The Freeman Academy board of directors is pleased to announce Dr. Brad Anderson as our next Head of School. The board-appointed search committee undertook their work last December and reviewed several well-qualified applicants. Dr. Anderson emerged as the unanimous choice of the search committee. The board of directors discussed and concurred with the search committee's recommendation. The search committee and board were particularly impressed with Brad's commitment to Anabaptist Christian education, his passion and vision for the school, and his desire to nurture and further cultivate relationships between the school and the broader community. Dr. Anderson, no stranger to the community, previously served as Academic Dean and has been a member of Freeman Academy's teaching faculty for the past five years. He will assume Head of School duties on July 1, 2022.

The Freeman Academy Auxiliary is truly amazed at the overwhelming support of the Schmeck Stop food sales the last two Saturdays. This event would not have taken place without the generous donations from our local bakers and the volunteers at work days. Preparing all the baked goods, sausage and meal items is no small task. We are so grateful to all of you for committing your time and energy to make food and assist with sales for the event.

Thank you to all the shoppers who bought food and made additional monetary donations to Schmeckfest and Freeman Academy. As we explore the options for Schmeckfest 2023, we want to assure you that efforts to bring back a "traditional" event are in the works.

Dear Fellow believers,

When we came to the church on Tuesday evening to pray, we saw two ends of a magnificent wide rainbow, one in the northeast and the other end in the southeast. In between were the dark clouds of a rain squall that had just blown through. For me, these rainbow fragments together with the clouds was God's voice speaking to the long list of requests we had. Our list was full of the departures of loved ones, of folks suffering disease, of the pain of the world, of our own struggles to cope. The next morning, my sister in Goshen sent me a picture of the rainbow that appeared that same night in her neighborhood. I am including it here to remind us, as it did Noah long ago, of God's love.

And then the devotional I am following said this for this Friday morning: The spiritual writer Richard Foster counsels us to practice the prayer of suffering. Sometimes it is a prayer of repentance for our own wrongdoing. Sometimes it is a prayer of trust in God when unjust sufferings have come our way. Sometimes it is a prayer to take on the sufferings of others, and by our prayer to relieve them. By this kind of prayer, we may even embrace the sufferings of the world, the wars, the famines, the ethnic cleansings, the suicide bombings, the persecutions. We give them to Jesus. We give them to God. When we join our sufferings and those of others to the sufferings of Jesus, something will come right....This kind of prayer is a wrestling with the mystery of evil. In this prayer we acknowledge what we do not understand—in our own lives, in the sorrow of the world—and we lift it up to God.

---Emilie Griffin, Small Surrenders.

Prayer List for April

So, with the picture of the rainbow and these thoughts in mind, here is our list from Tuesday evening's prayer time.

- ◆ We are mindful of the departures of Maynard Yoder, Julie Krehbiel, Sarah Stahl, James Merk, Sharon Schmidt, Quentin Kaufman, JoAnn Kaufman, and Jane Ross-Richer's father and the need for comfort in a time of sorrow for all these families.
- ◆ People with illness: Shirley Ries' sister Elvera, Belle Graber, Sue Gering (Don Gering's wife), Bob Hartzler, Tim Detweiler, and Gordon Scoville.
- ◆ Our congregation's need for a longer-term pastor, for strength and clarity of vision for the present pastors: Pastors Jack and Bob.
- ◆ For peace in our midst and in Ukraine.
- ◆ For Freeman Academy in a time of transition.
- ◆ For the life and well-being of other congregations in our region and the well-being of our denomination.
- ◆ For the willingness to be a discerning and communal body of faith.
- ◆ And we are grateful for our lives, for a successful Schmeckfest, for the completion of the project at Pine Ridge, for any moisture that falls, whether it is in the form of dew, sleet, snow, rain, fog. We love all of God's beauty that cheers our spirits.
