Presidents Message

Hello ladies,

We've had a little bit of fall and winter these past weeks - typical Iowa tease!

I hope the kids had fun on Halloween, even if they didn't get as much candy as usual.

November brings elections, the end of political ads (YEA!), and adjusting family traditional plans for Thanksgiving.

LaTomah was informed that the Festival of Trees has been cancelled for this year. If we have a tree, it will be stored for us. If you've started your ornaments, please finish and bring them to the meeting or Heart and Hand. They'll be used next year.

We are still in need of volunteers for Secretary and Newsletter. Luanna Gruber and Christine Gengler have volunteered to co-chair the Vice-Presidency. We should vote the next meeting. We still need someone to chair the Publicity and Registration committees for the quilt show. Please contact Brenda Barwick.

Our guild meeting, the ninth, will feature the Tin Ceiling from Sac City, IA. Please bring or send your raffle blocks so Rhonda can sew the quilt.

If you were at Carol Joy Holling, please bring one of your projects to show.

The same guidelines apply: Masks and safe distancing are mandatory. Sanitizer, gloves and extra masks will be available at the door.

Stay safe, and see you soon.

Kay Dahlquist

Meeting Minutes October 2020

Meeting opened by Kay Dahlquist

-22 members present. No guests or new members

-one change to previous minutes. Mary Bartrum will chair the silent raffle for the quilt show.

-Treasurers report ok

-Monthly mini made by Sharon Bobier won by Monica Holland. Raffle brought in $42.00.

-Officer —LuAnna Gruber and Christina Gengler will be co-Vice Presidents. Secretary and Newsletter are still unfilled.

-Girls inc.—not meeting due to COVID. Room too small. Usually has 4 girls and 4 adults.

-Festival of Trees- get your ornaments to LaToma by next months meeting. After the 9th of Nov, can drop them off at Heart and Hand until the 18th.

-Drawing amongst the Early ornament donators was a basket of goodies. Won by Kay Dahlquist.

-Terri Mevius will pick up a Christmas Tree from Lowe's for the Festival of Trees in the next few weeks. A Thank You will be sent to Lowe's for the donation.

-Sunshine quilts— Alyce has a notebook in the back for documenting any donations. Make sure quilts are out in plastic bags for protection due to quarantine.

-Sweatshop— If you have any quilts finished, Mary will collect them for Tammy.

-Karol J Holling retreat—LuAnna says there are still rooms available. Dates are oct 23-25. All monies have been received.

-Quilt show raffle—Kay demonstrated the block and how to construct it. Rhonda will square all the blocks once they are returned.

-Quilt show chair change. Sharon Bobier and Dee Dee Johnson will take over the scrap dive and Kay Dahlquist will handle the Judge room. Still need Publicity and Registration of quilts .

-Mary Ann Nooney will pick up and deliver the judge.

-Brenda Barwick will have a meeting fir all quilt show committee members Monday Oct 26, 7pm Perkins in morningside. She will reserve the room.

-Still checking with Jennifer for class ideas during the quilt show. No one seems interested in the quilt restoration class.

-Brenda asked for ideas for a T-Shirt design for the quilt show. Her E-Mail is Brenda.Orwic at Tyson.com or Kid Crzy4.Msm.com

-Cindy read a letter from Accuquilt . Katy Shaw will host a free Zoom class oct 30 3pm for the Go cutter dyes and cube. Discounts to recipients. Wants 25 or more people. She will send message to Katy with questions. What if we can't get 25 people, and what if you are not available at 3pm.

-Program— Lois asked everyone to bring a Mug Rug wrapped in decorative covering. We then did a passing game while she read a story to us. We all received a new mug rug from a guild member.

-LaToma said we have received 42 ornaments so far.

-Pastor Zurkal invited all to check out the parish rummage sale in the gym. Proceeds go to helping a parishioner whose baby has Spina Bifida. Has pecan brittle for $10 per box.

-Projects from the cathedral windows class and the coloring class were shown.

-Lois said that Tin Ceiling quilt shop in Sac City will be here in Nov.

-Show and tell and meeting ended.
