Suburban Born. City Inspired.

Street Slice Pizza Cafe was born in the Suburban Village of Huntley, IL, with an idea that will change the pizza scene in the Northwest Suburbs forever....

Out here in the suburbs, you will find at almost every turn your typical, bar/tavern pizzeria serving Chicago-Style pizza.

Where you have to sit down and be waited on in a traditional atmosphere with segregated tables, high booths, and a hidden kitchen.

Where your only interactions are with the host/hostess, the people you are dining with and the waiter/waitress that is serving your table.

Where only if you are lucky, you will get to see or sometimes even meet the owner(s).

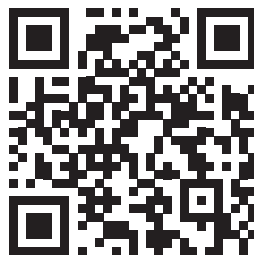

Here at Street Slice Pizza Cafe, our "heart of the city-like" atmosphere, New York inspired pizza, counter-service setting & open-kitchen design makes every guest that walks through our doors invited into our "One City, One Family" culture and a part of the communal, togetherness & family experience we desire to provide.
