians used as coats? For there were no animals here. And so you had the choice of plants and human hair.

And human hair was the best. For it was natural. And you could weave it very tightly in many, many layers.

And it explains to you why to this day Polynesians have the best hair. You were always cold. But you did it anyway.

And you did it in a time of year just about now. For the same reasons were given you by the priestess. For the celebration that the Hawaiians have of creation, of harvest, of the creator, is still here.

For the earth turns the same way it did then, dear ones. And the seasons were the same then as they are now. And isn't it interesting that no matter what the mountain did later as it subsided and these became islands, that the traditions remained and the ancestors kept them fresh.

And this is where the ancestors have the secrets. And you can turn to them. For they've kept everything fresh.

And if you want to know the truth of the planet, you will ask the ancestors in every single culture. And if you want to know the truth of the planet today, you will ask yourself, why is it that the tribes are coming together the way they are and celebrating a meld? Why is it that the Puma is awakening and that the North and the South are starting to see each other differently?

And I will tell you something, dear ones, all of this has been waiting for the key to be turned, which I'll tell you about shortly. And so the information that follows is difficult.

It's not that it's complex. It's simply the first time it's been given in this fashion. And to set the stage, I will review something that has been given you in the last weeks.

My partner took me to some of the most profound energies in the Southern Hemisphere, where the Earth is recalibrating itself and the Eagle is meeting the Condor, where compassion is starting to be seen as a catalyst, changing that which is called the crystalline grid. A channel given there gave you the accurate, historic way that creation was given to humanity. The years were blocked out and given you and how long it took and when it began.

And when it began, was with the Pleiadians. And when they came, the first thing they did was to set the crystalline grid. For the grid which is crystalline belongs to them.

It was placed upon the Gaia grid. It is then the creation grid, if you wish. An esoteric grid that then responds to human consciousness and goes both ways.

It receives and it gives. Part of what is going on now is the recalibration of the crystalline with human consciousness. Now I give you all of these things to tell you what else it does.

What do you know about crystals? One of the only geologic substances that can retain a vibration. One of the only geological substances that can be programmed to retain and have memory. And so the crystalline grid is really two things.

An esoteric grid that works with vibration of human consciousness both in retaining and transmitting back to the human DNA. But it talks to Gaia. And the Gaia part it talks to is anything crystalline in the Earth's crust.

If you talk to a geologist about how much crystalline there would be in the Earth's crust, you would be amazed. And so there is a retention of frequency between the quantum grid which is crystalline and the Earth crystalline grid which is the dirt of the Earth. And in that you thought there was a consciousness engine.

One that is responsible for portals and vortices, for nulls, but it's more. For in the building of the crystalline grid, the Pleiadians built a lens. And the lens is something that will focus.

And it will focus that which is appropriate, a signal. And send it to the center of the galaxy. 26,000 years ago, you put that in place, dear ones, when you sang the tones.

You created what we will call the lock. It locked in place this particular grid and the lens it represents. It is not a rusty lock.

It is a lock that responds and is ready should you have arrived at the time and place at the end of the precession of the equinoxes. When you would turn the key with compassion and lubricate it with the love of the ancestors and come to a place where through the tones being sung again, the key then starts to turn the lock and the crystalline grid and the lens starts to focus itself to the center of the galaxy which intersects your sun. And at that point in time, the tones unlock the key and the grid starts to change.

And it is the grid and the lens that sends the signal based upon the tones you sang to it. Now you know the mechanics. And the next thing to tell you is who is listening.

And so as the lens is activated and the crystalline sends a signal pointed literally at the orbit of your sun into the center of the galaxy. As you have been told, an esoteric thing happens. And then after that I'm going to tell you a super esoteric thing.

The signal that arrives in the center of the galaxy is received by an engine of which you know nothing. In three dimensions and with the limited laws of physics you have, it appears that there is a singularity there which by the way is impossible in 3D physics. You call it a black hole.

A place that literally has its own lens for it bends light and it bends time. It ought to give you a hint that there's something going on there. It is beyond your physics.

We have discussed 23 years ago that really there is a set of energies, a push-pull energy that sets the stage for what you would call an entangled galaxy. All of the stars in your galaxy, unlike your solar system, travel at the same identical speed around the center. This is impossible with Newtonian physics.

It ought to tell you something is happening. All of the stars of your galaxy are therefore entangled with the middle. The middle therefore is the center.

And the middle of your galaxy becomes more than just an anomaly of physics. It is the engine of communication. In an instant fashion the entire galaxy and all intelligent life that has the ability knows that the planet Earth has gotten to a point where compassion counts.

Got to a point where the barbaric notions of war and differences between human beings is starting to shift and recalibrate itself. Getting to a point where so many civilizations also got to.

And so the signal that is sent at the end of this day with the second set repeating what you just did is that it's received and was expected.

And that is esoteric. Unbelievable to many. And yet the ancients told that something like this was possible.

The end of the long count of the Maya set a beginning of another calendar. You tear the old one off the wall. It's no longer appropriate.

It's no longer good. And you put a new one up. One that is different.

It's a different color, it's a different attitude, a different consciousness. But what I want to tell you is what you need to hear. If these things are multidimensional, they are then quantum.

What happens to the Earth? Not just the lens that sends to the others, but what about you? And that is what you're not seeing and you don't recognize that is so profound. I told you 23 years ago there's something called the cave of creation. And it is in the Earth and must be in the Earth.

And it is crystalline. That should tell you something. It is aligned with the crystalline grid.

And it contains all of humanity's souls. The ones that will come, the ones that have come. Lemurian and not Lemurian.

And they are now touched as the key is unlocked. They know it as well as the center. And what is exactly in that cave of creation? I will tell you, it's your ancestors.

And who are your direct ancestors, dear ones, as you sit in the room? How many of you have had parents who are no longer here? Well, I want to tell you something. That as you sing these tones, they're aware. And although they may not have given you what you needed during life in the appreciation of what you believe, they are now.

And they're aware. And their parents are aware. And all of the souls to come and that have been that are part of what you would call the Akash of the Earth are being recalibrated and they all know.

And that's why you're here. And yes, there's going to be more in the next channels to come. This day.

But perhaps that's the most profound thing you should know. You're not just sending a signal to those perhaps you'll never meet. You've just sent a signal to the ones you've loved and lost.

I know you very well. Very well. We've spoken of it before.

The Pleiadians are not far away. Part of the system of the planet, the very essence of creation is that they would remain here. The ones who started.

In an esoteric way, some have said they live in the mountains of the Earth. Some say they even have cities that have names there. All of these things out of three-dimensional perception.

Some of them are in the South and some in the North. Of the names that some of you would know, the Elkie Valley, Shasta. And they're there.

And they didn't need a lens to know what's going on. But they're here. And the key begins to turn in the lock.

And they're feeling it now. And these are the ones who are rejoicing first. They carry the essence of your DNA.

And these are the places which will be activated to new levels. First. And so these are the ones you're getting the message now from first.

And the main message is, thank you. Beyond that. For it is a release for them as well.

And in a multidimensional state, you have released them. To complement the recalibration of the grid that they built. None of these things happen quickly, dear ones.

But in those moments of silence, there were so many messages in the room. And some were from the Pleiadians and some were more personal. Fourteen of you here have lost children.

Did you hear them? If you thought of your imagination, it was not. Others heard from your sisters and your brothers who are not here. Thank you.

Thank you. A few months ago, I described and I will yet again. The timing of this event.

For you is one day. For astronomers, it is 36 years. And 18 years ago, the seeds were planted.

For the potential of today. The precession of the equinoxes entered the 36-year window, which you call the dark rift, as the alignment moves across the sky through that which is the stripe of the Milky Way. You are in the center of this 36-year cycle, and there are 18 more years to go.

Consciousness moves slowly. But there are those points that push it. And the compassionate events which have taken place on this planet in those last 18 years have pushed it.

And this is a compassionate event. The key begins to turn. And in that, I tell you, dear ones, that as light is released on the planet, the darkness is going to fight you.

Months ago, we told you to expect yet another small war in the closing months of 2012, and it occurred. We told you to watch for unbalance and do not be distraught when things will break your heart. And it did last week.

And all of these things, I will tell you, when you see them, find a place inside you that says, thank you, that we're winning. For this is the unbalance and the dark flailing against a consciousness that you are creating, have created, and are recalibrating for this planet. It's more than sending a message that you've arrived.

For in the process of the message for yourselves, you're saying we understand we're in a battle. But the battle just turned. And yes, there will be unbalance.

And yes, the wars will still be there for a while. And so let us take a moment to welcome to the room the lives that have been lost just in a few weeks. And they can look at you and say thank you as well.

This is more important than you think. It has to start with you before it means anything to the central sun. You have to have a healing in the hearts in the room before it means anything to a Pleiadian in the seventh sister.

You're planting the seeds 18 more years where the energy is ready for the planting. And you're doing a good job. I'll be back for more.

And so it is.

GROUP TWO KRYON ONLY (F)

Nā hui hui 'ō Makaliki. Greetings dear ones, I am Kryon of Magnetic Service. I speak the name of the consciousness spiritual creator of the planet.

Well, this is the day that you celebrate them, you acknowledge them, that you go beyond the traditions of the West. You go beyond the traditions even of the North and the South that are only several thousand years old. And you acknowledge and cling to the wisdom of the ancestors whose prophecies are grand and great and talk about this day, the 26,000 year procession of the equinoxes and the potentials.

And here you are. And we have told those who came before in this room less than two hours ago that although they sang the twelve, it is not until you also sing the twelve that the message is sent. And we will review with you shortly a little bit about the key that is being turned and the puzzle that is being solved with the energy of the planet that allows the connection to take place.

And here you are to turn the key in this lock that has been called the crystalline grid of the planet. It is about ready to send a message to the center of the galaxy and you'll feel it moving and turning as you sing, Ya-Yi, I want you again in the chair. Here we go again.

I said before and I say it again, you're looking at the result of a process of a system of love with free will where a human soul who is an old soul can find his way through 26,000 years of lifetimes to arrive at a place and remember why he's here. It is a system that works for all of you, old soul. For the series of six channelings will be now about the old souls in the room whereas the last ones were about the ones you sent the messages to.

And I want Ya-Yi to hear this, the 24 that you have put together and remembered accurately, dear one, respected, seen, admired, shockingly accurate. We gave you the news before that these 24 tones are part of mathematics, that they can be put together in almost any arrangement to create a third energy of communication. In this particular case the grandest communication of them all, the communication to the center of the galaxy awakening those who are the creators that say you've made it.

But when you take and put together these tones in different ways, they can send different messages to life on the planet, to Gaia itself, some of them are healing. And so the challenge is this, do not stop now. Put them together in ways that will talk perhaps to the cetaceans of the earth.

Put them together so that they can talk to the quantum life of the earth. Hold ceremonies when you feel they're appropriate in the places that are appropriate. Where you can continue the work for the planet using these tools that you have developed as the priest that you are having walked this land in the past.

And that is the message for you. But there is one thing we want you to know. Your science is going to increase.

You have accomplished the task which is esoteric. Now watch the science come up to it. For you have things this planet will recognize, Ya'i.

And it's going to happen very soon. And you will see. Let us speak more of the tones.

There are those who would hear these perhaps for the first time. And they would think they were just silly tones. Noises that don't make any sense, sung together by a thousand people who don't know any better.

Believe me dear ones, it will be those. Who will hear this and not understand. And there is nothing that you can do to show them the compassion that has brought you all soul to this place.

Identical twins have something in common. They are the only ones on the planet that have identical DNA. And they are also the ones who have discovered something very, very unusual.

That when one of them is in trouble, the other one senses it. And it doesn't matter where they are. And they can be in opposite ends of the planet.

And have communications because of this anomaly. How would you explain this particular thing in what you would call your three-dimensional physics? And the answer is, you cannot. For the missing pieces must be multidimensional and that is what you study now.

The things that you are doing here that sound like silly tones in a three-dimensional world are profound and a multidimensional attribute. How do you explain love? Human beings in love with one another, feeling what they feel long distances away. Knowing one is asleep and one is awake.

The heart connection is like no other. It is multidimensional and every single human on the earth knows that. And so you have all sensed that which is out of 3D.

And that is what you are doing here today. Combining these things in a multidimensional way that have never been combined before except 20,000, 26,000 years ago. When as we mentioned last time they were indeed combined in this way and solidified something on the crystalline grid, a potential, a lock.

An energy that literally created a puzzle which could only be undone by the same tones when the earth lined up with the center of the galaxy. And it sounds odd. Now if you were to really do this correctly, you'd have had 12 choirs.

Of 400 each. All sing it together and it would have lasted approximately 10 minutes. And that would have been it.

And that would have been the closest thing to a quantum experience. For instead you have had to put them in a linear order, in a linear fashion and do it twice because of the numbers in the room. That is linearity.

But you do the best you can with what you have. Now there's one other thing I can tell you. You have named every single pair.

You have 12 eloquent statements and you said each one of them three times. Here's what I would like you to do. I would like you to take all 12 statements, work them into a paragraph so they read well.

And when the paragraph is read, I want you to know what you have. And it will be obvious because you haven't done that. You can put quotes around it.

For it will be the multidimensional message that defines ascension status of Earth. To the last set of old souls, we discussed a phenomenon. We reminded them that the Pleiadians are here and always have been.

We reminded them that the core group has remained on the planet in a multidimensional state. We have told you that some of the profundities of energy on the mountaintops around the world is where they are. And let me tell you they are stirring now.

For even before the message in its entirety goes to the lens of the crystalline grid and is sent into the center of your galaxy, even before the ones on the planet know it. These are the ones who are now realizing that the key is being turned. And it was always prophesied that this could be.

That the Mayans in their fractal time computations said it would happen now. And that is what is taking place. But I would like to examine just for a moment what this means to you, old soul.

For you are facilitating it. We talk about Lemuria, Lemuriha. We talk about you.

If it is true that Ya'i could remember the tones in a shockingly accurate way. Let me ask you. How does it feel here? How does it feel here? I'll tell you something shockingly accurate.

That your intuition is right. This is your home. The mountain of Hawaii.

And there are some of you who will deny it. But it is so. There are some of you who say, well I can't take the heat.

Well you didn't look like you look now. And your cellular structure was much different then. You didn't mind climbing mountains.

To a height of 20,000 feet. And performing this particular ritual. Old soul, every single one of you in the room is Lemurian.

What are the odds that you would then be also the same gender? And I will tell you it's not about odds. It's about what you contracted before you got here. On the other side of the veil this time.

Knowing that this particular thing could happen. And that you would be part of it. It's about being the same gender so you had the same beautiful countenance.

And you could remember who you were. That you could remember that you walked this particular part of the earth. When you were the core of humanity.

And when you could remember that you have Pleiadian DNA. And all of this adds up to an energy that could not be created otherwise. Old soul, less than one half of one percent of the earth is like you.

Who was here at the beginning. And can claim that you were part of the originals. The ones who knew the names that could not be pronounced.

Who walked with them, among them and recognized them. As the creators with you. The ones who taught you about spirit.

Who gave you the compassion of God. That is the old soul here today. And that is why this group had to complete the twelve with the other group.

For then the compassion of the two of you puts the puzzle together. Only Lemurians could do this. And that is the truth this day.

When you go outside of the room. And you look at the ocean. I want you to remember.

This is where you came from. This is home. This is about you.

The room is filled. With those you cannot see. And as we told the group.

Before. The ancestors are here. Those you have loved and lost are here.

And we know who you are. There are no mysteries in the room. To spirit.

But the fact that the old souls have come together. To build this bridge. That literally will join a federation.

Of enlightened civilizations of the galaxy. Is profound. But we know who is here.

And here you sit. In a place that you have planned for months to be in. If not longer.

Wearing the color of the tones that you chose to sing. Bringing this bridge to life. But what about you? How many of you were aware.

That in the tonalities there is healing. That by yourself at home. Perhaps you were rehearsing.

And you felt different. That some of you realize this. Profundity of what you are about to do.

Had another factor to it. That when you sang them alone you felt better. And so I bring up this dear ones.

You can't have a multi-dimensional attribute. Or a message to the galaxy without feeling it yourself. For the very cells of your body.

Begin to react when they feel and hear and recognize. The Akashic remembrance. Old soul of who you were.

Of what you've been through. Of what you've done. An awakening of your own Akashic federation.

Of unity. There is healing in these tones. The alignment of the precession of the equinoxes.

Has an interesting attribute all by itself. In that the last 18 years. And the first 18 of the next alignment.

Form a 36 year window of opportunity. For seeds to be planted. But one of the attributes that you will notice.

That we have talked about now for some years. In the new energy. Is that the end of the old times.

The great strife. That a new consciousness. Is not allowed to simply present itself gently.

Instead the old consciousness. Of the darkness. Wants to pull against it.

Countries that have been stable. For centuries fall apart. Unbalanced gunmen shoot children.

Systems that used to work for a very long time. Things you thought were set. Fly apart.

And this dear one is the attribute. Of today. I know who's here.

And so I'm going to simply say this. I don't want this lost on you. You can't sit in a room like this.

And pretend you're sending a signal somewhere else. Because it goes into you first. It comes out of you first.

It's generated within your consciousness. And your cellular structure. You can't swell up and sing these things.

Without them resounding. Through your own body. So let the healing begin.

I know who's here. Let it begin with you in you. Walk from this place different.

Because of it. You're sending a signal to the galaxy. There was a statement in the last two days.

And the statement asked this. Are you going to stream this message? And you said no. Now that's funny.

The final transmission is complete. And you cannot undo what you've done. There is no delete key.

Whisper it. And that's a good thing. Let it be known this day.

That what you have come to do. Has been accomplished. The things from here forward.

Will move slower than you want. But this is typical with anything that is planted. The farmer knows.

But the farmer also knows how to plant. The seeds of high consciousness of love and compassion. Have fallen.

On ground. It was not ready. For so many years.

And as you grew up. The old soul in you. That wanted so much more than this earth.

Was willing to give. Disappointed you over and over and over. Some of you were so convinced it could be different.

That you left your families behind. In search of a compassionate lifestyle. A more loving earth.

Perhaps something you could do. That you've never done before. And here you are doing it.

The seed that you have planted this day. Falls upon ground that is ready. For the lens is broadcasting your intent.

Let me tell you dear ones. The seed that you have planted. Of compassion and love.

Fall right into the place. Where they can be watered efficiently. But it's now up to you to water them.

And you know what I mean. For when you leave this place. Do not change your countenance.

Do not see the job done. See the seed planted. I know who's here.

There's so many interesting things I can tell you. There are synchronicities abounding in the room. Of perhaps who has not met whom who should.

Who comes from the other side of the planet. On purpose to meet somebody here. That the answers to problems are here.

The beginning of healing is here. Do you know the synchronicities of those who stand on the platform? What about the song masters? You realize they were song masters then too? They know it. Or if they don't they will.

Isn't it interesting? They did it at 20,000 feet. In Lemuria. That means they were cold.

But they got used to it. And they come into this planet today. Both from cold countries.

Hmm. Look at Yai. He was born in a cold state.

On the mainland. There are many. Many synchronicities.

Look at my partner. We told you who he was in Lemuria last time we were here. He was simply a messenger.

And he still is. He didn't have to work in the temple. He didn't even like the temple.

It was too cold. And then there is the teacher Peggy who is here. She worked in the temple.

Alani He is your name dear. You had the most beautiful bronze skin and black hair. Today you are obviously here in disguise.

I just want to tell you you are family. You are all family. You can hug each other freely knowing you are family.

That there is a lineage in the room that represents the civilization of the planet. The ones that are here. The ones that were here a few hours ago will combine in a moment.

I want you to rejoice and sing. That the key in the lock has been turned. Thank you.

This is my twelfth communication. Some of you received a message. Messages come in many layers and forms.

A message has been sent to you. From the center of the galaxy. And I will tell you what it is in just a moment.

And that's for all of you. Private messages have been sent. Messages that say it's going to be okay.

Messages that said I love you mom. And you know that's for. Messages from Gaia that said it's about time.

I have a private message that I wish to deliver. It's from the ancestors of this land. It's private so not all of you will understand.

But the ones who need to will. It's a gray haired man. Standing in the back.

His shirt is not red or yellow. It's both. It's a beautiful.

Wooden cane. Typically he's wearing shorts. And he's been standing there for years.

And here's the message to you Makua. From the ancestors of this land. My dear soul it's okay to leave the mountain.

Kali has it covered. But the message for you today. That comes from the center of the galaxy is one.

That I have told you before would come. Profound it is. It says it's time to say goodbye.

Not to each other. Not to family. But to an old energy on this planet.

That has been with you and your ancestors from the beginning. It's time to say goodbye. To a civilization that would war with each other.

That you call human nature. It's time to say goodbye to inappropriate behavior. Of unbalanced.

Human beings. Against those who are helpless. It's time to say goodbye.

To a consciousness that would not support love and compassion. It's time to say goodbye to a macho heavy earth. That's what it started in this room.

Message received. Message received. And so it is.
