

MODEL
UNITED NATIONS
AT
EMORY XIV

Delegate Handbook

October 2nd-5th, 2025

Atlanta, Georgia

LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Delegates,

On behalf of the Emory International Relations Association, it is my esteemed privilege to extend to you an invitation to the 14th iteration of Emory's annual collegiate Model United Nations conference, MUNE! MUNE XIV will commence on Thursday, October 2nd, and conclude on Sunday, October 5th, 2025, hosted at the Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Allow me to introduce myself, Hannah Lo, as the Secretary General for this year's conference. Having been a member of our travel team since my freshman year, it is an honor to assume this position. This marks the third consecutive fall MUNE, and following the exceptional efforts of my predecessor, Eliza Jones, we aspire to not only meet but surpass the standards set by MUNE XIII. I eagerly anticipate the participation of all delegates, and I acknowledge that such an endeavor would not be achievable without the dedication of the Secretariat Members and Crisis Directors of MUNE XIV.

Model United Nations has served the important role of inspiring global thinking, diplomacy, and intellectual curiosity. In a time of increased uncertainty within many of our academic institutions, MUN serves as a platform for challenging how we imagine the world, not only through debate but also in action. This year, MUNE will be partnering with Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network (GAIN), supporting their critical work of providing free legal services to immigrants and asylum seekers.

Thank you for joining us, and I am beyond thrilled to welcome you to MUNEXIV!

Sincerely,
Hannah Lo
MUNE XIV Secretary-General

CLOSING KEYNOTE SPEAKER

SALLY SANKO DIRECTOR OF CLIENT CARE AT GAIN

As the Director of Client Care, Sally Sanko is dedicated to strategizing ways in which GAIN can support clients beyond their legal needs, serve clients holistically, and expand wrap-around services. Having over a decade of experience serving immigrants and refugees as a case manager, Sally is enthusiastic about community-based approaches and trauma-informed care.

Sally was born and raised in Central Kansas. She attended the University of Kansas where she began organizing with migrant farm worker unions. This experience inspired her to move to Guatemala to learn Spanish, start farming, and pursue a career in immigration-based social work. Upon graduating with her Bachelor's in Religious Studies in 2012, Sally entered the immigration case management field as an AmeriCorps Member and completed her Masters in Social Work at the University of Kansas in 2017.

Sally uses a range of case management tools and approaches while providing case management for undocumented families, refugees, and unaccompanied minors in a variety of settings and is looking forward to utilizing these experiences to tailor case management programming to collaborate with GAIN clients to meet their goals.

MEET THE SECRETARIAT

SECRETARY GENERAL

Hannah Lo

Hannah (she/her) is a junior at Emory College of Arts and Sciences majoring in US History and minoring in statistics. She is from Portland, Oregon, where she served as the Oregon MUN Secretary General. In Emory

International Relations Association, she has served a variety of leadership positions, and she is excited to take on the role of Secretary General of MUNE XIV. Aside from MUN, Hannah is deeply interested in researching immigration in the United States. She additionally enjoys hiking, reading fiction, and trying new food in her free time. Under her leadership, she hopes that MUNE XIV will be the best MUNE to date! You can reach her at hannah.lo@emory.edu.

DIRECTOR GENERAL Sahana Nellian

Sahana (she/her) is a senior at Emory studying Political Science & Quantitative Sciences. She's from the Bay Area, California and loves any kind of competitive speaking activity, having done debate for 8 years. She just joined the Emory MUN team last semester, but loves it so much already! Outside of MUN, she loves reading, traveling, and spending time with friends. She's really excited for a super fun MUNE!

CHIEF OF STAFF Nayan Mallubhotla

Nayan Mallubhotla (she/her) is a senior from West Bloomfield, Michigan, majoring in Psychology on the Pre-med track. She has been in Model UN since her first year in college, and loves competing on the circuit! On the Emory team, she has served as head delegate and has CD-ed multiple crisis committees for previous MUNE's (shoutout JCC aliens)! Outside of MUN, she hangs out with her lovely Dengue Viruses in her lab at the Emory School of Medicine, and volunteers at a hospice clinic.

USG OF CRISIS

Mac Fabens

Mac Fabens (he/him) is a Senior from Brooklyn, New York studying International Studies and Economics at Emory. He started MUN as a freshman at Emory and has since directed multiple crisis committees and been a head delegate for several semesters. When he isn't competing on the circuit, he enjoys reading, baking, canoeing, running, and anything else of the sort. Academically, Mac is interested in history, conservation, politics, and english, in whatever combination they may arise. He looks forward to encouraging dynamic, challenging, and fun crisis committees this MUNE!

USG OF GA

Angel Sosa

Angel Sosa (He/Him) is from Las Vegas, Nevada. He is a third-year student at Emory University, majoring in Political Science. He has competed in Model UN since high school and staffed several committees. Outside of MUN, he enjoys music, clothing, and desk accessories.

USG OF OUTREACH Nana Donkor

Welcome to Atlanta everyone! My name is Nana (she/her/hers), I'm an Economics and Political Science major at Emory, finishing up my freshman year here (can't believe it!). I've been involved in MUN since high school and have continued my passion for into college as a member of the EIRA travel team. Outside MUN, you can find me binging Netflix shows (currently re-watching Bridgerton, again) or making a new travel board. See you at this MUNE and the next!

USG OF LOGISTICS Ted Carter

Ted (he/him) is a junior from Boston majoring in Political Science and History. He has competed in MUN for three years, and has served as a Chair and Co-Chair for Emory's high school and collegiate conferences.

Outside of MUN, he is involved with Emory's chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the community service fraternity, and he also loves to listen to music, watch the Celtics, and put his friends on to new slang terms. He is excited to see what transpires at MUNE this year!

USG OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Megan Xing

Megan (she/her) is a junior at Emory University double majoring in Creative Writing and History. She is from Queens, New York and has been a member of Emory's Model UN team since fall 2024, serving as its treasurer since 2025. Outside of MUN, she is the Editor-in-Chief at Pollux Journal and an intern for the Atlanta Urban Debate League. In her free time, she likes reading, watching Fleabag, and save-scumming on PokeRogue. If you have any questions or book recommendations, feel free to reach out to her at megan.xing@emory.edu.

USG OF BUSINESS

Eric Brekhman

Eric Brekhman (he/him) is a sophomore at Emory University from Livingston, New Jersey. He is pursuing a double major in business administration and international studies. He joined Model UN as a freshman in college. Outside of Model UN, Eric likes fencing, playing piano, and watching tennis.

MUNE CODE OF CONDUCT

Delegates are expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct at all times. The MUNE Secretariat reserves the right to remove delegates from events upon failure to uphold the following:

Substance Policy

Emory University enforces a strict zero-tolerance policy regarding the illegal use of drugs and alcohol. Consumption of alcohol by anyone under the age of 21 is expressly forbidden. Any breaches of this policy will be reported to the delegate's Head Delegate and the relevant authorities.

Smoking Policy

The use of tobacco products, including smoking, is not allowed on Emory's campus or in any buildings associated with Emory University.

Photography Consent

By registering for Emory MUN, delegates agree to being photographed by conference staff for promotional materials. If a delegate does not wish for their image to be used, they must inform the Director General prior to the event.

Dress Code

Delegates are required to wear Western business attire. Professional dress is expected throughout all debate sessions.

Harassment Policy

Any form of harassment, including but not limited to racism, sexism, or any actions that compromise inclusivity, will not be tolerated. Offenders will be addressed swiftly and may face disqualification from awards and reporting to their Head Delegate. All incidents of bigotry will be escalated to the Director General, which may impact award eligibility for both individuals and their delegations.

MUNE CODE OF CONDUCT

Sexual Harassment and Violence

Sexual harassment and violence are completely unacceptable. Any such incidents will be reported to the Director General, and offending delegates will be disqualified immediately.

Electronic Devices

Guidelines regarding the use of electronic devices will be provided by the chairs of each committee.

Sportsmanship

Delegates are expected to practice good sportsmanship and uphold the principles of fair play at all times.

Honor Code

Delegates must adhere to the Emory University Honor Code, which emphasizes academic integrity and respect within the community. Violations may lead to investigation and potential disqualification by the Director General.

Compliance

Delegates are obligated to follow the policies of their respective schools as well as those of Emory University. By participating in Emory MUN, all delegates agree to comply with this Code of Conduct to ensure a positive and respectful experience for all.

GEORGIA ASYLUM AND IMMIGRATION NETWORK

GAIN's mission is to protect and empower immigrant survivors of crime and persecution. Founded in 2005, GAIN serves low-income individuals and families from over 120 countries, many of whom have experienced extreme trauma and face significant barriers to accessing justice and basic needs. In 2024, GAIN provided legal services and support to more than 2,700 clients and their family members across the state of Georgia, including women, children, and asylum-seekers who are often isolated, food-insecure, and without access to public benefits. Through free direct legal representation, case management, and community outreach, GAIN helps these individuals build safe, stable, and self-sufficient lives.

MUNEXIV is committing 50% of the profits from our conference fundraisers—including candy grams and merchandise sales—and 100% of our Chipotle fundraiser to GAIN. We are honored to additionally feature a guest speaker from GAIN organization during our closing ceremony.
