CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Plagiarism: Delegates should not engage in plagiarism of any form, and all ideas written in position papers, directives, and resolutions during committee should be a product of the delegate's own work. This includes not pre-writing resolutions or directives outside of committee, and not using AI to write papers for this conference.
2. Dress Code: The dress code at ENMUNC is formal attire. Delegates are expected to wear Western Business Attire.
3. Respect: Delegates should treat each other with respect. Discrimination, bullying, and harassment will not be tolerated. Delegates should not engage in racism, sexism, homophobia, xenophobia, or any other form of discrimination, under any circumstances.
4. Technology Policy: Delegates should not use their cell phones during committee. Laptops are only allowed in General Assembly committees during unmoderated caucuses for writing resolutions, and delegates should not be typing outside of this time. Crisis committees are technology-free (bring a pen to write with!). Delegates should not use AI services like ChatGPT.
5. All delegates under the age of 18 should be accompanied by a teacher, guardian, parent, faculty sponsor, or trusted adult during the duration of the conference, while on the campus of Emory University.
