Presidents Message

The weather's cold and I'm still on the mend. Will be on crutches for at least another 4 weeks, but I'm dealing with it. I started physical therapy last week. Most of it is stretching and getting range of motion back. It's not easy. But I make sure I do the exercises. I want to get back to normal. Wait, was I ever normal? Oh, well. That's not up to me to decide.

One of the things they tell you when walking pretend there's a baby bird under your foot. It's called toe touch. No weight bearing. Sad to say that baby bird has died a thousand deaths. I'm not putting full weight on it, but it's almost impossible to not put any weight on it. My only wish right now is I could drive. Since it's my left knee you'd think I could drive, buuut I drive a stick. So it's out of the question. Anyone want to loan me a nice big car? Lol

Hopefully it will begin warming soon and spring will be here.

For all who are signed up for National Quilt Day or want to I'll be sending information later this week.

Baring a full on blizzard or ice storm I'll see everyone at Guild on the 11th or sooner at Girls Night Out on the 8th.

Stay safe and stay warm!

Teri

Dear Quilters:

I am heading up the SCRAP TABLE for the Quilt Show.

You may begin bringing any scraps/pieces of fabric.

I will collect at each meeting.

Thanks. Kay Dahlquist

Dear Fellow Guild Members,

With our Feb mtg. being cancelled, I would like to give you an update on Megan's pillowcase project. (Before I forget, she left a thank you note here for the Guild several weeks ago, and I thought it would be just as expeditious to bring it to the mtg.) She gave 30 dresses from the ones that my sewing pals and I made to a friend and her daughter who are going to Guatemala next week. (Interesting sidebar: Amaya was adopted as an infant from Guatemala 12 years ago and was promised a trip there -how awesome that she is going to help build 3 houses!) We talked to the Sioux Prairie group and are still hoping for some dresses. We went to Cherokee, and their group seemed very willing to help. For the most part those dresses will go with one of their member's church mission. There are groups going from Sunnybrook several times this year. The Mission Honduras group is packing before our next mtg, SO I am asking that if you have dresses done before March 9 to please take them to Heart and Hand. My daughter and Megan will go to get them. The first 50 dresses will go to Mission Honduras (we are already approaching that goal) and the rest of the dresses that are donated after that date will go with the Sunnybrook travelers.

Thank you so much for your generosity,

(Grandma) Ginny

2019 "Everything Old is New Again" Quilt Show October 19 & 20, 2019

New location – The Delta Convention Center South Sioux City

We are looking for a few good women to join the team. We are sending this list out ahead of Monday's meeting so you have time to think about how your talents can contribute to this guild event. Remember, you will not be alone - some of us are first timers too, but we are here to support each other as we learn and have fun working together. The 2017 committee members have offered their experienced guidance and we know what a fun and knowledgeable group they are! And we have many other members with past experience leading the quilt shows to draw upon.

2019 Quilt Show Committee Chairs:

- Chairperson - Kristy Lynn
- Admissions - Alyce King
- Raffle quilt - Jane Vereen
- Challenge - Jane Vereen
- Raffle Ticket sales - Dianne Schlotman
- Boutique - Willa Yates
- Mini raffle - Sherry Book
- Vendors - Deb Martin
- Banquet - Betty Pratt
- Speaker - Loraine/Jane
- Registration & check in - Loraine Smith
- T-shirt design - Kristy Lynn
- Scavenger hunt for kids - Tammy Kratky
- *CHAIR/CO-CHAIRS NEEDED:
 - Hanging & take down -
 - Publicity -
 - "Quilt mom" -
- Coordinate displaying quilt places for ticket sales
 - T-shirt sales -
 - Ribbons -
- Ex: viewers choice, guild choice, hanging committee, speaker, vendor...

- Scrap Dive -
- Special exhibits -
- Ideas? Youth exhibit, sister quilts, clue quilts, challenge quilts

Feel free to sign up with a buddy - it would be great to have co-chairs for every committee on the list! We look forward to working with you. If you are unable to come to guild Monday to sign up you can email, text or phone!

Thank you!

Lorraine Smith
