I. GOD CALLS US INTO PRAISE

Prelude

"Voluntary in A minor"-- Greene

Call to Worship (from Isaiah 49:13-15)

Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me; my Lord has forgotten me."

"But can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the child of her womb?
Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you," says the Lord.

Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth;

break forth, O mountains, into singing!

For the LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on his afflicted.

Invocation

Opening

"To the Lakeshore" – HWB #229

Greeting and Welcoming Each Other

Confession of Sin (in unison)

Lord, you have called us to repent, for your kingdom is near. You have called us to follow you and share in your mission. We confess we have been slow to respond. Though we live in a land of darkness and in the shadow of death, yet we grow accustomed to it and reluctant to let go of what is familiar and safe. Open our ears to hear you, our hearts to receive you, and our hands to release what is safe and familiar, so that we can follow you to bring light, healing, and life where you are leading us. Amen.

Benediction (from Isaiah 49)

Thus says the LORD: "In a time of favor I have answered you;
in a day of salvation I have helped you;

I will keep you and give you as a covenant to the peoples,
to establish the land, to nourish the desolate places,
to bring prisoners out of captivity,
to bring those hidden by darkness into light to be seen.

Your hungry shall feed along the roadways,
and even the bare heights shall be their pasture;
they shall not hunger or thirst,
neither scorching wind nor sun shall strike them,
for he who has pity on them will lead them,
and by springs of water will guide them.

Then you will know that I am the LORD;
those who wait for me shall not be put to shame."

THE CHURCH AT WORK

TODAY

We welcome all who are worshipping with us this morning! Coffee is available following the worship service in the Fellowship Hall.

Peace & Service Sanctuary Banner premiering in the sanctuary this Sunday! Bob Regier, the Kansas artist who designed the banner, writes:

"Perhaps there is no more familiar symbol of service within the Mennonite church than the logo of the Mennonite Central Committee. So I have given this symbol, composed of the cross and dove, a prominent position in the upper third of the banner. There is a circular motion around this symbol that alludes to the orb, or world. This witness through service is not restricted, but extends to the entire world. An olive branch forms the lower part of the circle. This symbol, as you recall, has its origins in the story of Noah and the flood. The dove returning to the ark with this branch has become a symbol of peace, reconciliation, and new life. The bright curved band at the upper right corner of the banner helps further define the orb and suggests a portion of a rainbow emerging from the darker left side. The rainbow is another symbol of God's reconciling action after the flood (Genesis 9). Placed below the symbols I have mentioned are the basin and towel. The towel sweeps to the very bottom of the banner and forms part of the bottom contour. Rooted in the account of the Passover supper, the towel and basin have become longstanding symbols for humility and service." Thanks to Lerace Graber, Chantel Hofer, LaRuth Kramer, Kathleen Miller, and Patty Holzwarth for their fine work creating the banner to Bob Regier's design.

On Jan. 25, the worship offering for the first time will go to the Mennonite World Conference Global Church Sharing Fund's Jubilee account. Through the Jubilee account of the Global Church Sharing Fund, MWC member and associate member churches in Africa, Asia and Latin America/Caribbean may receive a grant of up to $10 000 for ministries that advance the life and mission of their churches. Inspired by the biblical teaching of Sabbath and Jubilee year sharing (in Leviticus 25 and 2 Cor. 8:13-15, for example), Mennonite World Conference set up the Global Church Sharing Fund. Most of our members in our worldwide family of faith are in the Global South (Africa 52%, Asia 24%, Latin America 7%), while much of our material wealth remains with North American and European churches (15% and 1% of MWC membership, respectively). Churches in the Global South have used Sharing Fund Jubilee grants for: translation and publication of materials; scholarships for students; upgrading computer systems; church supplies; bicycles for evangelists; vehicles for church organizing; evangelism and leadership training; construction and repair of church facilities; promotion of Anabaptist identity and belonging. The fund has also been used for supporting the churches with relief actions when there is a natural disaster in their region.
