Mother Nature IS having HOT FLASHES....

It's so nice to see GREEN again.

Brenda O. and I took our machines to Sioux Falls to get them serviced - not the best time to do it-- 3 months before the show. That's why we have a back-up, YES??

With Tulip Festival, Memorial Day, graduations and other get-togethers behind us, we can look forward to vacations, gardening, hanging out by the pool or on the porch. Summer seems to energize me.

I look forward to seeing projects from the collage class. I hope you're working on projects for the quilt show. It's getting closer.

The directions and entry forms are in the newsletter. Please remember - to enter a quilt you need to attend 2 meetings this year, sell raffle tickets and work at the show.

See you at the June meeting. We'll be in the fellowship hall again. We'll be passing the volunteer sheets for the show, so be thinking about what committee you'd like to help with.

Kay Dahlquist

RAFFLE QUILT

We are ready To show the raffle quilt. The quilt is approximately 96' x 102". Over the next few months the quilt will be available to members to show at sites they choose. Now is your chance to show off all our hard work. Please contact Brenda Barwick ( kidcrzy4@msn.com ). Also don't forget to sell, sell, sell those tickets.

VP NEWS

"President's Quilt

"Attached, are instructions for our President's Quilt. Please keep in mind that we prefer to have all of your blocks by the July 12th meeting. The participation of the entire guild will be greatly appreciated. Help us honor Kay at the end of her tenure. It's not a secret, except for the final quilt!"

"Program for July 12, 2021

Many of you were interested in the Design Boards we recently used to show our HST paper piecing demonstration. Well, Lori Baldwin took it further. She found a YouTube instructional video made by the designer of these boards, Lori Holt. Our Lori has designed a class which she will present at the July 12th meeting. All you will need to do is make the binding strip. One Word attachment, to this newsletter, gives you the instructions, for the strip. The other Word document is the full project instruction. Please have your binding strip ready for the class. If you have a glue gun and glue cartridges, please bring them. The class will go much smoother if most of us have a glue gun. We sincerely hope you will all choose to participate."

"Potluck

Our Potluck is also scheduled for the July meeting. We'll eat first, clean our tables, and get ready for the design board class. We always start our potlucks at 6:30 pm. At this time, we are not planning to have a potluck in December. So, take advantage of this opportunity to show off your cooking and baking skills. Here are the meal course assignments according to your last name.

A - J: Salad
K - R: Dessert
S - Z: Main Dish"

"Carol Joy Holling ~ Quilt Retreat

Another attachment to the newsletter is the sign-up sheet for our CJH Retreat in November. Please print it out, fill it in, and return to Luanna with the reservation fee as soon as you know you can commit to your attendance. This venue is excellent. Our rooms are clean and comfortable. Meals are included in the price. And, our sewing spaces are roomy and full of natural light. Please consider joining us.

"Call for UPC (Universal Product Code) Donations

SSQG provides and pays for the batting for Sunshine Quilts and Sweat Shop Quilts. In order to get price breaks for rolls of batting, one of our members collects UPCs from packages of Hobbs Batting. The UPC off any package of Hobbs Batting is eligible. She depends on membership donations of the UPCs. The UPCs are used on her order form for the Guild's benefit. When a new roll is needed, she is able to order it using the UPCs to give us the price break. The next time you open a new package of Hobbs Batting, please cut out the UPC and give it to one of us. We'll make sure it gets to her. Your help will be appreciated. Christine Gengler ~ Luanna Gruber."

Newsletter Letter News from the creator....not God...Mary Bartram

Well the older I get the more I marvel at humanity. Life is short so enjoy it. I just wanted to take time to honor Sharon Bobier. Sharon passed away suddenly in May. Her birthday was in June, so I ask that you honor her with your thoughts. I was lucky to know her for a short time. But I would have rather known her longer.

So far June has been a month of losses. But behold I bring you tidings of good joy, The quilting show is coming and you have an excuse to hole up in you quilting room. "I just have to get my quilt done. "

The training on Saturday was great fun. But now I have but yet another unfinished project. Where to all those projects go when we die? I hope to someone that finishes them. And so is the theme of one of my quilts.

Well the newsletter has been a challenge but I am doing it. Thank you for your patience.

There are several attachments to the newsletter. But one important one is the rules for the quilts and most important the registration.

Thanks Ladies,

May you tension stay right.

Love you, Mary Bartram
