Presidents Message

DECEMBER

Hello ladies,

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL!!

- ❄ I hope you all had a pleasant Thanksgiving. Ours quiet, but nice. We even took a nice walk outside.
- ❄ It was decided by the members at our last guild meeting, that we would NOT MEET IN DECEMBER. Between the busy holidays and the rise in COVID cases, it's safer for all of us if we limit our contact with others. Just think - only one more month of this very challenging year!!
- ❄ Thank you to our new officers: V.P.: Christine Gengler and Luanna Gruber; Secretary: Teri Mevius; and newsletter: Mary Bartram. A very big thank you to our outgoing officers: Lois Pirozek, Monica Holland, and Sharon Bobier.
- ❄ Just a reminder that 2021 dues are due in January-March. The revised amount will be $12.00. New or returning members will pay $20.00. If you won't be at a meeting, please send a check to Betty Pratt.
- ❄ If winter weather prevents us from meeting, an e-mail will be sent before 4:00 PM. If school is cancelled, so are we. We're also working on a phone tree.

May all your December days be "Merry and Bright".

Kay Dahlquist

Meeting Minutes November 2020

- Meeting opened by Kay Dahlquist
- Members present: 29. No guests or new members
- Monthly mini by Diane Schlotman won by Vicki Williams
- Previous minutes accepted with spelling corrections.
- Treasures report ok
- Festival of Trees. The FOT has been cancelled this year due to COVID. Any ornaments you have will still be collected by Latomah and used next year. A big thank you to the nine members who have turned in tree ornaments. So far we have 54. We need approx 100 more. Hopefully by the January meeting.
- Terri has not collected the tree for FOT. Thank you to her and Lowe's.
- Sign up sheet is being passed for next year's monthly mini donations. It seems the same people are participating. Sign up if you wish to do a month.
- Lori Salem has donated the blocks she won at our last Quilting Bee. Mary Bartram has taken them and will fashion them into quilts for Habitat for Humanity.
- Alyce is not here tonight. Kay will take any sunshine quilts you have.
- See Alyce if you need tags to put on the backs of sunshine quilts.
- 35 sweatshop quilts have been turned in so far. They will be offered to the residents of the fire in North Sioux and to Habitat. If you have any other suggestions, let Tammy Kratky know.
- Mary Bartram asked about the guild making wheel chair quilts. Kay said to maybe bring in a sample. Need dimensions, amounts needed and who will receive them etc. maybe a good idea for our next sweatshop. Bring up at a later date.
- LuAnna Gruber said the next Karol J. Holling retreat will be Nov 19-21, 2021.
- Open officer positions were filled. LuAnna Gruber and Christine Gengler will be co-Vice presidents. Mary Bartram is Newsletter, and Terri Mevius Secretary. Thank you to all the outgoing officers.
- Kristy Lynn motioned and Lynn Morgan second nominations of new officers. Passed. New members are asked to be at the quilt guild board meeting 6 pm before the next meeting.
- It's winter. Watch for the school closings. If no school, then no meeting. Check your E-mails. Will try to post by 4 if cancelled. Mary Baklund will do call list.
- There will be no potluck in Dec. Bring an ornament or fat quarters to next meeting for prizes for a game. UPDATE: due to COVID and the numbers going up, it was decided to cancel December's meeting.
- Christine asked for input on what we want to do at quilt guild meetings.
- Brenda Barwick said there will be a walk through of the convention center Monday at 5:45. She will start having monthly meetings with the quilt show chairs starting in Jan. 1st Monday before guild meeting. 6:30 at Perkins (across from Menards).
- Vicki Williams and Lori Baldwin displayed 8 quilt entries from their other quilt guild. Votes were taken from the present members to choose a winner. Will announce winner next meeting.
- Last month's flea market/peanut brittle sale raised $12,250. Pastor Zirpel thanked all that participated.
- Sac City forgot our meeting. Our program was a word find followed by examples of the different quilt blocks found.
- Show and tell and meeting closed.
