

Verses to Read: 2 Kings 6:8-23

The King of Aram wanted to capture Israel's king. God prevented that from happening by continually letting Elisha know where the soldiers of Aram were hiding out. Elisha would then tell the King of Israel. Finally, the King of Aram sent an army to get Elisha who wasn't afraid because he could see God's protection all around him. He asked God to open the eyes of his frightened servant who could then see the angels and fiery chariots too. The soldiers were then blinded, but instead of killing them, Elisha fed them well before sending them home. The King of Aram no longer attacked the kingdom of Israel.

*Sometimes it's better to show kindness to our enemies.
