President's Message

Happy February everyone!

It's a busy time! First we have the sew in on Feb 4th, I hope to see a lot of you there! It's a great cause and lots of fun. Then Guild, Girls Nite Out, Valentines Day, at least 2 snowstorms, and the promise of warmer weather to come. I'm good with all that except the snow. I think I've seen enough, thank you very much!

I'm sure Lori and Vicky will have us busy this year! I'm working on my color/block that I drew because it will be due before I know it and I need to be ready.

Several upcoming retreats that some of you are going to, along with the Nebraska/Kansas shop hop in April. The Guild will be doing a retreat at Swan Lake in May and I'm sure the available spots will not last long!

Anyway....I have a football game to yell at, so see you soon!!!!

Michele

February 3, 2023

Hello welcome everyone to The February meeting.

We're doing things just a bit different because you haven't heard enough of my nonsense this month!

Lori is out of town, and Vicky has a pending family issue, so I am reporting on the program!

The program is for everyone to bring a quilt with a mistake. The members will try to find it. Anyone that brings a mistake quilt gets their name in for a drawing for a prize.

Please hang on to your UFO sheet until the March meeting then turn into Vicky. Don't forget your sunshine quilts and anything you have for Show and Tell!

Ok. Everyone keep Vicky and her family in their thoughts. We will hope to see her on the 13th!

Thanks

Michele

Hello fellow quilters! I'm a member of Mahaska Stitch N' Quilt Guild in Oskaloosa. Myself and 2 friends (1 is a quilter and 1 aspires to be) are looking for a host home in Sioux City for RAGBRAI this year on Saturday, July 22. We are all 60+ year of age and are lowkey. We would just need some floor space and access to bathroom. Please forward my message to your members, I look forward to coming there in July. We've done RAGBRAI several times and always enjoy going to the area quilt shops and buying fabric for my statsh. lol
