President's Message

Hello everyone and welcome to September! Cooler nights, kids back in school, and canning season in full swing!!! I wake up every morning when the school bus turns the corner in front of my house. That downshift means get up and get to it!

I am doing a bare minimum of canning this year... some beef from the freezer, and maybe a small batch of tomatoes.

But the quilting.... ah..... the quilting. I am cutting projects out and kitting for retreats, finishing projects that have been hanging around because i was bored with them or it was too hot. NOT BUYING but using my stash because I have a SABLE of fabric in my house... and I have discovered a few WOMBATS that I will be dealing with too!

See you soon!! Unless I get lost on a FART!!!

Your brave prez
Michele

The creator and owner of Frond Design Studios, from the Cedar Rapids' area, will join us on September 12th. Stephanie Brandenburg began her business by transferring her art into fabric. "...ideas become art and the art becomes fabric...you take that fabric and make your own art." If you've heard of her, you know just how beautiful her fabrics are. Heart and Hand Dry Goods Company has a sample project hanging in the shop. Stop by and have a look. Stephanie will present a trunk show and have some things for sale. For a little more information, here is the link to her website: <https://fronddesignstudios.com>

For October, we have asked one of our members to present an informative program. Pam Clark entered a quilt in the latest quilt show titled, "My Backyard." She participated in a class by Ricky Tims called GRIDIFIED ART QUILTS. Participants were taught to design their own creation using focus blocks surrounded by patchwork blocks. Here is a picture of her art quilt to give you an idea of the possibilities for this method.

Ricky Tims taught us how to make our own design using a grid. This is my creation for that class.

FYI: Do you all know Villa Rosa Designs? They create and sell the little pattern cards for $2.00. Some of us have quite a few. That means that we forget what we already have and sometimes buy duplicates. Well, Villa Rosa Designs has an easy fix for that problem. You can keep track of your pattern cards on a list of all their pattern cards. Simply install their app on your phone and create your lists of 'have' and 'want'. Search for Villa Rosa Designs on Apple or Android.

See you all on Monday, September 12th. Have a good Labor Day Holiday. We hope you took advantage of Art Splash this year.
