Typical hot, humid summer weather has hit us hard. However, I'm hoping you're keeping cool in your sewing 'rooms' finishing your quilts, getting your registrations ready (I've gotten 13 so far), raffle tickets sold - - all that fun stuff that goes along with putting on a quilt show!! ONLY SEVEN WEEKS LEFT!! Nervousness and excitement - all part of it.

The Olympics are helping me, when I'm tired of sewing bindings and labels. I stop feeling sorry for myself. I like hearing the stories of the athletes as much as seeing them compete.

If you know someone who's a member, but not been at a meeting recently, please ask them to volunteer for one of the committees. We need to get all those spots filled. Thanks.

Stay cool. See you soon.

Kay Dahlquist

Fun fact:

The average ear of corn has 800 kernels in 16 rows. A cob almost always have an even number of rows.

RAFFLE QUILT

We are showing the raffle quilt. The quilt is approximately 96' x 102". Over the next few months the quilt will be available to members to show at sites they choose. Now is your chance to show off all our hard work. Please contact Brenda Barwick (kidcrzy4@msn.com). Also don't forget to sell, sell, sell those tickets.

VP NEWS

"August Program

Connie and Hannah, from Off the Rails Quilting, in Bondurant IA, will present the program for our August 9th meeting. The ladies will demonstrate some very popular Specialty Rulers. We know they will not disappoint. Hope to see you all there. Bring cash or your checkbook. You may want to purchase something.

Class on August 14, 2021 ~ Finishing School

We have built a very good class participation base for Billie Hanson's class on binding options and alternatives. There is always room for a few more. If you are still interested, and have not already contacted me, please sign up and pay the $10.00 class fee at the August 9th meeting. I'll provide you with a supply list once you sign up. Billie wanted you all to know that her number one rule for the class is Have Fun. We plan to do just that!

President's Quilt

We are still accepting autograph blocks. If you haven't already made one, and you would like to, please do so now.

Carol Joy Hollings Retreat

The registration is now open to non-guild members. Sign up you and your friend now. The registration sheet is attached as a pdf document.

Newsletter News from the creator of newsletter

Kay said it Awesome August. July went way to fast. I did manage to get a vacation to North Dakota and Minnesota. My son got married and the family went to a lake cabin for 5 days. Great time But the now I have another quilt to make. But I have the material and pattern. A plus. Now getting back to my show quilts. I have a another wedding in September of a close friends daughter. That quilt needs to be quilted. First one on the list. All and all it has been a short summer. School is starting. I have a Senior grandson. That means another quilt. I better get busy. I am so thankful for the guild because it has challenged me in many ways and I have met wonderful people. Mary Bartram
